AN ACT relating to real estate; defining the term “agency” in the context of real estate brokers, salesmen and qualified intermediaries; revising the duties of a real estate licensee; allowing a client to waive certain required duties of a real estate licensee which relate to offers made to or by the client; prohibiting the waiver of other duties of a licensee; allowing for communications with the client of another broker under certain permissible circumstances; clarifying that such communication does not create an agency relationship with the client of the other broker; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law defines certain terms used in chapter 645 of NRS which relate to real estate brokers, salesmen and qualified intermediaries. (NRS 645.0005-645.044) Section 1.3 of this bill defines the term “agency” for that chapter.

Existing law imposes certain duties on a licensee who acts as an agent in a real estate transaction. (NRS 645.252) Section 2.5 of this bill provides that such a licensee owes no duty to conduct an investigation of the condition of the property which is the subject of the real estate transaction.

Existing law imposes certain duties on a licensee who has entered into a brokerage agreement to provide representation in a real estate transaction. (NRS 645.254) One of those duties is to present all offers made to and by the client as soon as is practicable. (NRS 645.254) Section 3 of this bill allows a client to waive that duty by signing a waiver on a form provided by the Real Estate Division of the Department of Business and Industry. Section 1.7 of this bill provides that no other duty of a licensee set forth in section 2.5 or 3 may be waived.

Existing law allows a person to negotiate a sale, exchange or lease of real estate with the exclusive client of another broker only if permission has been obtained

17 from that other broker. (NRS 645.635) Section 4 of this bill allows for further
18 communications after such negotiations but before closing.
