Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1 of this bill provides additional ethical requirements for members of an executive board by requiring a member who stands to gain any personal profit or compensation from a matter before the executive board to disclose the matter to the executive board and to abstain from voting on the matter. (NRS 116.31185, 116.31187)

~~[Under existing law, a common interest community created before January 1, 1992, and a common interest community, with a declaration so providing, that consists of at least 1,000 units, may have the voting rights of the units' owners in the association for that common interest community be exercised by delegates or representatives. (NRS 116.1201, 116.31105) Sections 1.3 and 2.6.3 of this bill prohibit the use of delegates or representatives to exercise the voting rights of units' owners in the election or removal of a member of the executive board. However, a master association which governs a time share plan created pursuant to~~

~~chapter 119A of NRS is allowed to continue using delegates or representatives to exercise the voting rights of owners of time shares.]~~

Section 2.5 of this bill prohibits an association from imposing an assessment against the owner of any property in the common-interest community that is exempt from taxation pursuant to NRS 361.125. Section 13 of this bill provides that this prohibition applies to such owners who are not obligated to pay assessments as of January 1, 2007.

~~[Existing law requires certain signatures before money in the reserve account of an association may be withdrawn. (NRS 116.31153) Section 6.7 of this bill also requires certain signatures before money in the operating account of an association may be withdrawn.~~

~~Existing law provides for an association to have a lien on a unit for any construction penalty, assessment or fine imposed against the unit's owner which may later be foreclosed upon. (NRS 116.3116) Section 7.5 of this bill requires an association to obtain approval from the Commission on Common Interest Communities before attempting to foreclose its lien. The Commission must approve the foreclosure of the lien if the association has followed certain procedures. In addition, section 8 of this bill changes existing law to provide that the sale of a unit as a result of a foreclosure of a lien is subject to an equity or right of redemption. (NRS 116.31166)]~~

Section 3 of this bill amends existing law to increase the maximum term of office for a member of an executive board from 2 years to 3 years. (NRS 116.31034)

Section 6.5 of this bill revises existing provisions relating to financial statements by allowing the Commission on Common-Interest Communities to waive the qualification requirements of auditors for certain associations. (NRS 116.31144)

Section 9 of this bill provides that if an official publication contains the views or opinions of the association concerning an issue of official interest, the official publication must, upon request, provide equal space and equivalent exposure to opposing views and opinions. ~~[If an official publication contains information concerning a civil action or claim in which the association is a party, the official publication is not required to provide equal space to opposing views and opinions.]~~ In addition, section 9 provides that if an official publication contains any mention of a candidate or ballot question, the official publication must provide equal space in the same issue to the candidate or a representative of an organization which advocates the passage or defeat of the ballot question.

~~[Existing law provides for the Commission to adopt regulations concerning the issuance of certificates for community managers. (NRS 116A.410) Section 10 of this bill provides that the regulations must: (1) require an applicant to post a bond in a form and in an amount established by regulation; and (2) adopt a sliding scale for the amount of the bond that is based upon the amount of money that applicants are expected to control.]~~

Section 9.5 of this bill revises existing law by including financing as a prohibited activity for members of the executive board and officers. (NRS 116.31187)

Section 9.6 of this bill provides additional rights to units' owners by mandating notice before an association may interrupt utility service to a unit's owner. (NRS 116.345)

Existing law provides that certain common-interest communities are prohibited from regulating motor vehicles on thoroughfares accepted by the State or local governments for public use. (NRS 116.350) Section 9.8 of this bill permits an association to restrict parking on such thoroughfares if the parking prohibition was a condition for approval of the subdivision's final map or included in the terms of a zoning ordinance, permit or approval. (NRS 116.350) Section 9.8 also adds inoperable vehicles to the types of vehicles for which an association may restrict parking or storage in a common-interest community. (NRS 116.350) Finally, section 9.8 prohibits a common-interest community from restricting the parking of certain utility service vehicles, law enforcement vehicles and emergency services vehicles.

