40 the condominium hotel which are not designated as shared components.

42 shared components. The hotel unit owner may be the declarant or any successor 43 or assignee of the declarant or an affiliate of the declarant.

44 Sec. 26. "Identifying number" means a symbol, address or legally
45 sufficient description of real estate which identifies only one unit in a
46 condominium hotel.

47 Sec. 27. "Leasehold condominium hotel" means a condominium hotel in 4 components.

18 shared components and that may, within 30 years after its original installation, 19 require repair, replacement or restoration in excess of routine annual 20 maintenance.

21 Sec. 33. "Offering" means any advertisement, inducement, solicitation or 22 attempt to encourage any person to acquire any interest in a residential unit, 23 other than as security for an obligation. An advertisement in a newspaper or 24 other periodical of general circulation, or in any broadcast medium to the 25 general public, of a condominium hotel not located in this State, is not an 26 offering if the advertisement states that an offering may be made only in 27 compliance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the condominium hotel is 28 located. The verb "offer" has a similar meaning.

38 Sec. 38. "Real estate" means any leasehold or other estate or interest in, 39 over or under land, including structures, fixtures and other improvements and

41 described in the contract of sale or instrument of conveyance. "Real estate"
42 includes parcels with or without upper or lower boundaries, and spaces that may 43 be filled with air or water.

44 Sec. 39. "Residential unit" means a physical portion of the condominium
45 hotel designated for separate residential ownership or occupancy, the boundaries
46 of which are described in the declaration.

47 Sec. 40. "Residential unit owner" means a declarant, the hotel unit owner
48 or other person who owns a residential unit, or a lessee of a residential unit in a 49 leasehold condominium hotel whose lease expires simultaneously with any lease
50 the expiration of which will remove the residential unit from the condominium 51 hotel, but does not include a person having an interest in a residential unit solely 52 as security for an obligation. The declarant is the owner of any residential unit 53 created by the declaration until that unit is conveyed to another person.

1 Sec. 41. "Security interest" means an interest in real estate or personal 2 property, created by contract or conveyance, which secures payment or 3 performance of an obligation. The term includes a lien created by a mortgage,
4 deed of trust, trust deed, security deed, contract for deed, land sales contract,
5 lease intended as security, assignment of lease or rents intended as security,
6 pledge of an ownership interest in an association and any other consensual lien
7 or contract for retention of title intended as security for an obligation.

8 Sec. 42. "Shared components" means portions of the condominium hotel, 9 excluding the residential units and the common elements but including 10 easements in favor of the units, which may be located within the hotel unit and 11 which are set forth as shared components in the declaration. Shared components 12 are owned by the hotel unit owner, and the hotel unit owner has the power to 13 charge the residential units' owners for the maintenance, repair, replacement
14 and insurance of the shared components, as provided in the declaration. Shared 15 components may include, without limitation, hallways, lobbies, elevators, 16 recreational facilities and service areas.

17 Sec. 43. "Shared expenses" means the charges set forth in the declaration 18 that are made to the units by the hotel unit owner for the operation, maintenance, 19 repair, replacement, and insurance of the hotel unit, including, without 20 limitation, the shared components, together with any allocations to reserves, any 21 expenses allocated to the units pursuant to a cost sharing agreement, easement 22 agreement or other agreement that benefits the condominium hotel to which the 23 hotel unit owner is a party and any other charges or fees set forth in the 24 declaration which are allocated to residential owners.

25 Sec. 44. "Special declarant's rights" means rights reserved for the benefit 26 of a declarant, its successors or assignees or an affiliate of a declarant, including, 27 without limitation, the hotel unit owner, to:

28 1. Complete improvements indicated on plats and plans or in the 29 declaration;

30 2. Exercise any developmental right;

31 3. Maintain sales offices, management offices and signs advertising the 32 condominium hotel and models without the need to reserve such rights;

33 4. Use easements through the common elements, shared components or 34 hotel unit for the purpose of making improvements within the condominium
35 hotel;

36 5. Merge or consolidate a condominium hotel with another condominium 37 hotel; or

38 6. Appoint or remove any officer of the association or any member of an 39 executive board during any period of declarant's control.

40 Sec. 45. "Time share" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 116.091.

41 Sec. 46. "Unit" means a residential unit, a hotel unit and any other unit 42 which is created by the declaration.

43 Sec. 47. "Unit's owner" means a declarant or other person who owns a 44 unit, or a lessee of a unit in a leasehold condominium hotel. In a condominium 45 hotel, the declarant is the owner of any unit created by the declaration until that 46 unit is conveyed to another person.

47 Sec. 48. Except as expressly provided in this chapter, its provisions may not 48 be varied by agreement, and rights conferred by it may not be waived. A declarant 49 may not act under a power of attorney, or use any other device, to evade the 50 limitations or prohibitions of this chapter or the declaration.

51 Sec. 49. 1. A building code may not impose any requirement upon any 52 structure in a condominium hotel which it would not impose upon a physically
53 identical development under a different form of ownership.

2. In a condominium hotel, no zoning, subdivision or other law, ordinance or regulation governing the use of real estate may prohibit the condominium hotel as a form of ownership or impose any requirement upon a condominium hotel which it would not impose upon a physically identical development under a different form of ownership.

3. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 1 and 2, the provisions of this chapter do not invalidate or modify any provision of any building code or zoning, subdivision or other law, ordinance, rule or regulation governing the use of real estate.

4. The provisions of this section do not prohibit a local government from imposing different requirements and standards regarding design and construction on different types of structures within a condominium hotel.

Sec. 50. 1. If a unit is acquired by eminent domain or part of a unit is acquired by eminent domain leaving the unit's owner with a remnant that may not practically or lawfully be used for any purpose permitted by the declaration, the award must include compensation to the unit's owner for that unit and its allocated interests, whether or not any common elements are acquired. Upon acquisition, unless the decree otherwise provides, that unit's allocated interests are automatically reallocated to the remaining units in proportion to the respective allocated interests of those units before the taking, and the association shall promptly prepare, execute and record an amendment to the declaration reflecting the reallocations.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 1, if part of a hotel unit is acquired by eminent domain, the award must compensate the hotel unit owner for the reduction in value of the hotel unit and its interest in the common elements, whether or not any common elements are acquired. If part of a residential unit is acquired by eminent domain, the award must compensate the residential unit owner for the reduction in value of the residential unit and its interest in the common elements, whether or not any common elements are acquired. Upon acquisition, unless the decree otherwise provides:

(a) That unit's allocated interests are reduced in proportion to the reduction in the size of the unit, or on any other basis specified in the declaration; and

(b) The portion of the allocated interests divested from the partially acquired unit are automatically reallocated to that unit and to the remaining units in proportion to the respective allocated interests of those units before the taking, with the partially acquired unit participating in the reallocation on the basis of its reduced allocated interests.

3. If part of the common elements is acquired by eminent domain, the portion of the award attributable to the common elements taken must be paid to the association. Unless the declaration provides otherwise, any portion of the award attributable to the acquisition of a limited common element must be equally divided among the owners of the units to which that limited common element was allocated at the time of acquisition.

4. If part of the shared components or hotel unit is acquired by eminent domain, the portion of the award attributable to the shared components or hotel unit taken must be paid to the owner of the hotel unit or the shared components.

5. The judicial decree must be recorded in every county in which any portion of the condominium hotel is located.

Sec. 51. The principles of law and equity, including the law of corporations, the law of unincorporated associations, the law of real property, and the law relative to capacity to contract, principal and agent, eminent domain, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, receivership, substantial performance, or other validating or invalidating cause supplement the provisions of this chapter, except to the extent inconsistent with this chapter.

Sec. 52. If a matter governed by this chapter is also governed by chapter 78, 81, 82, 86, 87, 88 or 88A of NRS and there is a conflict between the provisions of this chapter and the provisions of those other chapters, the provisions of this chapter prevail.

Sec. 53. This chapter being a general act intended as a unified coverage of its subject matter, no part of it may be construed to be impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if that construction can reasonably be avoided.

Sec. 54. 1. The court, upon finding as a matter of law that a contract or clause of a contract was unconscionable at the time the contract was made, may refuse to enforce the contract, enforce the remainder of the contract without the unconscionable clause, or limit the application of any unconscionable clause to avoid an unconscionable result.

2. Whenever it is claimed, or appears to the court, that a contract or any clause of a contract is or may be unconscionable, the parties, to aid the court in making the determination, must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to:

(a) The commercial setting of the negotiations; and

(b) The effect and purpose of the contract or clause.

Sec. 55. Every contract or duty governed by this chapter imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance or enforcement.

Sec. 56. 1. The remedies provided by this chapter must be liberally administered to the end that the aggrieved party is put in as good a position as if the other party had fully performed. Consequential, special or punitive damages may not be awarded except as specifically provided in this chapter or by other rule of law.

2. Any right or obligation declared by this chapter is enforceable by judicial proceeding.

Sec. 57. 1. This chapter applies to all condominium hotels created within this State.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the provisions of chapters 116, 117 and 278A of NRS do not apply to condominium hotels.

3. This chapter does not apply to:

(a) A common-interest community as that term is defined in NRS 116.021.

(b) Time shares governed by the provisions of chapter 119A of NRS.

(c) A condominium hotel that was created before January 1, 2008, unless the declaration of that condominium hotel otherwise provides or is amended to provide for the applicability of this chapter.

Sec. 58. 1. Any provision contained in a declaration, bylaw or other governing document of a condominium hotel that violates the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to conform with those provisions by operation of law, and any such declaration, bylaw or other governing document is not required to be amended to conform to those provisions.

2. In the case of amendments to a declaration, bylaws or plats and plans of any condominium hotel created before January 1, 2008:

(a) If the result accomplished by the amendment was permitted before January 1, 2008, the amendment may be made in accordance with that law, in which case that law applies to that amendment, or it may be made under this chapter; and

(b) If the result accomplished by the amendment is permitted by this chapter and was not permitted by law before January 1, 2008, the amendment may be made under this chapter.

1 Sec. 59. If any change is made to the governing documents, the secretary
2 or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall, within 30 days
3 after the change is made, prepare and cause to be hand delivered or sent prepaid
4 by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit or to any other mailing 5 address designated in writing by the unit's owner, a copy of the change that was 6 made.

7 Sec. 60. A condominium hotel may be created pursuant to this chapter only 8 by recording a declaration executed in the same manner as a deed. The 9 declaration must be recorded in every county in which any portion of the 10 condominium hotel is located and must be indexed in the grantee's index in the 11 name of the condominium hotel and the association and in the grantor's index in 12 the name of each person executing the declaration.

13 Sec. 61. The boundaries of the hotel unit, including the shared
14 components, if any, must be expressly set forth in the declaration or other 15 governing documents of the condominium hotel.

16 Sec. 62. 1. The inclusion in a governing document of a provision that 17 violates any provision of this chapter does not render any other provisions of the 18 governing document invalid or otherwise unenforceable if the other provisions 19 can be given effect in accordance with their original intent and the provisions of 20 this chapter.

21 2. The rule against perpetuities and NRS 111.103 to 111.1039, inclusive, do
22 not apply to defeat any provision of the declaration, bylaws, rules or regulations 23 adopted pursuant to section 83 of this act.

24 3. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of the declaration and 25 the bylaws, the declaration prevails except to the extent the declaration is 26 inconsistent with this chapter.

27 4. Title to any portion of a condominium hotel is not rendered 28 unmarketable or otherwise affected by reason of an insubstantial failure of the 29 declaration to comply with this chapter. Whether a substantial failure impairs 30 marketability is not affected by this chapter.

31 Sec. 63. A description of the residential units and the hotel unit which sets 32 forth the name of the condominium hotel, the file number and book or other 33 information to show where the declaration is recorded, the county in which the 34 condominium hotel is located and the identifying number of the units, is a legally 35 sufficient description of those units and all rights, obligations and interests 36 appurtenant to those units which were created by the declaration or bylaws.

37 Sec. 64. 1. The declaration for a condominium hotel must contain:

38 (a) The names of the condominium hotel and the association.

39 (b) The name of every county in which any part of the condominium hotel is 40 situated.

41 (c) A sufficient description of the real estate included in the condominium
42 hotel.

43 (d) A statement of the maximum number of units that the declarant reserves 44 the right to create.

45 (e) A description of the boundaries of each residential unit created by the 46 declaration, including the unit's identifying number, its size or number of rooms, 47 and its location within a building if it is within a building containing more than 48 one unit.

49 (f) A description of the shared components, hotel unit and the common
50 elements.

51 (g) A description of any limited common elements.

52 (h) A description of any developmental rights and other special declarant's 53 rights reserved by the declarant, together with a legally sufficient description of the real estate to which each of those rights applies, and a time within which each of those rights must be exercised.

(i) If any developmental right may be exercised with respect to different parcels of real estate at different times, a statement to that effect together with:

(1) Either a statement fixing the boundaries of those portions and regulating the order in which those portions may be subjected to the exercise of each developmental right or a statement that no assurances are made in those regards; and

(2) A statement whether, if any developmental right is exercised in any portion of the real estate subject to that developmental right, that developmental right must be exercised in all or in any other portion of the remainder of that real estate.

(j) Any other conditions or limitations under which the rights described in paragraph (h) may be exercised or will lapse.

(k) A description of any easements benefiting or burdening the units, including easements providing the residential unit owners with rights of ingress or egress through the common elements, hotel unit or shared components for the purpose of accessing their respective units.

(l) An allocation to the units of the allocated interests as described in this chapter, and an allocation to the residential units of their respective liability for shared expenses and other charges of the hotel unit owner.

(m) A description of any other payments, fees and charges that may be charged by the hotel unit owner in order to offset the increased burden placed on the shared components as the result of use of residential units as transient rentals.

(n) Any restrictions:

(1) On use, occupancy and alienation of the units; and

(2) On the amount for which a unit may be sold or on the amount that may be received by a unit's owner on sale, condemnation or casualty to the unit or to the condominium hotel, or on termination of the condominium hotel.

(o) The file number and book or other information to show where easements and licenses are recorded appurtenant to or included in the condominium hotel or to which any portion of the condominium hotel is or may become subject by virtue of a reservation in the declaration.

2. The declaration may contain any other matters the declarant considers appropriate.

Sec. 65. 1. Any lease the expiration or termination of which may terminate the condominium hotel or reduce its size must be recorded. Every lessor of such a lease in a condominium hotel shall sign the declaration. The declaration must state:

(a) The recording date where the lease is recorded.

