AN ACT relating to educational personnel; revising provisions governing the monthly salaries of the members of the boards of trustees of school districts; requiring the board of trustees of each school district to adopt a program to engage certain administrators in annual classroom instruction, observation and other activities; making various changes regarding the evaluation and admonition of educational personnel; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law prescribes varying salaries for the officers and other members of the boards of trustees of school districts based on the number of pupils enrolled in the school district during the immediately preceding school year. (NRS 386.320) Section 2 of this bill revises provisions governing the salaries of the members of the boards of trustees of school districts based on the population of the county in which the school district is located. Section 2 also authorizes a member of the board of trustees to donate all or a part of his salary to a school within the school district or to the school district.

The board of trustees of a school district is authorized to employ a superintendent of schools, teachers and all other necessary employees. (NRS 391.100, 391.110, 391.120) Section 4 of this bill requires the board of trustees of each school district to adopt a program to engage administrators employed at the district level in annual classroom instruction, observation and other activities in a manner that is appropriate for the responsibilities, position and duties of the administrators.

Existing law requires each probationary teacher to be evaluated at least three times during each school year and a postprobationary teacher to be evaluated at least once each school year. (NRS 391.3125) Section 8 of this bill requires an administrator who is responsible for evaluating a teacher to personally observe that teacher in the classroom for not less than a cumulative total of 60 minutes during each evaluation period. If a deficiency is discovered during the evaluation process, every effort must be made to assist the teacher to correct the deficiency. Existing law prescribes the circumstances under which an administrator may admonish an employee. (NRS 391.313) Section 9 of this bill requires that, if an administrator admonishes a teacher, an admonition must include a description of the deficiencies of the teacher and the actions that are necessary to correct those deficiencies.

14 Sec. 9. NRS 391.313 is hereby amended to read as follows:

15 391.313 1. Whenever an administrator charged with

43 of the first or second year of his probationary period a probationary 44 employee does not receive a written notice pursuant to subsection 4

* S B 3 2 8 R 4 *

1 of NRS 391.3125 of a potential decision not to reemploy him, he 2 must receive an admonition before any such decision is made.

3 ~~[3-]~~ 4. A licensed employee is subject to immediate dismissal 4 or a refusal to reemploy according to the procedures provided in 5 NRS 391.311 to 391.3197, inclusive, without the admonition
6 required by this section, on grounds contained in paragraphs (b), (f), 7 (g), (h) and (p) of subsection 1 of NRS 391.312.

8 Sec. 10. NRS 391.3197 is hereby amended to read as follows:

9 391.3197 1. A probationary employee is employed on a 10 contract basis for two 1-year periods and has no right to 11 employment after either of the two probationary contract years.

12 2. The board shall notify each probationary employee in 13 writing on or before May 1 of the first and second school years of 14 his probationary period, as appropriate, whether he is to be 15 reemployed for the second year of the probationary period or for the 16 next school year as a postprobationary employee. The employee 17 must advise the board in writing on or before May 10 of the first or 18 second year of his probationary period, as appropriate, of his 19 acceptance of reemployment. If a probationary employee is assigned 20 to a school that operates all year, the board shall notify him in 21 writing, in both the first and second years of his probationary period, 22 no later than 45 days before his last day of work for the year under 23 his contract whether he is to be reemployed for the second year of 24 the probationary period or for the next school year as a
25 postprobationary employee. He must advise the board in writing 26 within 10 days after the date of notification of his acceptance or 27 rejection of reemployment for another year. Failure to advise the 28 board of his acceptance of reemployment constitutes rejection of the 29 contract.

30 3. A probationary employee who completes his 2-year
31 probationary period and receives a notice of reemployment from the 32 school district in the second year of his probationary period is 33 entitled to be a postprobationary employee in the ensuing year of 34 employment.

35 4. ~~[A]~~ If a probationary employee ~~[who receives an~~ 36 ~~unsatisfactory evaluation]~~ receives notice pursuant to subsection 4
37 of NRS 391.3125 not later than March 1 of a potential decision
38 not to reemploy him, the employee may request a supplemental 39 evaluation by another administrator in the school district selected by 40 him and the superintendent. If a school district has five or fewer 41 administrators, the supplemental evaluator may be an administrator
42 from another school district in ~~[the]~~ this State. If a probationary 43 employee has received during the first school year of his 44 probationary period three evaluations which state that the 45 employee's overall performance has been satisfactory, the

1 superintendent of schools of the school district or his designee shall 2 waive the second year of the employee's probationary period by 3 expressly providing in writing on the final evaluation of the 4 employee for the first probationary year that the second year of his 5 probationary period is waived. Such an employee is entitled to be a 6 postprobationary employee in the ensuing year of employment.

7 5. If a probationary employee is notified that he will not be 8 reemployed for the second year of his probationary period or the 9 ensuing school year, his employment ends on the last day of the 10 current school year. The notice that he will not be reemployed must 11 include a statement of the reasons for that decision.

12 6. A new employee or a postprobationary teacher who is 13 employed as an administrator shall be deemed to be a probationary
14 employee for the purposes of this section and must serve a 2-year 15 probationary period as an administrator in accordance with the 16 provisions of this section. If the administrator does not receive an 17 unsatisfactory evaluation during the first year of probation, the 18 superintendent or his designee shall waive the second year of the 19 administrator's probationary period. Such an administrator is 20 entitled to be a postprobationary employee in the ensuing year of 21 employment. If:

22 (a) A postprobationary teacher who is an administrator is not 23 reemployed as an administrator after either year of his probationary

26 school year in the school district in which the person is employed, 27 ➡ the board of trustees of the school district shall, on or before
28 May 1, offer the person a contract as a teacher for the ensuing 29 school year. The person may accept the contract in writing on or 30 before May 10. If the person fails to accept the contract as a teacher, 31 the person shall be deemed to have rejected the offer of a contract as 32 a teacher.

33 7. An administrator who has completed his probationary period 34 pursuant to subsection 6 and is thereafter promoted to the position of 35 principal must serve an additional probationary period of 1 year in 36 the position of principal. If the administrator serving the additional 37 probationary period is not reemployed as a principal after the 38 expiration of the additional probationary period, the board of 39 trustees of the school district in which the person is employed shall, 40 on or before May 1, offer the person a contract for the ensuing 41 school year for the administrative position in which the person
42 attained postprobationary status. The person may accept the contract
43 in writing on or before May 10. If the person fails to accept such a 44 contract, the person shall be deemed to have rejected the offer of 45 employment.

1       8. Before dismissal, the probationary employee is entitled to a 2 hearing before a hearing officer which affords due process as set out
3 in NRS 391.311 to 391.3196, inclusive.

4       Sec. 11. On or before February 1, 2008, the board of trustees 5 of each school district shall submit a copy of the program to engage 6 administrators in annual classroom instruction, observation and 7 other activities adopted by the school district pursuant to section 4 8 of this act to the Legislative Committee on Education and to the 9 Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau for transmission to the 10 75th Session of the Nevada Legislature.

11       Sec. 12. Notwithstanding the provisions of NRS 386.320, as 12 amended by section 2 of this act, to the contrary, the salaries of the 13 members of the board of trustees of a school district are not required 14 to be increased pursuant to that section until January 1, 2009. The 15 board of trustees of a school district may, by affirmative vote, 16 provide for the increase of salaries pursuant to NRS 386.320, as 17 amended by section 2 of this act, before January 1, 2009.

18       Sec. 13. The provisions of subsection 1 of NRS 354.599 do 19 not apply to any additional expenses of a local government that are 20 related to the provisions of this act.

21       Sec. 14. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2007.
