SUMMARY—Creates the Office of Information Security within the Department of Information Technology. (BDR 19-575)

FISCAL NOTE: Effect on Local Government: No.
Effect on the State: No.

~

EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to the Department of Information Technology; creating the Office of Information Security within the Department; requiring the Director of the Department to adopt certain regulations; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law creates the Department of Information Technology and includes within the Department two divisions: (1) the Planning and Programming Division; and (2) the Communication and Computing Division. (NRS 242.080) Section 1 of this bill adds to the Department a third component, the Office of Information Security. Existing law directs the Planning and Research Unit of the Planning and Programming Division to develop standards to ensure the security of the information systems of the Executive Branch of Government. (NRS 242.115) Sections 2 and 3 of this bill remove the development of such standards from the list of duties applicable to the Planning and Research Unit and instead require the Director of the Department to adopt such standards by regulation. (NRS 242.111)