(b) The date on which the lease is scheduled to expire.

(c) A legally sufficient description of the real estate subject to the lease.

(d) Any right of the units' owners to redeem the reversion and the manner whereby those rights may be exercised, or a statement that they do not have those rights.

(e) Any right of the units' owners to remove any improvements within a reasonable time after the expiration or termination of the lease, or a statement that they do not have those rights.

(f) Any rights of the units' owners to renew the lease and the conditions of any renewal, or a statement that such rights do not exist.

2. After the declaration for a leasehold condominium hotel is recorded, neither the lessor nor the lessor's successor in interest may terminate the

1 leasehold interest of a unit's owner who makes timely payment of his share of the 2 rent and otherwise complies with all covenants which, if violated, would entitle
3 the lessor to terminate the lease. The leasehold interest of a unit's owner in a 4 condominium hotel is not affected by failure of any other person to pay rent or 5 fulfill any other covenant.

6 3. Acquisition of the leasehold interest of any unit's owner by the owner of 7 the reversion or remainder does not merge the leasehold and freehold interests 8 unless the leasehold interests of all units' owners subject to that reversion or 9 remainder are acquired.

10 4. If the expiration or termination of a lease decreases the number of units 11 in a condominium hotel, the allocated interests must be reallocated in accordance 12 with subsection 1 of section 50 of this act as if those units had been taken by 13 eminent domain. Reallocations must be confirmed by an amendment to the 14 declaration prepared, executed and recorded by the association.

15 Sec. 66. 1. The declaration must allocate to each unit, including any unit 16 owned by the declarant or hotel unit owner, as applicable, a fraction or 17 percentage of undivided interests in the common elements and in the common 18 expenses of the association and a portion of the votes in the association.

19 2. The declaration may allocate to each residential unit, including any 20 residential unit owned by the declarant or the hotel unit owner, as applicable, a 21 fraction or percentage of the liability for shared expenses and other charges of 22 the hotel unit owner. Unless the declaration provides otherwise, residential units 23 are not allocated an undivided interest in the ownership of the hotel unit or the 24 shared components.

25 3. The declaration must state the formulas used to establish allocations of 26 interests and to establish each residential unit's allocated liability for shared 27 expenses. Unless the declaration provides otherwise, the formula used to allocate 28 interests and to allocate liability for shared expenses must be based on the square 29 footage of the residential units. Those allocations of interest and allocations of 30 liability for shared expenses must not discriminate in favor of any unit within the 31 condominium hotel.

32 4. The declaration may provide:

33 (a) That different allocations of votes are made to the units on particular 34 matters specified in the declaration;

35 (b) For cumulative voting only for the purpose of electing members of the 36 executive board;

37 (c) For class voting on specified issues affecting the class if necessary to 38 protect valid interests of the class; and

39 (d) For the hotel owner's ability to fine residential unit owners or to prohibit 40 use of the shared components for violation of reasonable rules and regulations as 41 may be established by the hotel unit owner. If the hotel unit owner prohibits use 42 of the shared components, such prohibition may not restrict use of the shared 43 components as is necessary for vehicular or pedestrian ingress or egress to or 44 from the residential unit.

45 5. Except for minor variations because of rounding, the sum of the 46 liabilities for common expenses allocated at any time to all the units must each 47 equal one if stated as a fraction or 100 percent if stated as a percentage. In the 48 event of discrepancy between an allocated interest and the result derived from 49 application of the pertinent formula, the allocated interest prevails.

50 6. Except for minor variations because of rounding, the sum of the 51 liabilities for shared expenses allocated at any time to all the residential units
52 must each equal one if stated as a fraction or 100 percent if stated as a 53 percentage. In the event of any discrepancy between a specific residential unit's allocated share of liability for shared expenses and the result derived from the application of the pertinent formula, the specific residential unit's allocation of liability for shared expenses prevails.

7. In a condominium hotel, the common elements are not subject to partition, and any purported conveyance, encumbrance, judicial sale or other voluntary or involuntary transfer of an undivided interest in the common elements made without the unit to which that interest is allocated is void.

8. If units may be added to or withdrawn from the condominium hotel, the declaration must state the formulas to be used to reallocate the allocated interests and the allocations of liability for shared expenses among all units included in the condominium hotel after the addition or withdrawal.

Sec. 67. 1. The declaration may allocate limited common elements to any unit or units within the condominium hotel. The declaration must specify to which unit or units each limited common element is allocated. An allocation may not be altered without the consent of the units' owners to which the limited common elements are allocated.

2. Except as the declaration otherwise provides, a limited common element may be reallocated by an amendment to the declaration executed by the units' owners between or among whose units the reallocation is made. The persons executing the amendment shall provide a copy thereof to the association, which shall record it. The amendment must be recorded in the names of the parties and the condominium hotel.

3. A common element not previously allocated as a limited common element may be so allocated only by amendments to the declaration.

Sec. 68. 1. Plats and plans are a part of the declaration and are required for all condominium hotels. Each plat and plan must be clear and legible and contain a certification that the plat or plan contains all information required by this section.

2. Each plat must comply with the provisions of chapter 278 of NRS and show:

(a) The name and a survey of the area which is the subject of the plat;

(b) A sufficient description of the real estate;

(c) The extent of any encroachments by or upon any portion of the property which is the subject of the plat;

(d) The location and dimensions of all easements having a specific location and dimension which serve or burden any portion of the condominium hotel;

(e) The location and dimensions with reference to an established datum of any vertical residential unit boundaries and that unit's identifying number;

(f) The location with reference to an established datum of any horizontal unit boundaries not shown or projected on plans recorded pursuant to subsection 4 and that unit's identifying number;

(g) The location and dimensions of the units, shared components and common elements; and

(h) The location and dimensions of limited common elements, if any, including porches, balconies and patios.

3. Each plat must be certified by an independent professional land surveyor. The plans of the units must be certified by an independent professional engineer or architect.

4. Plats and plans need not show the location and dimensions of the units' boundaries and their limited common elements if:

(a) The plat shows the location and dimensions of all buildings containing or comprising the units; and

(b) The declaration includes other information that shows or contains a narrative description of the general layout of the units in those buildings and the limited common elements, if any, allocated to those units.

5. To the extent not shown or projected on the plats, plans of the units must show or project any units in which the declarant has reserved the right to create additional units or common elements, or portions of the shared components or hotel unit, identified appropriately.

6. Unless the declaration provides otherwise, the horizontal boundaries of part of a unit located outside a building have the same elevation as the horizontal boundaries of the inside part and need not be depicted on the plats and plans of the units.

7. Upon exercising any developmental right, the declarant shall prepare, execute and record new or amended plats necessary to conform to the requirements of this section.

Sec. 69. 1. To exercise any developmental right reserved in the declaration, the declarant shall prepare, execute and record an amendment to the declaration. The declarant is the owner of any units thereby created. The amendment to the declaration must assign an identifying number to each new unit created and, except in the case of subdivision or conversion of units described in this section, reallocate the allocated interests and the allocated liability for shared expenses by the declarant or hotel unit owner among all units. The amendment must describe any common elements, limited common elements, shared components or portions of the hotel unit thereby created and, in the case of limited common elements, designate the unit to which each is allocated to the extent required by section 67 of this act.

2. Developmental rights may be reserved within any real estate added to the condominium hotel if the amendment adding that real estate includes all matters required by section 64 or 65 of this act, as the case may be. This provision does not extend the time limit on the exercise of developmental rights imposed by the declaration.

3. Whenever a declarant exercises a developmental right to subdivide or convert a unit or shared components previously created into additional units, common elements, shared components, or additional portions of the hotel unit:

(a) If the declarant converts the unit or shared components entirely to common elements, the amendment to the declaration must convey it to the association or reallocate all the allocated interests and allocated liability for shared expenses of that unit among the other units as if that unit had been taken by eminent domain; and

(b) If the declarant subdivides the unit into two or more units, whether or not any part of the unit is converted into common elements, the amendment to the declaration must reallocate all the allocated interests and shared expenses of the unit among the units created by the subdivision in any reasonable manner prescribed by the declarant.

4. If the declarant converts a shared component into a residential unit, the amendment to the declaration must reallocate all the allocated interests and allocated liability for shared expenses to the residential units.

5. If the declaration provides that all or a portion of the real estate is subject to a right of withdrawal:

(a) If all the real estate is subject to withdrawal, and the declaration does not describe separate portions of real estate subject to that right, none of the real estate may be withdrawn after a unit has been conveyed to a purchaser; and

(b) If any portion is subject to withdrawal, it may not be withdrawn after a unit in that portion has been conveyed to a purchaser.

1 Sec. 70. 1. The declaration must describe the boundaries of the hotel
2 unit, which are owned by the hotel unit owner. The hotel unit may be used by the 3 hotel unit owner for commercial purposes, including the operation of a hotel and 4 other commercial uses as set forth in the declaration. Except as otherwise
5 provided in the declaration, the hotel unit owner may subdivide the hotel unit 6 without prior notice or demand to the residential unit owners.

7 2. The declaration must describe the shared components which are deemed 8 to be a part of the hotel unit. The hotel unit owner shall, from time to time, be 9 responsible for the repair, replacement, improvement, maintenance, 10 management, operation and insurance of the shared components, all of which 11 must be conducted in a commercially reasonable manner. The hotel unit owner, 12 as applicable, has the power to charge the residential unit owners for the shared 13 expenses.

14 3. The residential unit owners have an easement for ingress and egress
15 across and upon the hotel unit and the shared components as is reasonably 16 necessary for the residential unit owners and guests to access the residential 17 units. The residential unit owners have an easement for the use and enjoyment of 18 the shared components, subject to reasonable rules and regulations as may be 19 established by the hotel unit owner.

20 Sec. 71. Except as otherwise provided in this section and subject to the 21 provisions of the declaration and other provisions of law, a residential unit
22 owner:

23 1. May make any improvements or alterations to his residential unit that do 24 not impair the structural integrity or mechanical systems or lessen the support of 25 any portion of the condominium hotel; and

26 2. May not change the appearance of the common elements, the shared 27 components, the hotel unit or the exterior appearance of a unit, building or any 28 other portion of the condominium hotel.

29 Sec. 72. The existing physical boundaries of a residential unit or a hotel 30 unit are its legal boundaries, rather than the boundaries derived from the 31 description contained in the original declaration, regardless of vertical or lateral 32 movement of the building or minor variance between those boundaries and the 33 boundaries derived from the description contained in the original declaration.
34 This section does not relieve a unit's owner of liability in case of his willful 35 misconduct or relieve a declarant or any other person of liability for failure to 36 adhere to any plats and plans.

37 Sec. 73. Subject to the provisions of the declaration and other provisions of 38 law, the boundaries between adjoining units may be relocated by an amendment 39 to the declaration upon application to the hotel unit owner by the owners of those 40 units. If the owners of the adjoining units have specified a reallocation between 41 their units of their allocated interests and allocation of shared expenses, the 42 application must state the proposed reallocations. Unless the hotel unit owner
43 determines within 90 days that the reallocations are unreasonable, the hotel unit
44 owner shall prepare an amendment that identifies the units involved and states
45 the reallocations. The amendment must be executed by those units' owners, 46 contain words of conveyance between them and, on recordation, be indexed in 47 the name of the grantor and the grantee, and in the grantee's index in the name 48 of the association and the hotel unit owner.

49 Sec. 74. 1. If the declaration expressly so permits, a residential unit may 50 be subdivided into two or more residential units upon receipt of consent from the 51 hotel unit owner. Subject to the provisions of the declaration and other provisions 52 of law, upon receipt of consent from the hotel unit owner to subdivide a

1 residential unit, the association shall prepare, execute and record an amendment
2 to the declaration.

3 2. The amendment to the declaration must be executed by the owner of the 4 unit to be subdivided, assign an identifying number to each residential unit
5 created, and reallocate the allocated interests and allocated liability for shared 6 expenses formerly allocated to the subdivided residential unit to the new 7 residential units in any reasonable manner prescribed by the owner of the 8 subdivided unit.

9 Sec. 75. 1. Provisions in an agreement to purchase a residential unit 10 between a purchaser and a declarant which permit the declarant to amend or 11 change the governing documents at any time before the close of escrow of a 12 residential unit are enforceable.

13 2. Following the period of a declarant's control of the association, with 14 regard to an amendment that does not in any way affect the hotel unit or the 15 shared components, the declaration may be amended by a majority of the total 16 voting power in the association. The declaration may specify a larger number of 17 votes necessary to amend the declaration.

18 3. Following the period of declarant's control of the association, with 19 regard to an amendment that in any way affects the hotel unit or the shared 20 components, such an amendment is not effective without the prior written 21 consent of the declarant or the hotel unit owner and the vote of a majority of the 22 total voting power in the association. The declaration may specify a larger 23 number of votes necessary to amend the declaration.

24 4. No action to challenge the validity of an amendment adopted pursuant to 25 this section may be brought more than 1 year after the amendment is recorded.

26 5. Every amendment to the declaration must be recorded in every county in 27 which any portion of the condominium hotel is located and is effective only upon 28 recording. An amendment must be indexed in the grantee's index in the name 29 of the condominium hotel and the association and in the grantor's index in the 30 name of the parties executing the amendment.

31 Sec. 76. 1. Except in the case of a taking of the condominium hotel by 32 eminent domain, termination of the condominium hotel or the declaration 33 requires approval by:

34 (a) The owners representing at least 80 percent of the votes in the association 35 allocated to the residential unit owners; and 36 (b) The hotel unit owner.

37 2. An agreement to terminate the condominium hotel or the declaration 38 must be evidenced by the execution of an agreement to terminate in the same 39 manner as a deed by the hotel unit owner and the requisite number of units'
40 owners. The agreement to terminate must specify a date after which the 41 agreement will be void unless it is recorded before that date.

42 3. An agreement to terminate may provide that all of the common elements, 43 shared components or units must be sold following termination. If, pursuant to 44 the agreement, any real estate in the condominium hotel is to be sold following 45 termination, the agreement must set forth the minimum terms of the sale.