~~(e) Prohibit a master association which governs a time share plan created pursuant to chapter 119A of NRS from providing for a representative form of government for the time share plan.~~

20 116.31034 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5 of NRS
21 116.212, not later than the termination of any period of declarant's control, the 22 units' owners shall elect an executive board of at least three members, at least a
23 majority of whom must be units' owners. Unless the governing documents provide 24 otherwise, the remaining members of the executive board do not have to be units'
25 owners. The executive board shall elect the officers of the association. The 26 members of the executive board and the officers of the association shall take office
27 upon election.

28 2. The term of office of a member of the executive board may not exceed ~~four~~ 29 3 years, except for members who are appointed by the declarant. Unless the 30 governing documents provide otherwise, there is no limitation on the number of 31 terms that a person may serve as a member of the executive board.

32 3. The governing documents of the association must provide for terms of 33 office that are staggered in such a manner that, to the extent possible, an equal
34 number of members of the executive board are elected at each election. The 35 provisions of this subsection do not apply to:

36 (a) Members of the executive board who are appointed by the declarant; and

37 (b) Members of the executive board who serve a term of 1 year or less.

39 members of the executive board, the secretary or other officer specified in the 40 bylaws of the association shall cause notice to be given to each unit's owner of his 41 eligibility to serve as a member of the executive board. Each unit's owner who is 42 qualified to serve as a member of the executive board may have his name placed on 43 the ballot along with the names of the nominees selected by the members of the 44 executive board or a nominating committee established by the association.

47 (a) Make a good faith effort to disclose any financial, business, professional or
48 personal relationship or interest that would result or would appear to a reasonable
49 person to result in a potential conflict of interest for the candidate if the candidate
50 were to be elected to serve as a member of the executive board; and

51 (b) Disclose whether the candidate is a member in good standing. For the 52 purposes of this paragraph, a candidate shall not be deemed to be in "good standing” if the candidate has any unpaid and past due assessments or construction penalties that are required to be paid to the association.

↳ The candidate must make all disclosures required pursuant to this subsection in writing to the association with his candidacy information. The association shall distribute the disclosures to each member of the association with the ballot in the manner established in the bylaws of the association.

6. Unless a person is appointed by the declarant:

(b) A person may not be a member of the executive board of a master association or an officer of that master association if the person, his spouse or his parent or child, by blood, marriage or adoption, performs the duties of a community manager for:

If the election of any member of the executive board is conducted by secret written ballot: ~~in the following manner:]~~

(a) The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause a secret ballot and a return envelope to be sent, prepaid by United States mail, to the mailing address of each unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit’s owner.

(c) A quorum is not required for the election of any member of the executive board.

(d) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the association may be counted to determine the outcome of the election.

(e) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a meeting of the association. A quorum is not required to be present when the secret written ballots are opened and counted at the meeting.

(f) The incumbent members of the executive board and each person whose name is placed on the ballot as a candidate for a member of the executive board may not possess, be given access to or participate in the opening or counting of the secret written ballots that are returned to the association before those secret written ballots have been opened and counted at a meeting of the association.

9. Each member of the executive board shall, within 90 days after his appointment or election, certify in writing to the association, on a form prescribed by the Administrator, that he has read and understands the governing documents of the association and the provisions of this chapter to the best of his ability. The Administrator may require the association to submit a copy of the certification of each member of the executive board of that association at the time the association registers with the Ombudsman pursuant to NRS 116.31158.

Sec. 4. [NRS 116.31036 is hereby amended to read as follows:]

~~116.31036 1. Notwithstanding any provision of the declaration or bylaws to the contrary, any member of the executive board, other than a member appointed by the declarant, may be removed from the executive board, with or without cause, if at a removal election held pursuant to this section the number of votes cast in favor of removal constitutes:~~

~~(a) At least 35 percent of the total number of voting members of the association; and~~

~~(b) Each unit's owner must be provided with at least 15 days after the date the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit's owner to return the secret written ballot to the association;~~

~~(c) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the association may be counted to determine the outcome;~~

~~(d) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a meeting of the association. A quorum is not required to be present when the secret written ballots are opened and counted at the meeting;~~

~~(e) The incumbent members of the executive board, including, without limitation, the member who is subject to the removal, may not possess, be given access to or participate in the opening or counting of the secret written ballots that are returned to the association before those secret written ballots have been opened and counted at a meeting of the association;~~

