Under existing law, if a person dies leaving property in this State that does not exceed $20,000 in value, a public administrator may administer the estate of the person, without procuring letters of administration, upon filing an affidavit with the court. (NRS 253.0403) Section 2 of this bill provides that before after the estate is used to pay any certain debts or expenses, including, funeral expenses, the estate must be used to pay the reasonable fee and necessary expenses, as determined and approved by the court, of the public administrator.

3 support of the surviving spouse or minor child or minor children, or for the support 4 of the minor child or minor children, if there is no surviving spouse. Even if there is