46 4. The hotel unit owner, on behalf of the units' owners, may contract for 47 the sale of real estate owned by the units' owners in a condominium hotel, but the 48 contract is not binding on the units' owners and the declarant or hotel unit
49 owner, as applicable, until approved pursuant to subsections 1 and 2. If any real 50 estate owned by the units' owners is to be sold following termination, title to that 51 real estate, upon termination, vests in the hotel unit owner as trustee for the 52 holders of all interests in the units. Thereafter, the hotel unit owner has all 53 powers necessary and appropriate to effect the sale. Until the sale has been

1 concluded and the proceeds thereof distributed, the hotel unit owner continues in 2 existence with all powers it had before termination. Proceeds of the sale must be 3 distributed to units' owners and lienholders as their interests may appear, in 4 accordance with sections 77 and 78 of this act. Unless otherwise specified in the 5 agreement to terminate, as long as the unit's owner holds title to the real estate, 6 each unit's owner and his successors in interest have an exclusive right to 7 occupancy of the portion of the real estate that formerly constituted the unit.
8 During the period of that occupancy, each unit's owner and his successors in 9 interest remain liable for all assessments, shared expenses and other obligations
10 imposed on units' owners by this chapter or the declaration.

11 5. If the real estate is not to be sold following termination, title to the 12 common elements and residential units vests in the units' owners upon 13 termination as tenants in common in proportion to their respective interests in the 14 association as provided in section 78 of this act, and liens on the units shift
15 accordingly. While the tenancy in common exists, each unit's owner and his 16 successors in interest have an exclusive right to occupancy of the portion of the 17 real estate that formerly constituted such unit owners' unit.

18 6. Following termination of the condominium hotel, the proceeds of any 19 sale of real estate, together with the assets of the association, are held by the hotel 20 unit owner as trustee for units' owners and holders of liens on the units as their 21 interests may appear.

22 Sec. 77. 1. Following termination of a condominium hotel, creditors of 23 the association holding liens on the units, which were recorded before
24 termination, may enforce those liens in the same manner as any lienholder. All 25 other creditors of the association are to be treated as if they had perfected liens 26 on the units immediately before termination.

27 2. Creditors of the association are not entitled to payment from any unit's 28 owner in excess of the amount of the creditor's lien against that owner's interest.

29 Sec. 78. The respective interests of units' owners referred to in sections 76
30 and 77 of this act are as follows:

31 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the respective interests of 32 units' owners are the fair market values of their units, allocated interests, and 33 any limited common elements immediately before the termination, as determined 34 by one or more independent appraisers selected by the hotel unit owner. The 35 decision of the independent appraisers must be distributed to the units' owners 36 and becomes final unless disapproved within 30 days after distribution by units' 37 owners to whom 25 percent of the total number of votes in the association are 38 allocated. The proportion of interest of any unit's owner to that of all units' 39 owners is determined by dividing the fair market value of that unit and its 40 allocated interests by the total fair market values of all the units and their 41 allocated interests.

42 2. If any unit or any limited common element is destroyed to the extent that 43 an appraisal of the fair market value thereto before destruction cannot be made,
44 the interests of all units' owners are their respective interests in the common 45 elements immediately before the termination.

46 Sec. 79. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, foreclosure or 47 enforcement of a lien or encumbrance against the entire condominium hotel does 48 not terminate, of itself, the condominium hotel, and foreclosure or enforcement 49 of a lien or encumbrance against a portion of the condominium hotel, other than 50 withdrawable real estate, does not withdraw that portion from the condominium 51 hotel. Foreclosure or enforcement of a lien or encumbrance against 52 withdrawable real estate does not withdraw, of itself, that real estate from the 53 condominium hotel, but the person taking title thereto may require from the hotel

1 unit owner, upon request, an amendment excluding the real estate from the
2 condominium hotel.

3 2. If a lien or encumbrance against a portion of the real estate comprising 4 the condominium hotel has priority over the declaration and the lien or 5 encumbrance has not been partially released, the parties foreclosing the lien or 6 encumbrance, upon foreclosure, may record an instrument excluding the real 7 estate subject to that lien or encumbrance from the condominium hotel.

8 Sec. 80. The declaration may require that all or a specified number or 9 percentage of the lenders who hold security interests encumbering the units 10 approve specified actions of the units' owners or the association as a condition to 11 the effectiveness of those actions, but no requirement for approval may operate 12 to:

13 1. Deny or delegate control over the general administrative affairs of the 14 association by the units' owners or the executive board;

15 2. Prevent the association or the executive board from commencing, 16 intervening in or settling any litigation or proceeding; or

17 3. Prevent any trustee or the association from receiving and distributing 18 any proceeds of insurance except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

19 Sec. 81. 1. Any two or more condominium hotels, by agreement of the 20 declarants or hotel unit owners and ratified by the associations as provided in 21 subsection 2, may be merged or consolidated into a single condominium hotel. In 22 the event of a merger or consolidation, unless the agreement otherwise provides, 23 the resultant condominium hotel is the legal successor, for all purposes, of all of 24 the preexisting condominium hotels, and the operations and activities of all 25 associations of the preexisting condominium hotels are merged or consolidated 26 into a single association that holds all powers, rights, obligations, assets and 27 liabilities of all preexisting associations.

28 2. An agreement of two or more condominium hotels to merge or 29 consolidate pursuant to subsection 1 must be evidenced by an agreement
30 prepared, executed, recorded and certified by the declarant or hotel unit owner,
31 as applicable, of each of the preexisting condominium hotels. The agreement 32 must be ratified in each condominium hotel by the percentage of votes required to 33 terminate that condominium hotel. The agreement must be recorded in every 34 county in which a portion of the condominium hotel is located and is not effective 35 until recorded.

36 3. Every agreement for merger or consolidation must provide for the 37 reallocation of the allocated interests in the new association among the units of 38 the resultant condominium hotel either by stating the reallocations or the 39 formulas upon which they are based or by stating the percentage of overall 40 allocated interests of the new condominium hotel which are allocated to all of the 41 units comprising each of the preexisting condominium hotels, and providing that 42 the portion of the percentages allocated to each unit formerly constituting a part 43 of the preexisting condominium hotel must be equal to the percentages of 44 allocated interests and shared expenses allocated to that unit by the declaration of 45 the preexisting condominium hotel.

46 4. Every agreement for merger or consolidation must provide for the 47 reallocation of the liability for shared expenses among the residential units of the 48 resultant condominium hotel either by stating the reallocations or the formulas 49 upon which they are based.

50 Sec. 82. 1. A unit-owners' association must be organized not later than 51 the date the first residential unit in the condominium hotel is conveyed.

52 2. The membership of the association at all times consists exclusively of all 53 units' owners, including the hotel unit and any other units owned by the declarant or, following termination of the condominium hotel, of all owners of former units entitled to distributions of proceeds under the declaration, or their heirs, successors or assigns.

3. The association must:

(a) Be organized as a profit or nonprofit corporation, association, limited-liability company, trust or partnership;

(b) Include in its articles of incorporation, articles of association, articles of organization, certificate of registration, certificate of limited partnership, certificate of trust or other documents of organization, or any amendment thereof, that the purpose of the corporation, association, limited-liability company, trust or partnership is to operate as an association pursuant to this chapter;

(c) Contain in its name the words "community association," "homeowners' association" or "unit-owners' association"; and

(d) Comply with the provisions of chapters 78, 81, 82, 86, 87, 88 and 88A of NRS when filing with the Secretary of State its articles of incorporation, articles of association, articles of organization, certificate of registration, certificate of limited partnership, certificate of trust or other documents of organization, or any amendment thereof.

4. Unless otherwise provided in the declaration, the association shall not have any ownership or control over the hotel unit or the shared components.

Sec. 83. Subject to the provisions of the declaration, the association may do any or all of the following:

1. Adopt and amend bylaws, rules and regulations pertaining to the common elements. Unless otherwise provided in the declaration, bylaws, rules or regulations adopted by the association must not attempt to exercise any control over the hotel unit or the shared components.

2. Adopt and amend budgets for revenues, expenditures and reserves relating to the common elements and collect assessments for common expenses from the units' owners.

3. Hire and discharge managing agents and other employees, agents and independent contractors of the association.

4. Institute, defend or intervene in litigation or administrative proceedings in its own name on behalf of itself or two or more units' owners on matters affecting the condominium hotel.

5. Make contracts and incur liabilities with regard to the common elements.

6. Regulate the use, maintenance, repair, replacement and modification of common elements.

7. Cause additional improvements to be made as a part of the common elements.

8. Acquire, hold, encumber and convey in its own name any right, title or interest to real estate or personal property, but common elements may be conveyed or subjected to a security interest only pursuant to section 108 of this act.

9. Grant easements, leases, licenses and concessions through or over the common elements.

10. Impose and receive any payments, fees or charges for the use, rental or operation of the common elements.

11. Impose charges for late payment of assessments on common elements.

12. Impose reasonable fines for violations of the governing documents of the association only if the association complies with the requirements set forth in section 85 of this act.

1 13. Provide for the indemnification of its officers and executive board and 2 maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance.

3 14. Assign its right to future income, including the right to receive 4 assessments for common expenses, but only to the extent the declaration 5 expressly so provides.

6 15. Exercise any other powers conferred by the declaration or bylaws.

7 16. Exercise any other powers necessary and proper for the governance and 8 operation of the association.

9 Sec. 84. 1. Except as otherwise provided in the declaration, the bylaws,
10 this section or other provisions of this chapter, the executive board may act in all 11 instances on behalf of the association. In the performance of their duties, the 12 officers and members of the executive board are fiduciaries. The members of the 13 executive board are required to exercise the ordinary and reasonable care of 14 directors of a corporation, subject to the business-judgment rule.

15 2. The executive board may not act on behalf of the association to amend 16 the declaration, to terminate the condominium hotel, or to elect members of the 17 executive board or determine their qualifications, powers and duties or terms of 18 office, but the executive board may fill vacancies in its membership for the 19 unexpired portion of any term.

20 Sec. 85. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and in the 21 declaration, if a residential unit owner or the tenant or guest of a residential unit 22 owner violates any provision of the governing documents of an association, the 23 executive board may, if the governing documents so provide:

24 (a) Prohibit, for a reasonable time, the residential unit owner or the tenant or 25 guest of the residential unit owner from:

26 (1) Voting on matters related to the association.

27 (2) Using the common elements. The provisions of this subparagraph do 28 not prohibit the residential unit owner or the tenant or guest of the residential 29 unit owner from using any portion of the common elements, if any, as is 30 necessary for vehicular or pedestrian ingress or egress to or from the residential 31 unit.

32 (b) Impose a fine against the residential unit owner or the tenant or guest of 33 the residential unit owner for each violation. If the violation poses an imminent 34 threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of 35 the residential units' owners or residents of the condominium hotel, the amount 36 of the fine must be commensurate with the severity of the violation and must be 37 determined by the executive board in accordance with the governing documents.
38 If the violation does not pose an imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse 39 effect on the health, safety or welfare of the residential units' owners or residents 40 or guests of the condominium hotel, the amount of the fine must be 41 commensurate with the severity of the violation and must be determined by the 42 executive board in accordance with the governing documents, but the amount of 43 the fine must not exceed $100 for each violation or a total amount of $1,000, 44 whichever is less. The limitations on the amount of the fine do not apply to any 45 interest, charges or costs that may be collected by the association pursuant to this 46 section if the fine becomes past due.

47 2. The executive board may not impose a fine pursuant to subsection 1 48 unless:

49 (a) Not less than 30 days before the violation, the person against whom the 50 fine will be imposed had been provided with written notice of the applicable 51 provisions of the governing documents that form the basis of the violation; and

52 (b) Within a reasonable time after the discovery of the violation, the person 53 against whom the fine will be imposed has been provided with:

1 (1) Written notice specifying the details of the violation, the amount of 2 the fine, and the date, time and location for a hearing on the violation; and

3 (2) A reasonable opportunity to contest the violation at the hearing.

4 3. The executive board must schedule the date, time and location for the 5 hearing on the violation so that the person against whom the fine will be imposed 6 is provided with a reasonable opportunity to prepare for the hearing and to be 7 present at the hearing.

8 4. The executive board must hold a hearing before it may impose the fine, 9 unless the person against whom the fine will be imposed:

10 (a) Pays the fine;

11 (b) Executes a written waiver of the right to the hearing; or 12 (c) Fails to appear at the hearing after being provided with proper notice of 13 the hearing.

14 5. If a fine is imposed pursuant to subsection 1 and the violation is not 15 cured within 14 days, or within any longer period that may be established by the 16 executive board, the violation shall be deemed a continuing violation. Thereafter, 17 the executive board may impose an additional fine for the violation for each 7-
18 day period or portion thereof that the violation is not cured. Any additional fine 19 may be imposed without notice and an opportunity to be heard.

20 6. If the governing documents so provide, the executive board may appoint
21 a committee, with not less than three members, to conduct hearings on violations
22 and to impose fines pursuant to this section. While acting on behalf of the 23 executive board for those limited purposes, the committee and its members are 24 entitled to all privileges and immunities and are subject to all duties and 25 requirements of the executive board and its members.

26 7. The provisions of this section establish the minimum procedural 27 requirements that the executive board must follow before it may impose a fine.
28 The provisions of this section do not preempt any provisions of the governing 29 documents that provide greater procedural protections.

30 8. Any past due fine:

31 (a) Bears interest at the rate established by the association, not to exceed the 32 legal rate per annum.

33 (b) May include any costs of collecting the past due fine at a rate established 34 by the association. If the past due fine is for a violation that does not threaten the 35 health, safety or welfare of the residents of the condominium hotel, the rate 36 established by the association for the costs of collecting the past due fine:

37 (1) May not exceed $20, if the outstanding balance is less than $200.

38 (2) May not exceed $50, if the outstanding balance is $200 or more, but
39 is less than $500.

40 (3) May not exceed $100, if the outstanding balance is $500 or more, but 41 is less than $1,000.

42 (4) May not exceed $250, if the outstanding balance is $1,000 or more,
43 but is less than $5,000.

44 (5) May not exceed $500, if the outstanding balance is $5,000 or more.

45 (c) May include any costs incurred by the association during a civil action to 46 enforce the payment of the past due fine.

47 9. Unless the declaration provides otherwise, nothing in this section shall be 48 construed as giving the association the power to sanction a unit owner for 49 matters related to the hotel unit or the shared components.

50 10. As used in this section:

51 (a) "Costs of collecting" includes, without limitation, any collection fee,
52 filing fee, recording fee, referral fee, fee for postage or delivery, and any other fee 53 or cost that an association may reasonably charge to the unit's owner for the

1 collection of a past due fine. The term does not include any costs incurred by an 2 association during a civil action to enforce the payment of a past due fine.

3 (b) "Outstanding balance" means the amount of a past due fine that remains
4 unpaid before any interest, charges for late payment or costs of collecting the past 5 due fine are added.

6 Sec. 86. If an association has imposed a fine against a residential unit 7 owner or a tenant or guest of a residential unit owner pursuant to section 85 of 8 this act for violations of the governing documents of the association, the 9 association:

10 1. Shall, in the books and records of the association, account for the fine 11 separately from any assessment, fee or other charge; and

12 2. Shall not apply, in whole or in part, any payment made by the residential 13 unit owner for any assessment, fee or other charge toward the payment of the 14 outstanding balance of the fine or any costs of collecting the fine, unless the 15 residential unit owner provides written authorization which directs the 16 association to apply the payment made by the unit's owner in such a manner.

17 Sec. 87. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the declaration 18 may provide for a period of declarant's control of the association, during which a 19 declarant, or persons designated by him, may appoint and remove the officers of 20 the association and members of the executive board. Regardless of the period 21 provided in the declaration, a period of declarant's control terminates not later 22 than:

23 (a) Sixty days after conveyance of 75 percent of the residential units that may 24 be created to residential unit owners other than a declarant;

25 (b) Five years after all declarants have ceased to offer residential units for 26 sale in the ordinary course of business; or

27 (c) Five years after any right to add new residential units was last exercised, 28 whichever occurs earlier.

29 2. A declarant may voluntarily surrender the right to appoint and remove 30 officers and members of the executive board before termination of that period, 31 but in that event the declarant may require, for the duration of the period of 32 declarant's control, that specified actions of the association or executive board, 33 as described in a recorded instrument executed by the declarant, be approved by 34 the declarant before they become effective.

35 3. Not later than 60 days after conveyance of 25 percent of the residential 36 units that may be created to units' owners other than a declarant, at least one 37 member and not less than 25 percent of the members of the executive board must 38 be elected by residential units' owners other than the declarant. Not later than 60 39 days after conveyance of 50 percent of the residential units that may be created to 40 residential units' owners other than a declarant, not less than 33 1/3 percent of 41 the members of the executive board must be elected by residential units' owners 42 other than the declarant.

43 Sec. 88. 1. Not later than the termination of any period of declarant's 44 control, the residential unit owners and hotel unit owner shall elect an executive 45 board of at least three members, all of whom must be units' owners or, in the case
46 of the hotel unit, a duly authorized representative of the hotel unit owner. The 47 executive board shall elect the officers of the association. The members of the 48 executive board and the officers of the association shall take office upon election.

49 2. The term of office of a member of the executive board may not exceed 2
50 years, except for members who are appointed by the declarant or the hotel unit
51 owner. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, there is no limitation 52 on the number of terms that a person may serve as a member of the executive 53 board.

1 3. The governing documents of the association must provide for terms of 2 office that are staggered in such a manner that, to the extent possible, an equal
3 number of members of the executive board are elected at each election. The 4 provisions of this subsection do not apply to:

5 (a) Members of the executive board who are appointed by the declarant;
6 (b) Members of the executive board who are appointed by the hotel unit 7 owner; and

8 (c) Members of the executive board who serve a term of 1 year or less.

9 4. Not less than 30 days before the preparation of a ballot for the election of 10 members of the executive board, the secretary or other officer specified in the 11 bylaws of the association shall cause notice to be given to each unit's owner of 12 his eligibility to serve as a member of the executive board. Each unit's owner who 13 is qualified to serve as a member of the executive board may have his name 14 placed on the ballot along with the names of the nominees selected by the 15 members of the executive board or a nominating committee established by the 16 association.

17 5. Each person whose name is placed on the ballot as a candidate for a 18 member of the executive board must:

19 (a) Make a good faith effort to disclose any financial, business, professional 20 or personal relationship or interest that would result or would appear to a 21 reasonable person to result in a potential conflict of interest for the candidate if 22 the candidate were to be elected to serve as a member of the executive board; and

23 (b) Disclose whether the candidate is a member in good standing. For the 24 purposes of this paragraph, a candidate shall not be deemed to be in "good 25 standing" if the candidate has any unpaid and past due assessments or charges 26 that are required to be paid to the association.

27 ↳ The candidate must make all disclosures required pursuant to this subsection
28 in writing to the association with his candidacy information. The association 29 shall distribute the disclosures to each member of the association with the ballot 30 in the manner established in the bylaws of the association.

31 6. Unless a person is appointed by the declarant, a person may not be a 32 member of the executive board or an officer of the association if the person, his 33 spouse or his parent or child, by blood, marriage or adoption, performs the duties 34 of a community manager for that association.

35 7. An officer, employee, agent or director of a corporate owner of a unit, a 36 trustee or designated beneficiary of a trust that owns a unit, a partner of a 37 partnership that owns a unit, a member or manager of a limited-liability company
38 that owns a unit, and a fiduciary of an estate that owns a unit may be an officer 39 of the association or a member of the executive board. In all events where the 40 person serving or offering to serve as an officer of the association or a member of 41 the executive board is not the record owner, he shall file proof in the records of 42 the association that:

43 (a) He is associated with the corporate owner, trust, partnership, limited-44 liability company or estate as required by this subsection; and

45 (b) Identifies the unit or units owned by the corporate owner, trust, 46 partnership, limited-liability company or estate.

47 8. The election of any member of the executive board must be conducted by 48 secret written ballot as follows:

49 (a) The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association
50 shall cause a secret ballot and a return envelope to be sent, prepaid by United 51 States mail, to the mailing address of each unit within the condominium hotel or 52 to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit's owner.

1 (b) Each unit's owner must be provided with at least 15 days after the date
2 the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit's owner to return the secret written
3 ballot to the association.

4 (c) A quorum is not required for the election of any member of the executive 5 board.

6 (d) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the association may be 7 counted to determine the outcome of the election.

8 (e) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a meeting of the 9 association. A quorum is not required to be present when the secret written 10 ballots are opened and counted at the meeting.

11 (f) The incumbent members of the executive board and each person whose 12 name is placed on the ballot as a candidate for a member of the executive board 13 may not possess, be given access to or participate in the opening or counting of 14 the secret written ballots that are returned to the association before those secret 15 written ballots have been opened and counted at a meeting of the association.

16 9. Each member of the executive board shall, within 90 days after his 17 appointment or election, certify in writing to the association, on a form prescribed
18 by the Administrator, that he has read and understands the governing documents 19 of the association and the provisions of this chapter to the best of his ability. The 20 Administrator may require the association to submit a copy of the certification of 21 each member of the executive board of that association at the time the association
22 registers with the Ombudsman pursuant to section 121 of this act.

23 Sec. 89. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of the declaration or bylaws to 24 the contrary, any member of the executive board, other than a member appointed 25 by the declarant or elected by the hotel unit owner, may be removed from the 26 executive board, with or without cause, if at a removal election held pursuant to 27 this section the number of votes cast in favor of removal constitutes:

28 (a) At least 35 percent of the total number of voting members of the 29 association; and

30 (b) At least a majority of all votes cast in that removal election.

31 2. The removal of any member of the executive board must be conducted by 32 secret written ballot as follows:

33 (a) The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association
34 shall cause a secret ballot and a return envelope to be sent, prepaid by United 35 States mail, to the mailing address of each unit within the condominium hotel or 36 to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit's owner.

37 (b) Each unit's owner must be provided with at least 15 days after the date
38 the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit's owner to return the secret written 39 ballot to the association.

40 (c) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the association may be 41 counted to determine the outcome.

42 (d) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a meeting of the 43 association. A quorum is not required to be present when the secret written 44 ballots are opened and counted at the meeting.

45 (e) The incumbent members of the executive board, including, without 46 limitation, the member who is subject to the removal, may not possess, be given 47 access to or participate in the opening or counting of the secret written ballots 48 that are returned to the association before those secret written ballots have been 49 opened and counted at a meeting of the association.

50 3. If a member of an executive board is named as a respondent or sued for 51 liability for actions undertaken in his role as a member of the board, the 52 association shall indemnify him for his losses or claims, and undertake all costs 53 of defense, unless it is proven that he acted with willful or wanton misfeasance or

1 with gross negligence. After such proof, the association is no longer liable for the 2 cost of defense, and may recover costs already expended from the member of the 3 executive board who so acted. Members of the executive board are not personally
4 liable to the victims of crimes occurring on the property. Punitive damages may 5 not be recovered against the association, but may be recovered from persons 6 whose activity gave rise to the damages.

7 Sec. 90. 1. In addition to any applicable requirement set forth in this 8 chapter, within 30 days after units' owners other than the declarant may elect a 9 majority of the members of the executive board, the declarant shall deliver to the 10 association all property of the units' owners and of the association held by or 11 controlled by him, including:

12 (a) The original or a certified copy of the recorded declaration as amended, 13 the articles of incorporation, articles of association, articles of organization, 14 certificate of registration, certificate of limited partnership, certificate of trust or 15 other documents of organization for the association, the bylaws, minute books
16 and other books and records of the association and any rules or regulations 17 which may have been adopted.

18 (b) An accounting for money of the association and audited financial 19 statements for each fiscal year and any ancillary period from the date of 20 inception of the association to the date the period of the declarant's control ends.
21 The financial statements must fairly and accurately report the association's 22 financial position.

23 (c) If major components of the common elements exist within the 24 condominium hotel, a complete study of the reserves of the association, 25 conducted by a person who holds a permit to conduct such a study issued 26 pursuant to chapter 116A of NRS. At the time the control of the declarant ends, 27 he shall:

28 (1) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, deliver to the 29 association a reserve account that contains the declarant's share of the amounts 30 then due, and control of the account.

31 (2) Disclose, in writing, the amount by which he has subsidized the 32 association's dues on a per unit basis.

33 (d) The association's money or control thereof.

34 (e) All of the declarant's tangible personal property that has been 35 represented by the declarant as property of the association or, unless the 36 declarant has disclosed in the public offering statement that all such personal 37 property used in the condominium hotel will remain the declarant's property, all 38 of the declarant's tangible personal property that is necessary for, and has been 39 used exclusively in, the operation and enjoyment of the common elements, and 40 inventories of these properties.

41 (f) A copy of any plans and specifications used in the construction of the 42 common elements which were completed within 2 years before the declaration 43 was recorded.

44 (g) All insurance policies then in force, in which the units' owners, the 45 association, or its directors and officers are named as insured persons.

46 (h) Copies of any certificates of occupancy that may have been issued with 47 respect to any improvements comprising the common elements.

48 (i) Any renewable permits and approvals issued by governmental bodies 49 applicable to the common elements or the operation of the association which are 50 in force and any other permits and approvals so issued and applicable which are 51 required by law to be kept on the premises of the condominium hotel.

1 (j) Written warranties of the contractor, subcontractors, suppliers and 2 manufacturers that are still effective pertaining to the residential units or the 3 common elements.

4 (k) A roster of owners and mortgagees of units and their addresses and 5 telephone numbers, if known, as shown on the declarant's records.

6 (l) Contracts of employment in which the association is a contracting party.

7 (m) Any contract for service in which the association is a contracting party
8 or in which the association has any obligation to pay a fee to the persons 9 performing services related to the common elements.

10 2. The declarant is not required to deliver to the association any property 11 related to the hotel unit or the shared components.

12 Sec. 91. 1. If a condominium hotel is developed in separate phases and 13 any declarant or successor declarant is constructing any common elements that 14 will be added to the association's common elements after the date on which the 15 units' owners other than the declarant may elect a majority of the members of the 16 executive board, the declarant or its successors or assigns who is constructing 17 such additional common elements is responsible for:

18 (a) Paying all expenses related to the additional common elements which are 19 incurred before the conveyance of the additional common elements to the 20 association; and

21 (b) Except as otherwise provided by section 90 of this act, delivering to the 22 association that declarant's share of the amount specified in the study of the 23 reserves completed pursuant to subsection 2.

24 2. Before conveying the additional common elements to the association, the 25 declarant or successor declarant who constructed the additional common 26 elements shall deliver to the association a study of the reserves for the additional 27 common elements which satisfies the requirements of section 117 of this act.

28 3. As used in this section, "successor declarant" includes, without 29 limitation, any successor declarant who does not control the association 30 established by the initial declarant.

31 Sec. 92. 1. At the time of each close of escrow of a unit in a converted 32 building, the declarant shall deliver to the hotel unit owner the amount of the 33 converted shared component reserve deficit allocated to that unit.

34 2. The allocation to a unit of the amount of any converted shared 35 component reserve deficit must be made in the same manner as liability for 36 shared expenses is allocated to that unit.

37 3. As used in this section, "converted shared component reserve deficit"
38 means the amount necessary to replace the major components of the shared 39 components needing replacement within 10 years after the date of the first sale of 40 a unit.

41 Sec. 93. 1. At the time of each close of escrow of a unit in a converted 42 building, the declarant shall deliver to the association the amount of the 43 converted common element reserve deficit allocated to that unit.

44 2. The allocation to a unit of the amount of any converted common element 45 reserve deficit must be made in the same manner as assessments are allocated to 46 that unit.

47 3. As used in this section, "converted common element reserve deficit"
48 means the amount necessary to replace the major components of the common 49 elements needing replacement within 10 years after the date of the first sale of a
50 unit.

51 Sec. 94. 1. A special declarant's right created or reserved under this 52 chapter may be transferred only by an instrument evidencing the transfer

1 recorded in every county in which any portion of the condominium hotel is 2 located. The instrument is not effective unless executed by the transferee.

3 2. Upon transfer of any special declarant's right, the liability of a transferor
4 declarant is as follows:

5 (a) A transferor is not relieved of any obligation or liability arising before the 6 transfer and remains liable for warranties imposed upon him by this chapter.
7 Lack of privity does not deprive any unit's owner of standing to maintain an 8 action to enforce any obligation of the transferor.

9 (b) If a successor to any special declarant's right is an affiliate of a 10 declarant, the transferor is jointly and severally liable with the successor for any 11 obligations or liabilities of the successor relating to the condominium hotel.

12 (c) If a transferor retains any special declarant's rights, but transfers other 13 special declarant's rights to a successor who is not an affiliate of the declarant, 14 the transferor is liable for any obligations or liabilities imposed on a declarant by 15 this chapter or by the declaration relating to the retained special declarant's 16 rights and arising after the transfer.

17 (d) A transferor has no liability for any act or omission or any breach of a 18 contractual obligation or warranty arising from the exercise of a special 19 declarant's right by a successor declarant who is not an affiliate of the transferor.

20 3. Unless otherwise provided in a mortgage, deed of trust or other
21 agreement creating a security interest, in case of foreclosure of a security 22 interest, sale by a trustee under an agreement creating a security interest, tax
23 sale, judicial sale or sale under the Bankruptcy Code or a receivership, of any 24 units owned by a declarant or real estate in a condominium hotel subject to 25 developmental rights, a person acquiring title to all the property being foreclosed
26 or sold, but only upon his request, succeeds to all special declarant's rights 27 related to that property held by that declarant, or only to any rights reserved in 28 the declaration pursuant to this chapter and held by that declarant to maintain 29 models, offices for sales and signs. The judgment or instrument conveying title 30 must provide for transfer of only the special declarant's rights requested.

31 4. Upon foreclosure of a security interest, sale by a trustee under an 32 agreement creating a security interest, tax sale, judicial sale or sale under the 33 Bankruptcy Code or a receivership of all interests in a condominium hotel owned 34 by a declarant:

35 (a) The declarant ceases to have any special declarant's rights; and

36 (b) The period of declarant's control terminates unless the judgment or 37 instrument conveying title provides for transfer of all special declarant's rights 38 held by that declarant to a successor declarant.

39 Sec. 95. The liabilities and obligations of a person who succeeds to special 40 declarant's rights are as follows:

41 1. A successor to any special declarant's right who is an affiliate of a 42 declarant is subject to all obligations and liabilities imposed on the transferor by 43 this chapter or by the declaration.

44 2. A successor to any special declarant's right, other than a successor 45 described in subsection 3 or 4 or a successor who is an affiliate of a declarant, is 46 subject to the obligations and liabilities imposed by this chapter or the 47 declaration:

48 (a) On a declarant which relate to the successor's exercise or nonexercise of 49 special declarant's rights; or

50 (b) On his transferor, other than:

51 (1) Misrepresentations by any previous declarant;

52 (2) Warranties on improvements made by any previous declarant, or 53 made before the condominium hotel was created;

1 (3) Breach of any fiduciary obligation by any previous declarant or his 2 appointees to the executive board; or

3 (4) Any liability or obligation imposed on the transferor as a result of the 4 transferor's acts or omissions after the transfer.

5 3. A successor to only a right reserved in the declaration to maintain 6 models, offices for sales and signs, may not exercise any other special declarant's 7 right, and is not subject to any liability or obligation as a declarant, except the 8 obligation to provide a public offering statement and any liability arising as a 9 result thereof.

10 4. A successor to all special declarant's rights held by a transferor who 11 succeeded to those rights pursuant to a deed or other instrument of conveyance in 12 lieu of foreclosure or a judgment or instrument under subsection 3 of section 94
13 of this act may declare in a recorded instrument the intention to hold those rights
14 solely for transfer to another person. Thereafter, until transferring all special 15 declarant's rights to any person acquiring title to any unit or real estate subject to 16 developmental rights owned by the successor, or until recording an instrument 17 permitting exercise of all those rights, that successor may not exercise any of 18 those rights other than any right held by his transferor to control the executive 19 board in accordance with section 87 of this act for the duration of any period of 20 declarant's control, and any attempted exercise of those rights is void. So long as 21 a successor declarant may not exercise special declarant's rights under this 22 subsection, the successor declarant is not subject to any liability or obligation as a 23 declarant other than liability for his acts and omissions under section 87 of this 24 act.

25 Sec. 96. Sections 94 and 95 of this act do not subject any successor to a 26 special declarant's right to any claims against or other obligations of a transferor 27 declarant, other than claims and obligations arising under this chapter or the 28 declaration.

29 Sec. 97. 1. The bylaws of the association must provide:

30 (a) The number of members of the executive board and the titles of the 31 officers of the association;

32 (b) For election by the executive board of a president, treasurer, secretary 33 and any other officers of the association the bylaws specify;

34 (c) The qualifications, powers and duties, terms of office and manner of 35 electing and removing officers of the association and members of the executive 36 board and filling vacancies;

37 (d) Which powers, if any, that the executive board or the officers of the 38 association may delegate to other persons, including a community manager;

39 (e) Which of its officers may prepare, execute, certify and record
40 amendments to the declaration on behalf of the association;

41 (f) Procedural rules for conducting meetings of the association;

42 (g) A method for amending the bylaws; and

43 (h) Procedural rules for conducting elections.

44 2. Except as otherwise provided in the declaration, the bylaws may provide 45 for any other matters the association deems necessary and appropriate.

46 3. The bylaws must be written in plain English.

47 4. The bylaws must not attempt to exercise any control over the shared 48 components or the hotel unit.

49 Sec. 98. The rules adopted by an association, if any:

50 1. Must be reasonably related to the duties of the association.

51 2. Must be sufficiently explicit in their prohibition, direction or limitation to 52 inform a person of any action or omission required for compliance.

53 3. Must not be adopted to evade any obligation of the association.

1 4. Must be consistent with the governing documents of the association and 2 must not arbitrarily restrict conduct or require the construction of any capital
3 improvement by a unit's owner that is not required by the governing documents
4 of the association.

5 5. Must be uniformly enforced under the same or similar circumstances
6 against all units' owners. Any rule that is not so uniformly enforced may not be 7 enforced against any unit's owner.

8 6. May be enforced by the association through the imposition of a fine only 9 if the association complies with the requirements set forth in section 85 of this act 10 for levying fines.

11 7. Must not attempt to exercise any control over the shared components or 12 the hotel unit.

13 Sec. 99. 1. Except to the extent provided by the declaration or this 14 chapter, the association is responsible for maintenance, repair and replacement 15 of the common elements, and each unit's owner is responsible for maintenance, 16 repair and replacement of his unit. Each unit's owner shall afford to the 17 association and the other units' owners, and to their agents or employees, access 18 through his unit reasonably necessary for those purposes. If damage is inflicted 19 by a residential unit owner on the common elements, hotel unit or on any unit 20 through which access is taken, the residential unit owner responsible for the 21 damage, or the association if it is responsible, is liable for the prompt repair 22 thereof.

23 2. Except to the extent provided by the declaration, the hotel unit owner is 24 responsible for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the hotel unit and the 25 shared components.

26 Sec. 100. 1. A meeting of the units' owners must be held as required by 27 the declaration.

28 2. Special meetings of the units' owners may be called by the president, by a 29 majority of the executive board or by units' owners constituting at least 10 30 percent, or any lower percentage specified in the bylaws, of the total number of 31 voting members of the association. The same number of units' owners may also 32 call a removal election pursuant to section 89 of this act. To call a special 33 meeting or a removal election, the units' owners must submit a written petition
34 which is signed by the required percentage of the total number of voting members 35 of the association pursuant to this section and which is mailed, return receipt 36 requested, or served by a process server to the executive board for the association.
37 If the petition calls for a special meeting, the executive board shall set the date for 38 the special meeting so that the special meeting is held not less than 15 days or 39 more than 60 days after the date on which the petition is received. If the petition
40 calls for a removal election, the secret written ballots for the removal election
41 must be sent in the manner required by section 89 of this act not less than 15 days 42 or more than 60 days after the date on which the petition is received, and the 43 executive board shall set the date for the meeting to open and count the secret 44 written ballots so that the meeting is held not more than 15 days after the 45 deadline for returning the secret written ballots.

46 3. Not less than 15 days or more than 60 days in advance of any meeting of 47 the units' owners, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall 48 cause notice of the meeting to be hand delivered, sent prepaid by United States
49 mail to the mailing address of each unit or to any other mailing address 50 designated in writing by the unit's owner or, if the association offers to send 51 notice by electronic mail, sent by electronic mail at the request of the unit's 52 owner to an electronic mail address designated in writing by the unit's owner.
53 The notice of the meeting must state the time and place of the meeting and

1 include a copy of the agenda for the meeting. The notice must include 2 notification of the right of a unit's owner to:

3 (a) Have a copy of the minutes or a summary of the minutes of the meeting
4 provided to the unit's owner upon request and, if required by the executive board,
5 upon payment to the association of the cost of providing the copy to the unit's
6 owner.

7 (b) Speak to the association or executive board, unless the executive board is
8 meeting in executive session.

9 4. The agenda for a meeting of the units' owners must consist of:

10 (a) A clear and complete statement of the topics scheduled to be considered 11 during the meeting, including, without limitation, any proposed amendment to 12 the declaration or bylaws, any fees or assessments to be imposed or increased by 13 the association, any budgetary changes and any proposal to remove an officer of 14 the association or member of the executive board.

15 (b) A list describing the items on which action may be taken and clearly 16 denoting that action may be taken on those items. In an emergency, the units'
17 owners may take action on an item which is not listed on the agenda as an item 18 on which action may be taken.

19 (c) A period devoted to comments by units' owners and discussion of those 20 comments. Except in emergencies, no action may be taken upon a matter raised 21 under this item of the agenda until the matter itself has been specifically included 22 on an agenda as an item upon which action may be taken pursuant to paragraph 23 (b).

24 5. If the association adopts a policy imposing fines for any violations of the 25 governing documents of the association, the secretary or other officer specified in 26 the bylaws shall prepare and cause to be hand delivered or sent prepaid by United 27 States mail to the mailing address of each unit or to any other mailing address 28 designated in writing by the unit's owner, a schedule of the fines that may be 29 imposed for those violations.

30 6. The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause minutes
31 to be recorded or otherwise taken at each meeting of the units' owners. Not more 32 than 30 days after each such meeting, the secretary or other officer specified in 33 the bylaws shall cause the minutes or a summary of the minutes of the meeting to 34 be made available to the units' owners. A copy of the minutes or a summary of 35 the minutes must be provided to any unit's owner upon request and, if required 36 by the executive board, upon payment to the association of the cost of providing 37 the copy to the unit's owner.

38 7. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 8, the minutes of each 39 meeting of the units' owners must include:

40 (a) The date, time and place of the meeting;

41 (b) The substance of all matters proposed, discussed or decided at the 42 meeting; and

43 (c) The substance of remarks made by any unit's owner at the meeting if he 44 requests that the minutes reflect his remarks or, if he has prepared written 45 remarks, a copy of his prepared remarks if he submits a copy for inclusion.

46 8. The executive board may establish reasonable limitations on materials, 47 remarks or other information to be included in the minutes of a meeting of the 48 units' owners.

49 9. The association shall maintain the minutes of each meeting of the units'
50 owners until the condominium hotel is terminated.

51 10. A unit's owner may record on audiotape or any other means of sound
52 reproduction a meeting of the units' owners if the unit's owner, before recording

1 the meeting, provides notice of his intent to record the meeting to the other units'
2 owners who are in attendance at the meeting.

3 11. The units' owners may approve, at the annual meeting of the units'
4 owners, the minutes of the prior annual meeting of the units' owners and the 5 minutes of any prior special meetings of the units' owners. A quorum is not 6 required to be present when the units' owners approve the minutes.

7 12. As used in this section, "emergency" means any occurrence or 8 combination of occurrences that:

9 (a) Could not have been reasonably foreseen;

10 (b) Affects the health, welfare and safety of the units' owners or residents of 11 the condominium hotel;

12 (c) Requires the immediate attention of, and possible action by, the executive 13 board; and

14 (d) Makes it impracticable to comply with the provisions of subsection 3 or 4.

15 Sec. 101. 1. A meeting of the executive board must be held at least once a 16 year.

17 2. Except in an emergency or unless the bylaws of an association require a 18 longer period of notice, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of 19 the association shall, not less than 10 days before the date of a meeting of the 20 executive board, cause notice of the meeting to be given to the units' owners.
21 Such notice must be:

22 (a) Sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit 23 within the condominium hotel or to any other mailing address designated in 24 writing by the unit's owner;

25 (b) If the association offers to send notice by electronic mail, sent by 26 electronic mail at the request of the unit's owner to an electronic mail address 27 designated in writing by the unit's owner; or

28 (c) Published in a newsletter or other similar publication that is circulated to 29 each unit's owner.

30 3. In an emergency, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of 31 the association shall, if practicable, cause notice of the meeting to be sent prepaid
32 by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit within the condominium
33 hotel. If delivery of the notice in this manner is impracticable, the notice must be 34 hand delivered to each unit within the condominium hotel or posted in a 35 prominent place or places within the common elements of the association.

36 4. The notice of a meeting of the executive board must state the time and 37 place of the meeting and include a copy of the agenda for the meeting or the date
38 on which and the locations where copies of the agenda may be conveniently 39 obtained by the units' owners. The notice must include notification of the right of 40 a unit's owner to:

41 (a) Have a copy of the minutes or a summary of the minutes of the meeting
42 provided to the unit's owner upon request and, if required by the executive board,
44 owner.

45 (b) Speak to the association or executive board, unless the executive board is 46 meeting in executive session.

47 5. The agenda of the meeting of the executive board must comply with the 48 provisions of subsection 4 of section 100 of this act. The period required to be 49 devoted to comments by the units' owners and discussion of those comments must 50 be scheduled for the beginning of each meeting. In an emergency, the executive 51 board may take action on an item which is not listed on the agenda as an item on 52 which action may be taken.

1 6. At least once every year, unless the declaration or bylaws of the 2 association impose more stringent standards, the executive board shall review, at 3 a minimum, the following financial information at one of its meetings:

4 (a) A current year-to-date financial statement of the association;

5 (b) A current year-to-date schedule of revenues and expenses for the 6 operating account and the reserve account, compared to the budget for those 7 accounts;

8 (c) A current reconciliation of the operating account of the association;

9 (d) A current reconciliation of the reserve account of the association;

10 (e) The latest account statements prepared by the financial institutions in 11 which the accounts of the association are maintained; and

12 (f) The current status of any civil action or claim submitted to arbitration or 13 mediation in which the association is a party.

14 7. The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause minutes
15 to be recorded or otherwise taken at each meeting of the executive board. Not 16 more than 30 days after each such meeting, the secretary or other officer 17 specified in the bylaws shall cause the minutes or a summary of the minutes of 18 the meetings to be made available to the units' owners. A copy of the minutes or a 19 summary of the minutes must be provided to any unit's owner upon request and,
20 if required by the executive board, upon payment to the association of the cost of 21 providing the copy to the unit's owner.

