

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to crimes; providing that certain witnesses may testify by simultaneous audiovisual transmission in certain circumstances; providing that certain affidavits and declarations are admissible in certain criminal proceedings; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Before 2005, NRS 50.315 and 50.320 allowed affidavits and declarations of certain persons to be admitted as evidence during any criminal or administrative proceeding, including a trial, to prove certain facts relating to the testing of the blood, breath or urine of an accused to determine the presence or concentration of alcohol or certain other substances. During the 2005 Legislative Session, those provisions were amended so that such affidavits and declarations could only be used during a hearing before a grand jury or a preliminary hearing. (Chapter 443, Statutes of Nevada 2005, p. 2044) Those amendments were made in response to an opinion of the Nevada Supreme Court in 2004 which held that the affidavit of the nurse who withdrew the blood of a defendant accused of driving a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol was inadmissible at trial unless the defendant had an opportunity to cross-examine the person providing the testimony as required by the Sixth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. (City of Las Vegas v. Walsh, 120 Nev. Adv. Op. 44, 91 P.3d 591, 596 (2004)) In December of 2005, the Nevada Supreme Court withdrew its opinion in City of Las Vegas and instead held that NRS 50.315 as it existed before its decision in City of Las Vegas was not unconstitutional and adequately preserved the rights of an accused under the Constitution. (City of Las Vegas v. Walsh, 121 Nev. Adv. Op. 85, 124 P.3d 203, 209 (2005)) Although the Court agreed that the evidence is testimonial, the statute allowed for the court to order the witness to testify in court in certain circumstances. Accordingly, such evidence may be made admissible during other criminal and administrative proceedings if authorized by statute.

Sections 2 and 3 of this bill amend NRS 50.315 and 50.320 to return the language of those sections to that which existed before 2005. Sections 2 and 3 provide that the affidavits and declarations referred to in those sections in certain circumstances may be admitted into evidence during any criminal proceeding, including a trial. Section 4 of this bill provides the procedure for having such affidavits and declarations admitted into evidence at trial and the notice that must be provided to the defense in such circumstances. Section 1 of this bill adds a new provision allowing the affiant or declarant to testify by audiovisual transmission when testimony is required to admit the affidavit or declaration.
