THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 281.511 is hereby amended to read as follows:

2 281.511 1. The Commission shall render an opinion interpreting the 3 statutory ethical standards and apply the standards to a given set of facts and 4 circumstances ~~report~~ within 45 days after receiving a request, on a form 5 prescribed by the Commission, from a public officer or employee who is seeking 6 guidance on questions which directly relate to the propriety of his own past, present
7 or future conduct as an officer or employee. He may also request the Commission
8 to hold a public hearing regarding the requested opinion. If a requested opinion 9 relates to the propriety of his own present or future conduct, the opinion of the 10 Commission is:

11 (a) Binding upon the requester as to his future conduct; and

12 (b) Final and subject to judicial review pursuant to NRS 233B.130, except that 13 a proceeding regarding this review must be held in closed court without admittance 14 of persons other than those necessary to the proceeding, unless this right to 15 confidential proceedings is waived by the requester.

16 2. The Commission may render an opinion interpreting the statutory ethical 17 standards and apply the standards to a given set of facts and circumstances:

18 (a) Upon request from a specialized or local ethics committee.

19 (b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, upon request from a 20 person, if the requester submits:

21 (1) The request on a form prescribed by the Commission; and

22 (2) All related evidence deemed necessary by the Executive Director and 23 the panel to make a determination of whether there is just and sufficient cause to 24 render an opinion in the matter.

25 (c) Upon the Commission's own motion regarding the propriety of conduct by 26 a public officer or employee. The Commission shall not initiate proceedings 27 pursuant to this paragraph based solely upon an anonymous complaint.

28 → The Commission shall not render an opinion interpreting the statutory ethical 29 standards or apply those standards to a given set of facts and circumstances if the 30 request is submitted by a person who is incarcerated in a correctional facility in this 31 State.

32 3. Upon receipt of a request for an opinion by the Commission or upon the 33 motion of the Commission pursuant to subsection 2, the Executive Director shall 34 investigate the facts and circumstances relating to the request to determine whether 35 there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the 36 matter. The public officer or employee that is the subject of the request may submit 37 to the Executive Director any information relevant to the request. The Executive 38 Director shall complete an investigation and present his recommendation relating to 39 just and sufficient cause to the panel within ~~45 days~~ ~~1 year~~ 120 days after the 40 receipt of or the motion of the Commission for the request, unless the public officer 41 or employee waives this time limit. If the Executive Director determines after an 42 investigation that just and sufficient cause exists for the Commission to render an 43 opinion in the matter, he shall state such a recommendation in writing, including, 44 without limitation, the specific evidence that supports his recommendation. If, after 45 an investigation, the Executive Director does not determine that just and sufficient
46 cause exists for the Commission to render an opinion in the matter, he shall state 47 such a recommendation in writing, including, without limitation, the specific 48 reasons for his recommendation. Within 15 days after the Executive Director has 49 provided his recommendation in the matter to the panel, the panel shall make a final

1 determination regarding whether just and sufficient cause exists for the 2 Commission to render an opinion in the matter, unless the public officer or 3 employee waives this time limit. The panel shall not determine that there is just and 4 sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion unless the panel has 5 provided the public officer or employee an opportunity to respond to the allegations 6 against him. The panel shall cause a record of its proceedings in each matter to be 7 kept, and such a record must remain confidential until the panel determines whether 8 there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion in the 9 matter.

10 4. If the panel determines that just and sufficient cause exists for the 11 Commission to render an opinion requested pursuant to this section, the 12 Commission shall hold a hearing and render an opinion in the matter within 30 days 13 after the determination of just and sufficient cause by the panel, unless the public 14 officer or employee waives this time limit.

15 5. Each request for an opinion that a public officer or employee submits to the 16 Commission pursuant to subsection 1, each opinion rendered by the Commission in 17 response to such a request and any motion, determination, evidence or record of a 18 hearing relating to such a request are confidential unless the public officer or 19 employee who requested the opinion:

20 (a) Acts in contravention of the opinion, in which case the Commission may 21 disclose the request for the opinion, the contents of the opinion and any motion, 22 evidence or record of a hearing related thereto;

23 (b) Discloses the request for the opinion, the contents of the opinion, or any 24 motion, evidence or record of a hearing related thereto; or

25 (c) Requests the Commission to disclose the request for the opinion, the 26 contents of the opinion, or any motion, evidence or record of a hearing related 27 thereto.

28 6. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, each document in the 29 possession of the Commission or its staff that is related to a request for an opinion
30 regarding a public officer or employee submitted to or initiated by the Commission 31 pursuant to subsection 2, including, without limitation, the Commission's copy of 32 the request and all materials and information gathered in an investigation of the 33 request, is confidential until the panel determines whether there is just and 34 sufficient cause to render an opinion in the matter. The public officer or employee 35 who is the subject of a request for an opinion submitted or initiated pursuant to 36 subsection 2 may in writing authorize the Commission to make its files, material 37 and information which are related to the request publicly available.

38 7. Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (a) and (b), the proceedings of 39 a panel are confidential until the panel determines whether there is just and 40 sufficient cause to render an opinion. A person who:

41 (a) Requests an opinion from the Commission pursuant to paragraph (b) of 42 subsection 2 may:

43 (1) At any time, reveal to a third party the alleged conduct of a public 44 officer or employee underlying the request that he filed with the Commission or the 45 substance of testimony, if any, that he gave before the Commission.

46 (2) After the panel determines whether there is just and sufficient cause to 47 render an opinion in the matter, reveal to a third party the fact that he requested an 48 opinion from the Commission.

49 (b) Gives testimony before the Commission may:

50 (1) At any time, reveal to a third party the substance of testimony that he 51 gave before the Commission.

8. The Commission shall disclose to a person who requests an opinion from the Commission pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 2 the general status of his request, including, without limitation, whether the request has been received and an abbreviated summary of the actions that the Commission is taking with regard to the request. The provisions of this subsection do not require the Commission, its officers or members to provide, and do not authorize or entitle a person requesting an opinion to obtain:

(a) Personally identifying information concerning a person other than the requester of the opinion;

(b) Information that is confidential;

(c) Information that is otherwise protected from disclosure by any other provision of federal or state law; or

(2) The ability of a panel to determine whether there is just and sufficient cause for the Commission to render an opinion; or
(3) The ability of the Commission to render an opinion.

(3) The ability of the Commission to render an opinion.

9. Whenever the Commission holds a hearing pursuant to this section, the Commission shall:

(a) Notify the person about whom the opinion was requested of the place and time of the Commission's hearing on the matter;

- (b) Allow the person to be represented by counsel; and
- (c) Allow the person to hear the evidence presented to the Commission and to respond and present evidence on his own behalf.

→ The Commission's hearing may be held no sooner than 10 days after the notice is given unless the person agrees to a shorter time.

10. If a person who is not a party to a hearing before the Commission, including, without limitation, a person who has requested an opinion pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection 2, wishes to ask a question of a witness at the hearing, the person must submit the question to the Executive Director in writing. The Executive Director may submit the question to the Commission if he deems the question relevant and appropriate. This subsection does not require the Commission to ask any question submitted by a person who is not a party to the proceeding.

H01 II. If a person who requests an opinion pursuant to subsection 1 or 2 does not:

(a) Submit all necessary information to the Commission; and

(b) Declare by oath or affirmation that he will testify truthfully,

→ the Commission may decline to render an opinion.

H2-13. For the purposes of NRS 41.032, the members of the Commission and its employees shall be deemed to be exercising or performing a discretionary function or duty when taking an action related to the rendering of an opinion pursuant to this section.