22 8. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 9 and section 102 of this act, 23 the minutes of each meeting of the executive board must include:

24 (a) The date, time and place of the meeting;

25 (b) The names of those members of the executive board who were present
26 and of those members who were absent at the meeting;

27 (c) The substance of all matters proposed, discussed or decided at the 28 meeting;

29 (d) A record of each member's vote on any matter decided by vote at the 30 meeting; and

31 (e) The substance of remarks made by any unit's owner who addresses the 32 executive board at the meeting if he requests that the minutes reflect his remarks 33 or, if he has prepared written remarks, a copy of his prepared remarks if he 34 submits a copy for inclusion.

35 9. The executive board may establish reasonable limitations on materials,
36 remarks or other information to be included in the minutes of its meetings.

37 10. The association shall maintain the minutes of each meeting of the 38 executive board until the condominium hotel is terminated.

39 11. A unit's owner may record on audiotape or any other means of sound 40 reproduction a meeting of the executive board, unless the executive board is 41 meeting in executive session, if the unit's owner, before recording the meeting, 42 provides notice of his intent to record the meeting to the members of the executive 43 board and the other units' owners who are in attendance at the meeting.

44 12. As used in this section, "emergency" means any occurrence or 45 combination of occurrences that:

46 (a) Could not have been reasonably foreseen;

47 (b) Affects the health, welfare and safety of the units' owners or residents of 48 the condominium hotel;

49 (c) Requires the immediate attention of, and possible action by, the executive 50 board; and

51 (d) Makes it impracticable to comply with the provisions of subsection 2 or 5.

52 Sec. 102. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a unit's owner
53 may attend any meeting of the units' owners or of the executive board and speak

1 at any such meeting. The executive board may establish reasonable limitations on 2 the time a unit's owner may speak at such a meeting.

3 2. An executive board may not meet in executive session to enter into,
4 renew, modify, terminate or take any other action regarding a contract, unless it
5 is a contract between the association and an attorney.

6 3. An executive board may meet in executive session only to:

7 (a) Consult with the attorney for the association on matters relating to 8 proposed or pending litigation if the contents of the discussion would otherwise 9 be governed by the privilege set forth in NRS 49.035 to 49.115, inclusive, or to 10 enter into, renew, modify, terminate or take any other action regarding a contract
11 between the association and the attorney.

12 (b) Discuss the character, alleged misconduct, professional competence, or 13 physical or mental health of a community manager or an employee of the 14 association.

15 (c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, discuss a violation of the 16 governing documents, including, without limitation, the failure to pay an 17 assessment.

18 4. An executive board shall meet in executive session to hold a hearing on 19 an alleged violation of the governing documents unless the person who may be 20 sanctioned for the alleged violation requests in writing that an open hearing be 21 conducted by the executive board. If the person who may be sanctioned for the 22 alleged violation requests in writing that an open hearing be conducted, the 23 person:

24 (a) Is entitled to attend all portions of the hearing related to the alleged 25 violation, including, without limitation, the presentation of evidence and the 26 testimony of witnesses; and

27 (b) Is not entitled to attend the deliberations of the executive board.

28 5. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, any matter discussed by 29 the executive board when it meets in executive session must be generally noted in 30 the minutes of the meeting of the executive board. The executive board shall 31 maintain minutes of any decision made pursuant to subsection 4 concerning an 32 alleged violation and, upon request, provide a copy of the decision to the person 33 who was subject to being sanctioned at the hearing or to his designated 34 representative.

35 6. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, a unit's owner is not 36 entitled to attend or speak at a meeting of the executive board held in executive 37 session.

38 Sec. 103. 1. If an executive board receives a written complaint from a 39 unit's owner alleging that the executive board has violated any provision of this 40 chapter or any provision of the governing documents of the association, the 41 executive board shall, if action is required by the executive board, place the 42 subject of the complaint on the agenda of the next regularly scheduled meeting of 43 the executive board.

44 2. Not later than 10 business days after the date that the association 45 receives such a complaint, the executive board or an authorized representative of 46 the association shall acknowledge the receipt of the complaint and notify the 47 unit's owner that, if action is required by the executive board, the subject of the 48 complaint will be placed on the agenda of the next regularly scheduled meeting 49 of the executive board.

50 Sec. 104. 1. The association shall provide written notice to each unit's 51 owner of a meeting at which the commencement of a civil action is to be 52 considered at least 21 calendar days before the date of the meeting. Except as 53 otherwise provided in this subsection, the association may commence a civil action only upon a vote or written agreement of the owners of units to which at least a majority of the votes of the members of the association are allocated. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to a civil action that is commenced:

(a) To enforce the payment of an assessment;
(b) To enforce the declaration, bylaws or rules of the association;
(c) To enforce a contract with a vendor;
(d) To proceed with a counterclaim; or
(e) To protect the health, safety and welfare of the members of the association. If a civil action is commenced pursuant to this paragraph without the required vote or agreement, the action must be ratified within 90 days after the commencement of the action by a vote or written agreement of the owners of the units to which at least a majority of votes of the members of the association are allocated. If the association, after making a good faith effort, cannot obtain the required vote or agreement to commence or ratify such a civil action, the association may thereafter seek to dismiss the action without prejudice for that reason only if a vote or written agreement of the owners of the units to which at least a majority of votes of the members of the association are allocated was obtained at the time the approval to commence or ratify the action was sought.

2. At least 10 days before an association commences or seeks to ratify the commencement of a civil action, the association shall provide a written statement to all the units' owners that includes:

(a) A reasonable estimate of the costs of the civil action, including reasonable attorney's fees;
(b) An explanation of the potential benefits of the civil action and the potential adverse consequences if the association does not commence the action or if the outcome of the action is not favorable to the association; and
(c) All disclosures that are required to be made upon the sale of the property.

3. No person other than a unit's owner may request the dismissal of a civil action commenced by the association on the ground that the association failed to comply with any provision of this section.

4. If any civil action in which the association is a party is settled, the executive board shall disclose the terms and conditions of the settlement at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the executive board after the settlement has been reached. The executive board may not approve a settlement which contains any terms and conditions that would prevent the executive board from complying with the provisions of this subsection.

Sec. 105. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and section 88 of this act, and except when the governing documents provide otherwise, a quorum is present throughout any meeting of the association if the number of members of the association who are present in person or by proxy at the beginning of the meeting equals or exceeds 20 percent of the total number of voting members of the association.

2. If the governing documents of an association contain a quorum requirement for a meeting of the association that is greater than the 20 percent required by subsection 1 and, after proper notice has been given for a meeting, the members of the association who are present in person or by proxy at the meeting are unable to hold the meeting because a quorum is not present at the beginning of the meeting, the members who are present in person at the meeting may adjourn the meeting to a time that is not less than 48 hours or more than 30 days after the date of the meeting. At the subsequent meeting:

(a) A quorum shall be deemed to be present if the number of members of the association who are present in person or by proxy at the beginning of the subsequent meeting equals or exceeds 20 percent of the total number of voting members of the association; and

(b) If such a quorum is deemed to be present but the actual number of members who are present in person or by proxy at the beginning of the subsequent meeting is less than the number of members who are required for a quorum under the governing documents, the members who are present in person or by proxy at the subsequent meeting may take action only on those matters that were included as items on the agenda of the original meeting.

↳ The provisions of this subsection do not change the actual number of votes that are required under the governing documents for taking action on any particular matter.

3. Unless the governing documents specify a larger percentage, a quorum is deemed present throughout any meeting of the executive board if persons entitled to cast 50 percent of the votes on that board are present at the beginning of the meeting.

Sec. 106. 1. If only one of several owners of a unit is present at a meeting of the association, that owner is entitled to cast all the votes allocated to that unit. If more than one of the owners are present, the votes allocated to that unit may be cast only in accordance with the agreement of a majority in interest of the owners, unless the declaration expressly provides otherwise. There is majority agreement if any one of the owners cast the votes allocated to that unit without protest made promptly to the person presiding over the meeting by any of the other owners of the unit.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, votes allocated to a unit may be cast pursuant to a proxy executed by a unit's owner. A unit's owner may give a proxy only to a member of his immediate family, a tenant of the unit's owner who resides in the condominium hotel, the hotel unit owner or another unit's owner who resides in the condominium hotel. If a unit is owned by more than one person, each owner of the unit may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by the other owners of the unit through an executed proxy. A unit's owner may revoke a proxy given pursuant to this section only by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the association.

3. Before a vote may be cast pursuant to a proxy:

(a) The proxy must be dated.

(b) The proxy must not purport to be revocable without notice.

(c) The proxy must designate the meeting for which it is executed.

(d) The proxy must designate each specific item on the agenda of the meeting for which the unit's owner has executed the proxy, except that the unit's owner may execute the proxy without designating any specific items on the agenda of the meeting if the proxy is to be used solely for determining whether a quorum is present for the meeting. If the proxy designates one or more specific items on the agenda of the meeting for which the unit's owner has executed the proxy, the proxy must indicate, for each specific item designated in the proxy, whether the holder of the proxy must cast a vote in the affirmative or the negative on behalf of the unit's owner. If the proxy does not indicate whether the holder of the proxy must cast a vote in the affirmative or the negative for a particular item on the agenda of the meeting, the proxy must be treated, with regard to that particular item, as if the unit's owner were present but not voting on that particular item.

(e) The holder of the proxy must disclose at the beginning of the meeting for which the proxy is executed the number of proxies pursuant to which the holder will be casting votes.

4. A proxy terminates immediately after the conclusion of the meeting for which it is executed.

1 5. A vote may not be cast pursuant to a proxy for the election or removal of 2 a member of the executive board of an association.

3 6. The holder of a proxy may not cast a vote on behalf of the unit's owner
4 who executed the proxy in a manner that is contrary to the proxy.

5 7. A proxy is void if the proxy or the holder of the proxy violates any 6 provision of subsections 1 to 6, inclusive.

7 8. If the declaration requires that votes on specified matters affecting the 8 condominium hotel must be cast by the lessees of leased units rather than the 9 units' owners who have leased the units:

10 (a) The provisions of subsections 1 to 7, inclusive, apply to the lessees as if 11 they were the units' owners;

12 (b) The units' owners who have leased their units to the lessees may not cast 13 votes on those specified matters;

14 (c) The lessees are entitled to notice of meetings, access to records and other 15 rights respecting those matters as if they were the units' owners; and

16 (d) The units' owners must be given notice, in the manner provided in this 17 chapter, of all meetings at which the lessees are entitled to vote.

18 9. If any votes are allocated to a unit that is owned by the association, those 19 votes may not be cast, by proxy or otherwise, for any purpose.

20 Sec. 107. Neither the association nor any unit's owner except the declarant
21 or hotel unit owner, as applicable, is liable for that declarant's or hotel unit 22 owner's torts in connection with any part of the condominium hotel which that 23 declarant or hotel unit owner, as applicable, owns or has the responsibility to 24 maintain. Otherwise, an action alleging a wrong done by the association must be 25 brought against the association and not against any unit's owner. If the wrong 26 occurred during any period of declarant's control over the association and the 27 association gives the declarant reasonable notice of and an opportunity to defend 28 against the action, the declarant who then controlled the association is liable to 29 the association or to any unit's owner for all tort losses not covered by insurance
30 suffered by the association or that unit's owner, and all costs that the association 31 would not have incurred but for a breach of contract or other wrongful act or 32 omission. Whenever the declarant is liable to the association under this section, 33 the declarant is also liable for all expenses of litigation, including reasonable 34 attorney's fees, incurred by the association. Any statute of limitation affecting the 35 association's right of action under this section is tolled until the period of 36 declarant's control terminates. A unit's owner is not precluded from maintaining 37 an action contemplated by this section because he is a unit's owner or a member 38 or officer of the association.

39 Sec. 108. 1. Portions of the common elements of a condominium hotel
40 may be conveyed or subjected to a security interest by the association if persons 41 entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes in the association or any larger 42 percentage otherwise specified in the declaration agree to such action. All owners 43 of units to which any limited common element is allocated must agree in order to 44 convey that limited common element or subject it to a security interest. Proceeds 45 of the sale are an asset of the association.

46 2. An agreement to convey or subject common elements in a condominium
47 hotel to a security interest must be evidenced by the execution of an agreement, 48 or ratifications thereof, in the same manner as a deed, by the requisite number of 49 units' owners. The agreement must specify a date after which the agreement will 50 be void unless recorded before that date. The agreement and all ratifications
51 thereof must be recorded in every county in which a portion of the condominium 52 hotel is situated, and is effective only upon recordation.

1 3. The association, on behalf of the units' owners, may contract to convey 2 an interest in the common elements pursuant to subsection 1, but the contract is 3 not enforceable against the association until approved pursuant to subsections 1
4 and 2. Upon approval, the association has all powers necessary and appropriate 5 to effect the conveyance or encumbrance, including the power to execute deeds or 6 other instruments.

7 4. Unless made pursuant to this section, any purported conveyance, 8 encumbrance, judicial sale or other voluntary transfer of common elements is 9 void.

10 5. A conveyance or encumbrance of common elements pursuant to this 11 section does not deprive any unit of its rights of access and support.

12 6. Unless the declaration otherwise provides, a conveyance or encumbrance 13 of common elements pursuant to this section does not affect the priority or 14 validity of preexisting encumbrances.

15 Sec. 109. 1. Commencing not later than the time of the first conveyance
16 of a unit to a person other than a declarant, and unless the declaration states 17 otherwise, the association shall maintain, to the extent reasonably available, both 18 of the following:

19 (a) Property insurance on the common elements insuring against all risks of 20 direct physical loss commonly insured against in an amount specified in the 21 declaration.

22 (b) Liability insurance on the common elements, including insurance for 23 medical payments, in an amount determined by the executive board but not less 24 than any amount specified in the declaration, covering all occurrences commonly 25 insured against for death, bodily injury, and property damage arising out of or in 26 connection with the use, ownership, or maintenance of the common elements.

27 2. Commencing not later than the time of the first conveyance of a
28 residential unit to a person other than the declarant, and unless the declaration 29 states otherwise, the hotel unit owner shall maintain, to the extent reasonably 30 available, the following:

31 (a) Property and casualty insurance on the residential units, hotel unit and 32 shared components insuring against all risks of direct physical loss commonly 33 insured against in an amount specified in the declaration. An insurance policy 34 issued to the hotel unit owner does not prevent a unit's owner from obtaining 35 insurance for his own benefit.

36 (b) Liability insurance on the residential units, hotel unit and shared 37 components, including insurance for medical payments, in an amount set forth in 38 the declaration, covering all occurrences commonly insured against for death, 39 bodily injury, and property damage arising out of or in connection with the use, 40 ownership, or maintenance of the residential units, shared components or the 41 hotel unit.

