

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to homeland security; revising the composition of voting members of the Nevada Commission on Homeland Security; authorizing the Chairman of the Commission to appoint nonmembers to certain committees; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1 of this bill adds an employee of the largest incorporated city in each county whose population is 400,000 or more to the list of voting members who must be appointed by the Governor to the Nevada Commission on Homeland Security. Section 1 also changes the status of the officer designated by the United States Department of Homeland Security and the agent in charge of the office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in this State to serve on the Nevada Commission on Homeland Security from voting members to nonvoting members. (NRS 239C.120)

Section 2 of this bill clarifies that the Chairman of the Nevada Commission on Homeland Security is authorized to appoint any person he deems appropriate to serve on a committee to assist the Commission so long as one member of the Commission is appointed to the committee. In addition, section 2 provides that if a member of such a committee is a public employee, he must be given leave with pay to serve on the committee without reducing any of his accrued leave. (NRS 239C.170)

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN
