AN ACT relating to juvenile sex offenders; requiring the parent of a child who is the victim of a sexual offense to give written consent before the name of the child may be included in a notice provided to a school; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law requires the parole or probation officer who supervises a child 2 who has been adjudicated delinquent for a sexual offense or a sexually motivated 3 act to provide notice that the child has been adjudicated as such to the 4 superintendent of the school district in which the child resides or, if the child is 5 attending a private school, to the executive head of the private school. (NRS 6 62F.120) If the victim of the sexual offense or sexually motivated act attends a 7 public or private school in this State, the notification must include the name of the 8 victim. (NRS 62F.120) This bill requires the parole or probation officer to obtain 9 the written consent of the parent or guardian of the victim before including the 10 name of the victim in the notification.