42 Sec. 110. Insurance policies carried pursuant to this chapter must provide 43 to the extent reasonably available that:

44 1. Each unit's owner is an insured person under the policy with respect to 45 liability arising out of his interest in the common elements or membership in the 46 association;

47 2. The insurer waives its right to subrogation under the policy against any 48 unit's owner or member of his household;

49 3. No act or omission by any unit's owner, unless acting within the scope of 50 his authority on behalf of the association, will void the policy or be a condition to 51 recovery under the policy; and

52 4. If, at the time of a loss under the policy, there is other insurance in the 53 name of a unit's owner covering the same risk covered by the policy, the association's policy or the hotel unit owners' policy, as applicable, provides primary insurance.

Sec. 111. 1. Unless the declaration states otherwise, with respect to repair or replacement of all or any portion of the hotel condominium after fire or other casualty, any portion of the condominium hotel for which insurance is required under section 109 of this act which is damaged or destroyed must be repaired or replaced promptly by the association unless:

(a) The condominium hotel is terminated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

(b) Repair or replacement would be illegal under any state or local statute or ordinance governing health or safety; or

(c) The declarant or hotel unit owner, as applicable, and the residential unit owners representing at least 80 percent of the total voting power in the association vote that the damaged or destroyed portion of the hotel condominium not be rebuilt.

2. If a determination is made to effect repair or restoration of the damaged or destroyed portion of the condominium hotel, the insurance proceeds of all insurance policies required to be maintained under section 109 of this act that are attributable to the damaged or destroyed portion of the condominium hotel must be disbursed to the contractors engaged in such repair or restoration in appropriate installment payments, and any proceeds that are in excess of the amounts reasonably necessary to effect repair or restoration must be disbursed:

(a) As to the residential units or common elements, to the unit owners in proportion to their assessments for common expenses.

(b) As to any portion of the shared components or the hotel unit, to the hotel unit owner.

3. If a determination is made not to effect repair or restoration of the damaged portion of the condominium hotel:

(a) The insurance proceeds attributable to units, shared components or common elements that are not rebuilt must be distributed to the owners of those units and the owners of the units to which those limited common elements were allocated, or to lienholders, as their interests may appear; and

(b) The remainder of the proceeds must be distributed:

(1) As to the residential units or common elements, to the unit owners in proportion to their assessments for common expenses.

(2) As to any portion of the shared components or the hotel unit, to the hotel unit owner.

Sec. 112. 1. The Commission shall adopt regulations prescribing the requirements for the preparation and presentation of financial statements of an association pursuant to this chapter.

2. The regulations adopted by the Commission must include, without limitation:

(a) The qualifications necessary for a person to prepare and present financial statements of an association; and

(b) The standards and format to be followed in preparing and presenting financial statements of an association.

Sec. 113. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the executive board shall:

(a) If the annual budget of the association is less than $75,000, cause the financial statement of the association to be audited by an independent certified public accountant at least once every 4 fiscal years.

(b) If the annual budget of the association is $75,000 or more but less than $150,000, cause the financial statement of the association to be:

(1) Audited by an independent certified public accountant at least once every 4 fiscal years; and

(2) Reviewed by an independent certified public accountant every fiscal year for which an audit is not conducted.

(c) If the annual budget of the association is $150,000 or more, cause the financial statement of the association to be audited by an independent certified public accountant every fiscal year.

2. For any fiscal year for which an audit of the financial statement of the association will not be conducted pursuant to subsection 1, the executive board shall cause the financial statement for that fiscal year to be audited by an independent certified public accountant if, within 180 days before the end of the fiscal year, 15 percent of the total number of voting members of the association submit a written request for such an audit.

3. The Commission shall adopt regulations prescribing the requirements for the auditing or reviewing of financial statements of an association pursuant to this section. Such regulations must include, without limitation:

(a) The qualifications necessary for a person to audit or review financial statements of an association; and

(b) The standards and format to be followed in auditing or reviewing financial statements of an association.

Sec. 114. 1. Until the association makes an assessment for common expenses for the common elements, the declarant shall pay all common expenses. After an assessment has been made by the association, assessments must be made at least annually, based on a budget adopted at least annually by the association in accordance with the requirements set forth in this chapter. Unless the declaration imposes more stringent standards, the budget must include a budget for the daily operation of the association and a budget for the reserves required by paragraph (b) of subsection 2.

2. Except for assessments under subsections 4 to 7, inclusive:

(a) All common expenses, including the reserves, must be assessed against all the units in accordance with the allocations set forth in the declaration pursuant to section 66 of this act.

(b) The association shall establish adequate reserves, funded on a reasonable basis, for the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the common elements. The reserves may be used only for those purposes and must not be used for daily maintenance. The association may comply with the provisions of this paragraph through a funding plan that is designed to allocate the costs for the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the common elements over a period of years if the funding plan is designed in an actuarially sound manner which will ensure that sufficient money is available when the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the common elements are necessary.

3. Any past due assessment for common expenses or installment thereof bears interest at the rate established by the association not exceeding 18 percent per year.

4. To the extent required by the declaration:

(a) Any common expense or portion thereof benefiting fewer than all of the units must be assessed exclusively against the units benefited; and

(b) The costs of insurance must be assessed in proportion to risk and the costs of utilities must be assessed in proportion to usage.

5. Assessments to pay a judgment against the association may be made only against the units in the condominium hotel at the time the judgment was entered, in proportion to their liabilities for common expenses.

1 6. If any common expense is caused by the misconduct of any unit's owner,
2 the association may assess that expense exclusively against his unit.

3 7. If liabilities for common expenses are reallocated, assessments for 4 common expenses and any installment thereof not yet due must be recalculated in 5 accordance with the reallocated liabilities.

6 8. The association shall provide written notice to each unit's owner of a 7 meeting at which an assessment for a capital improvement is to be considered or 8 action is to be taken on such an assessment at least 21 calendar days before the 9 date of the meeting.

10 Sec. 115. 1. The hotel unit owner may charge all residential units in the 11 condominium hotel:

12 (a) Shared expenses for the operation, maintenance and insurance of the 13 hotel unit, shared components and the residential units;

14 (b) Costs for the establishment of reasonable reserve funds for the repair or 15 replacement of the major components of the shared components;

16 (c) Costs for the establishment of reasonable reserve funds for the 17 maintenance, repair and replacement of the hotel unit or shared components;

18 (d) Charges for capital improvement;

19 (e) Charges that the declarant or hotel unit owner, as applicable, establishes 20 in the declaration to offset the burden on the shared components or hotel unit as 21 a result of transient rentals; and

22 (f) All other charges lawfully imposed by the declarant in connection with 23 the repair, replacement, improvement, maintenance, management, operation and 24 insurance of the shared components.

25 2. All shared expenses, including the reserves, must be charged against all 26 the residential units in accordance with the allocated liability for shared expenses
27 set forth in the declaration pursuant to this chapter.

28 3. The shared expenses must be imposed on a calendar-year basis and must 29 be payable by the residential unit owners in monthly, quarterly, semiannual or 30 annual installments as required in the declaration.

31 4. The declarant or hotel unit owner, as applicable, shall establish adequate 32 reserves, funded on a reasonable basis, for the repair, replacement and 33 restoration of the major components of the shared components. The reserves may 34 be used only for repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of 35 the shared components, and must not be used for daily maintenance. The 36 declarant may comply with the provisions of this subsection through a funding 37 plan that is designed to allocate the costs for the repair, replacement and 38 restoration of the major components of the shared components over a period of 39 years if the funding plan is designed in an actuarially sound manner which will 40 ensure that sufficient money is available when the repair, replacement and 41 restoration of the major components of the shared components is necessary.

42 5. Any past due assessment authorized pursuant to this section bears 43 interest at the rate established by the declaration but not to exceed 18 percent per 44 year.

45 6. Payment of shared expenses by a residential unit owner does not entitle 46 that owner to ownership or control over the hotel unit or the shared components.

47 Sec. 116. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 and unless the 48 declaration of a condominium hotel imposes more stringent standards, the 49 executive board shall, not less than 30 days or more than 60 days before the 50 beginning of the fiscal year, prepare and distribute to each unit's owner a copy 51 of:

52 (a) The budget for the daily operation of the association. The budget must 53 include, without limitation, the estimated annual revenue and expenditures of the

1 association and any contributions to be made to the reserve account of the
2 association.

3 (b) The budget to provide adequate funding for the reserves required by 4 section 115 of this act. The budget must include, without limitation:

5 (1) The current estimated replacement cost, estimated remaining life and 6 estimated useful life of each major component of the common elements;

7 (2) As of the end of the fiscal year for which the budget is prepared, the 8 current estimate of the amount of cash reserves that are necessary, and the 9 current amount of accumulated cash reserves that are set aside, to repair, replace 10 or restore the major components of the common elements;

11 (3) A statement as to whether the executive board has determined or 12 anticipates that the levy of one or more special assessments will be necessary to 13 repair, replace or restore any major component of the common elements or to 14 provide adequate funding for the reserves designated for that purpose; and

15 (4) A general statement describing the procedures used for the estimation 16 and accumulation of cash reserves pursuant to subparagraph (2), including, 17 without limitation, the qualifications of the person responsible for the 18 preparation of the study of the reserves required by section 117 of this act.

19 2. In lieu of distributing copies of the budgets of the association required by 20 subsection 1, the executive board may distribute to each unit's owner a summary 21 of those budgets, accompanied by a written notice that:

22 (a) The budgets are available for review at the business office of the 23 association or some other suitable location within the county where the 24 condominium hotel is situated or, if it is situated in more than one county, within 25 one of those counties; and

26 (b) Copies of the budgets will be provided upon request.

27 3. Within 60 days after adoption of any proposed budget for the association 28 of the condominium hotel, the executive board shall provide a summary of the 29 proposed budget to each unit's owner and shall set a date for a meeting of the 30 units' owners to consider ratification of the proposed budget not less than 14 days
31 or more than 30 days after the mailing of the summaries. Unless at that meeting a 32 majority of all units' owners, or any larger vote specified in the declaration, reject 33 the proposed budget, the proposed budget is ratified, whether or not a quorum is 34 present. If the proposed budget is rejected, the periodic budget last ratified by the 35 units' owners must be continued until such time as the units' owners ratify a 36 subsequent budget proposed by the executive board.

37 Sec. 117. 1. The executive board shall:

38 (a) At least once every 5 years, cause to be conducted a study of the reserves 39 required to repair, replace and restore the major components of the common 40 elements;

41 (b) At least annually, review the results of that study to determine whether 42 those reserves are sufficient; and

43 (c) At least annually, make any adjustments to the association's funding plan 44 which the executive board deems necessary to provide adequate funding for the 45 required reserves.

46 2. The study of the reserves required by subsection 1 must be conducted by 47 a person who holds a permit issued pursuant to chapter 116A of NRS.

48 3. The study of the reserves must include, without limitation:

49 (a) A summary of an inspection of the major components of the common 50 elements that the association is obligated to repair, replace or restore;

51 (b) An identification of the major components of the common elements that 52 the association is obligated to repair, replace or restore which have a remaining
53 useful life of less than 30 years;

(c) An estimate of the remaining useful life of each major component of the common elements identified pursuant to paragraph (b);

(d) An estimate of the cost of repair, replacement or restoration of each major component of the common elements identified pursuant to paragraph (b) during and at the end of its useful life; and

(e) An estimate of the total annual assessment that may be necessary to cover the cost of repair, replacement or restoration of the major components of the common elements identified pursuant to paragraph (b), after subtracting the reserves of the association as of the date of the study, and an estimate of the funding plan that may be necessary to provide adequate funding for the required reserves.

4. A summary of the study of the reserves required by subsection 1 must be submitted to the Division not later than 45 days after the date that the executive board adopts the results of the study.

Sec. 118. 1. The hotel unit owner shall:

(a) At least once every 5 years, cause to be conducted a study of the reserves required to repair, replace and restore the major components of the shared components;

(b) At least annually, review the results of that study to determine whether those reserves are sufficient; and

(c) At least annually, make any adjustments to the charges for shared components which is deemed necessary to provide adequate funding for the required reserves for shared components.

2. The study of the reserves required by subsection 1 must be conducted by a person who holds a permit issued pursuant to chapter 116A of NRS.

3. The study of the reserves must include, without limitation:

(a) A summary of an inspection of the major components of the shared components;

(b) An identification of the major components of the shared components that have a remaining useful life of less than 30 years;

(c) An estimate of the remaining useful life of each major component of the shared components identified pursuant to paragraph (b);

(d) An estimate of the cost of repair, replacement or restoration of each major component of the shared components identified pursuant to paragraph (b) during and at the end of its useful life; and

(e) An estimate of the total annual charge that may be necessary to cover the cost of repairing, replacement or restoration of the major components of the shared components identified pursuant to paragraph (b), after subtracting the reserves for shared components as of the date of the study, and an estimate of the funding plan that may be necessary to provide adequate funding for the required reserves.

Sec. 119. Money in the reserve account of an association required by section 114 of this act may not be withdrawn without the signatures of at least two members of the executive board or the signatures of at least one member of the executive board and one officer of the association who is not a member of the executive board.

Sec. 120. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, an association shall:

(a) If the association is required to pay the fee imposed by NRS 78.150, 82.193, 86.263, 87.541 or 88.591, pay to the Administrator a fee established by regulation of the Administrator for every unit in the association used for residential use.

(b) If the association is organized as a trust or partnership, or as any other authorized business entity, pay to the Administrator a fee established by regulation of the Administrator for each unit in the association.

2. The fees required to be paid pursuant to this section must be:

(a) Paid at such times as are established by the Division.

(b) Deposited with the State Treasurer for credit to the Account for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels created by NRS 116.630.

(c) Established on the basis of the actual costs of administering the Office of the Ombudsman and the Commission and not on a basis which includes any subsidy beyond those actual costs. In no event may the fees required to be paid pursuant to this section exceed $3 per unit.

3. The Division shall impose an administrative penalty against an association that violates the provisions of this section by failing to pay the fees owed by the association within the times established by the Division. The administrative penalty that is imposed for each violation must equal 10 percent of the amount of the fees owed by the association or $500, whichever amount is less. The amount of the unpaid fees owed by the association bears interest at the rate set forth in NRS 99.040 from the date the fees are due until the date the fees are paid in full.

4. Upon the payment of the fees and any administrative penalties and interest required by this section, the Administrator shall provide to the association evidence that it paid the fees and the administrative penalties and interest in compliance with this section.