~~3. If a member of an executive board is named as a respondent or sued for liability for actions undertaken in his role as a member of the board, the association shall indemnify him for his losses or claims, and undertake all costs of defense, unless it is proven that he acted with willful or wanton misfeasance or with gross negligence. After such proof, the association is no longer liable for the cost of defense, and may recover costs already expended from the member of the executive board who so acted. Members of the executive board are not personally liable to the victims of crimes occurring on the property. Punitive damages may not be recovered against the association, but may be recovered from persons whose activity gave rise to the damages.~~

If the units' owners have not held a meeting for 1 year, a meeting of the units' owners must be held on the following March 1.~~

~~2. Special meetings of the units' owners may be called by the president, by a majority of the executive board or by units' owners constituting at least 10 percent, or any lower percentage specified in the bylaws, of the total number of voting members of the association. If the petition calls for a special meeting, the executive board shall set the date for the special meeting so that the special meeting is held not less than 15 days or more than 60 days after the date on which the petition is received. If the petition calls for a removal election and:~~

~~(a) The voting rights of the [units'] owners of time shares will be exercised by delegates or representatives as set forth in NRS 116.31105, the executive board shall set the date for the removal election so that the removal election is held not less than 15 days or more than 60 days after the date on which the petition is received; or~~

~~116.311 1. If only one of several owners of a unit is present at a meeting of the association, that owner is entitled to cast all the votes allocated to that unit. If more than one of the owners are present, the votes allocated to that unit may be cast only in accordance with the agreement of a majority in interest of the owners, unless the declaration expressly provides otherwise. There is majority agreement if any one of the owners cast the votes allocated to that unit without protest made promptly to the person presiding over the meeting by any of the other owners of the unit.~~

~~2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, votes allocated to a unit may be cast pursuant to a proxy executed by a unit's owner. A unit's owner may give a proxy only to a member of his immediate family, a tenant of the unit's owner who resides in the common interest community, another unit's owner who resides in the common interest community, or a delegate or representative when authorized pursuant to NRS 116.31105. If a unit is owned by more than one person, each owner of the unit may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by the other owners of the unit through an executed proxy. A unit's owner may revoke a proxy given pursuant to this section only by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the association.~~

~~3. Before a vote may be cast pursuant to a proxy:~~

~~(a) The proxy must be dated;~~

~~(b) The proxy must not purport to be revocable without notice;~~

~~(c) The proxy must designate the meeting for which it is executed;~~

If the proxy designates one or more specific items on the agenda of the meeting for which the unit's owner has executed the proxy, the proxy must indicate, for each specific item designated in the proxy, whether the holder of the proxy must cast a vote in the affirmative or the negative on behalf of the unit's owner. If the proxy does not indicate whether the holder of the proxy must cast a vote in the affirmative or the negative for a particular item on the agenda of the meeting, the proxy must be treated, with regard to that particular item, as if the unit's owner were present but not voting on that particular item;~~

~~(e) The holder of the proxy must disclose at the beginning of the meeting for which the proxy is executed the number of proxies pursuant to which the holder will be casting votes;~~

~~4. A proxy terminates immediately after the conclusion of the meeting for which it is executed;~~

~~5. [A] Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a vote may not be cast pursuant to a proxy for the election or removal of a member of the executive board of an association. ~~6. The holder of a proxy may not cast a vote on behalf of the unit's owner who executed the proxy in a manner that is contrary to the proxy;~~

~~7. A proxy is void if the proxy or the holder of the proxy violates any provision of subsections 1 to 6, inclusive.~~

~~8. If the declaration requires that votes on specified matters affecting the common interest community must be cast by the lessees of leased units rather than the units' owners who have leased the units;~~

~~(a) The provisions of subsections 1 to 7, inclusive, apply to the lessees as if they were the units' owners;~~

~~(b) The units' owners who have leased their units to the lessees may not cast votes on those specified matters;~~

~~(c) The lessees are entitled to notice of meetings, access to records and other rights respecting those matters as if they were the units' owners; and~~

~~(d) The units' owners must be given notice, in the manner provided in NRS 116.2109, of all meetings at which the lessees are entitled to vote;~~

~~9. If any votes are allocated to a unit that is owned by the association, those votes may not be cast, by proxy or otherwise, for any purpose.] (Deleted by amendment.)~~