Sec. 121. Each association shall, at the time it pays the fee required by section 120 of this act, register with the Ombudsman on a form prescribed by the Ombudsman.

Sec. 122. 1. The association or the hotel unit owner, as applicable, has a lien on a unit for any assessment or charge, including assessments for common expenses and charges for shared expenses or other charges of the hotel unit owner, authorized by this chapter that is levied against that unit or any fines imposed against the unit's owner from the time the assessment, charge or fine becomes due. If an assessment is payable in installments, the full amount of the assessment or charge is a lien from the time the first installment thereof becomes due.

2. A lien under this section is prior to all other liens and encumbrances on a unit except:

(a) Liens and encumbrances recorded before the recordation of the declaration;

(b) A first security interest on the unit recorded before the date on which the assessment sought to be enforced became delinquent;

(c) Liens for real estate taxes and other governmental assessments or charges against the unit; and

(d) Mechanics' or materialmen's liens.

3. Unless the declaration otherwise provides, if the association and the hotel unit owner both have liens for assessments or charges created at any time on the same property, the priority of those liens is governed by Nevada law.

4. Recording of the declaration constitutes record notice and perfection of the lien. No further recordation of any claim of lien for assessment or charge under this section is required.

5. A lien for unpaid assessments or charges is extinguished unless proceedings to enforce the lien are instituted within 3 years after the full amount of the assessments or charges become due.

6. This section does not prohibit actions to recover sums for which subsection 1 creates a lien or prohibit an association, the declarant or hotel unit owner, as applicable, from taking a deed in lieu of foreclosure.

7. A judgment or decree in any action brought under this section must include costs and reasonable attorney's fees for the prevailing party.

8. The association or the hotel unit owner, as applicable, upon written request, shall furnish to a residential unit owner a statement setting forth the amount of unpaid assessments or charges against the unit. If the interest of the unit's owner is real estate or if a lien for the unpaid assessments or charges may be foreclosed under this chapter, the statement must be in recordable form. The statement must be furnished within 10 business days after receipt of the request and is binding on the association or the declarant, as applicable, and every unit's owner.

Sec. 123. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, in a condominium hotel, the association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, may foreclose its lien by sale after all of the following occur:

(a) The association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, has mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the residential unit owner or his successor in interest, at his address if known and at the address of the residential unit, a notice of delinquent assessment which states the amount of the assessments and other sums which are due, a description of the residential unit against which the lien is imposed and the name of the record owner of the residential unit.

(b) Not less than 30 days after mailing the notice of delinquent assessment or charge pursuant to paragraph (a), the association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, has executed and caused to be recorded, with the county recorder of the county in which the condominium hotel or any part of it is situated, a notice of default and election to sell the residential unit to satisfy the lien which must contain the same information as the notice of delinquent assessment and which must also comply with the following:

(1) Describe the deficiency in payment.

(2) State the name and address of the person authorized by the association, the declarant or hotel unit owner, as applicable, to enforce the lien by sale.

(3) Contain, in 14-point bold type, the following warning:

WARNING! IF YOU FAIL TO PAY THE AMOUNT SPECIFIED IN THIS NOTICE, YOU COULD LOSE YOUR HOME, EVEN IF THE AMOUNT IS IN DISPUTE!

(c) The residential unit owner or his successor in interest has failed to pay the amount of the lien, including costs, fees and expenses incident to its enforcement, for 90 days following the recording of the notice of default and election to sell.

2. The notice of default and election to sell must be signed by the person designated in the declaration or by the association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, for that purpose.

3. The period of 90 days begins on the first day following:

(a) The date on which the notice of default is recorded; or

(b) The date on which a copy of the notice of default is mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the residential unit owner or his successor in interest at his address, if known, and at the address of the residential unit.

↳ whichever date occurs later.

4. The association may not foreclose a lien by sale based on a fine or penalty for a violation of the governing documents of the association unless:

(a) The violation poses an imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of the units' owners or residents of the condominium hotel; or

(b) The penalty is imposed for failure to adhere to a schedule required pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 124. The association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, shall also mail, within 10 days after the notice of default and election to sell is recorded, a copy of the notice by first-class mail to:

1. Each person who has requested notice pursuant to NRS 107.090 or section 128 of this act;

2. Any holder of a recorded security interest encumbering the residential unit owner's interest who has notified the association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, 30 days before the recordation of the notice of default, of the existence of the security interest; and

3. A purchaser of the residential unit, if the residential unit owner has notified the association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, 30 days before the recordation of the notice, that the residential unit is the subject of a contract of sale and the association has been requested to furnish the certificate required by section 147 of this act.

Sec. 125. 1. The association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, shall also, after the expiration of the 90 days and before selling the unit:

(a) Give notice of the time and place of the sale in the manner and for a time not less than that required by law for the sale of real property upon execution, except that in lieu of following the procedure for service on a judgment debtor pursuant to NRS 21.130, service must be made on the residential unit owner as follows:

(1) A copy of the notice of sale must be mailed, on or before the date of first publication or posting, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the residential unit owner or his successor in interest at his address, if known, and to the address of the residential unit; and

(2) A copy of the notice of sale must be served, on or before the date of first publication or posting, in the manner set forth in subsection 2; and

(b) Mail, on or before the date of first publication or posting, a copy of the notice by first-class mail to:

(1) Each person entitled to receive a copy of the notice of default and election to sell notice under section 124 of this act;

(2) The holder of a recorded security interest or the purchaser of the residential unit, if either of them has notified the association, before the mailing of the notice of sale, of the existence of the security interest, lease or contract of sale, as applicable; and

(3) The Ombudsman.

2. In addition to the requirements set forth in subsection 1, a copy of the notice of sale must be served:

(a) By a person who is 18 years of age or older and who is not a party to or interested in the sale by personally delivering a copy of the notice of sale to an occupant of the residential unit who is of suitable age; or

(b) By posting a copy of the notice of sale in a conspicuous place on the residential unit.

3. Any copy of the notice of sale required to be served pursuant to this section must include:

(a) The amount necessary to satisfy the lien as of the date of the proposed sale; and

(b) The following warning in 14-point bold type:

WARNING! A SALE OF YOUR PROPERTY IS IMMINENT! UNLESS YOU PAY THE AMOUNT SPECIFIED IN THIS NOTICE BEFORE THE SALE DATE, YOU COULD LOSE YOUR HOME, EVEN IF THE AMOUNT IS IN DISPUTE. YOU MUST ACT BEFORE THE SALE DATE. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, PLEASE CALL (name and telephone number of the contact person for the association, declarant, or hotel unit owner). IF YOU NEED ASSISTANCE, PLEASE CALL THE FORECLOSURE SECTION OF THE OMBUDSMAN'S OFFICE, NEVADA REAL ESTATE DIVISION, AT (toll-free telephone number designated by the Division) IMMEDIATELY.

4. Proof of service of any copy of the notice of sale required to be served pursuant to this section must consist of:

(a) A certificate of mailing which evidences that the notice was mailed through the United State Postal Service; or

(b) An affidavit of service signed by the person who served the notice stating:

(1) The time of service, manner of service and location of service; and

(2) The name of the person served or, if the notice was not served on a person, a description of the location where the notice was posted on the residential unit.

Sec. 126. 1. The sale must be conducted in the county in which the condominium hotel or part of it is situated, and may be conducted by the association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, its agent or attorney, or a title insurance company or escrow agent licensed to do business in this State, except that the sale may be made at the office of the association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, if the notice of the sale so provided, whether or not the residential unit is located within the same county as the office of the association or the hotel unit. The association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, may, from time to time, postpone the sale by such advertisement and notice as it considers reasonable or, without further advertisement or notice, by proclamation made to the persons assembled at the time and place previously set and advertised for the sale.

2. On the day of sale originally advertised or to which the sale is postponed, at the time and place specified in the notice or postponement, the person conducting the sale may sell the residential unit at public auction to the highest cash bidder. Unless otherwise provided in the declaration or by agreement, the association or hotel unit owner may purchase the residential unit and hold, lease, mortgage or convey it. The association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, may purchase by a credit bid up to the amount of the unpaid assessments and any permitted costs, fees and expenses incident to the enforcement of its lien.

3. After the sale, the person conducting the sale shall:

(a) Make, execute and, after payment is made, deliver to the purchaser, or his successor or assign, a deed without warranty which conveys to the grantee all title of the residential unit owner to the unit;

(b) Deliver a copy of the deed to the Ombudsman within 30 days after the deed is delivered to the purchaser, or his successor or assign; and

(c) Apply the proceeds of the sale for the following purposes in the following order:

(1) The reasonable expenses of sale;

1 (2) The reasonable expenses of securing possession before sale, holding,
2 maintaining, and preparing the residential unit for sale, including payment of 3 taxes and other governmental charges, premiums on hazard and liability
4 insurance, and, to the extent provided for by the declaration, reasonable
5 attorney's fees and other legal expenses incurred by the association or the hotel
6 unit owner, as applicable;

7 (3) Satisfaction of the association's or hotel unit owner's lien, as 8 applicable;

9 (4) Satisfaction in the order of priority of any subordinate claim of 10 record; and

11 (5) Remittance of any excess to the unit's owner.

12 Sec. 127. 1. The recitals in a deed of a foreclosed unit made pursuant to 13 section 126 of this act of:

14 (a) Default, the mailing of the notice of delinquent assessment or charge,
15 and the recording of the notice of default and election to sell;

16 (b) The elapsing of the 90 days; and 17 (c) The giving of notice of sale,

18 are conclusive proof of the matters recited.

19 2. Such a deed containing those recitals is conclusive against the residential 20 unit's former owner, his heirs and assigns, and all other persons. The receipt for 21 the purchase money contained in such a deed is sufficient to discharge the 22 purchaser from obligation to see to the proper application of the purchase money.

23 3. The sale of a residential unit pursuant to the foreclosure procedures of 24 this chapter vests in the purchaser the title of the unit's owner without equity or 25 right of redemption.

26 Sec. 128. 1. The provisions of NRS 107.090 apply to the foreclosure of 27 lien of an association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, as if a deed of trust were 28 being foreclosed. The request must identify the lien by stating the names of the 29 unit's owner and the condominium hotel.

30 2. An association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, may, after recording a 31 notice of default and election to sell, waive the default and withdraw the notice or 32 any proceeding to foreclose. The association or hotel unit owner, as applicable, is 33 thereupon restored to its former position and has the same rights as though the 34 notice had not been recorded.

35 Sec. 129. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a judgment for 36 money against the association, if a copy of the docket or an abstract or copy of 37 the judgment is recorded, is not a lien on the common elements, but is a lien in 38 favor of the judgment lienholder against all of the units in the condominium 39 hotel at the time the judgment was entered. No other property of a unit's owner or 40 the declarant is subject to the claims of creditors of the association.

41 2. If the association has granted a security interest in the common elements 42 to a creditor of the association pursuant to section 108 of this act, the holder of 43 that security interest shall exercise its right against the common elements before 44 its judgment lien on any unit may be enforced.

45 3. Whether perfected before or after the creation of the condominium hotel, 46 if a lien, other than a deed of trust or mortgage, including a judgment lien or lien 47 attributable to work performed or materials supplied before creation of the 48 condominium hotel, becomes effective against two or more units, the owner of an 49 affected unit may pay to the lienholder the amount of the lien attributable to his 50 unit, and the lienholder, upon receipt of payment, promptly shall deliver a release
51 of the lien covering that unit. The amount of the payment must be proportionate 52 to the ratio which that owner's liability for common expenses bears to the 53 liabilities for common expenses of all owners whose units are subject to the lien.

1 After payment, the association may not assess or have a lien against that owner's 2 unit for any portion of the common expenses incurred in connection with that 3 lien.

4 4. A judgment against the association must be indexed in the name of the 5 condominium hotel and the association and, when so indexed, is notice of the 6 lien against the units.

7 Sec. 130. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the executive 8 board of an association shall, upon the written request of a unit's owner, make 9 available the books, records and other papers of the association for review during 10 the regular working hours of the association, including, without limitation, all 11 contracts to which the association is a party and all records filed with a court
12 relating to a civil or criminal action to which the association is a party. The 13 provisions of this subsection do not apply to:

14 (a) The personnel records of the employees of the association, except for 15 those records relating to the number of hours worked and the salaries and 16 benefits of those employees;

17 (b) The records of the association relating to another unit's owner, except for 18 those records described in subsection 2; and

19 (c) A contract between the association and an attorney.

20 2. The executive board of an association shall maintain a general record
21 concerning each violation of the governing documents, other than a violation 22 involving a failure to pay an assessment, for which the executive board has 23 imposed a fine, or any other sanction. The general record:

24 (a) Must contain a general description of the nature of the violation and the 25 type of the sanction imposed. If the sanction imposed was a fine, the general 26 record must specify the amount of the fine.

27 (b) Must not contain the name or address of the person against whom the 28 sanction was imposed or any other personal information which may be used to 29 identify the person or the location of the unit, if any, that is associated with the 30 violation.

31 (c) Must be maintained in an organized and convenient filing system or data
32 system that allows a unit's owner to search and review the general records 33 concerning violations of the governing documents.

34 3. If the executive board refuses to allow a unit's owner to review the books, 35 records or other papers of the association, the Ombudsman may:

36 (a) On behalf of the unit's owner and upon written request, review the books, 37 records or other papers of the association during the regular working hours of 38 the association; and

39 (b) If he is denied access to the books, records or other papers, request the 40 Commission, or any member thereof acting on behalf of the Commission, to issue 41 a subpoena for their production.

42 4. The books, records and other papers of an association must be 43 maintained for at least 10 years.

44 5. The executive board shall not require a unit's owner to pay an amount in 45 excess of $10 per hour to review any books, records, contracts or other papers of 46 the association pursuant to the provisions of this section.

47 Sec. 131. The hotel unit owner shall maintain financial books and records
48 showing its actual receipts and expenditures with respect to the repair, 49 replacement, improvement, maintenance, management, operation, tax obligations
50 and insurance of the shared components and the major components of the shared 51 components, including the budget for the current year, any proposed budget for 52 future years and the study of reserves for shared components required by section
53 117 of this act. These records may, but need not, be audited or reviewed by a certified public accountant. The hotel unit owner shall make these records available for inspection by any residential unit owner by prior appointment during reasonable business hours. These records must be retained for 3 years after the conclusion of each fiscal year.

Sec. 132. 1. The executive board of an association shall maintain and make available for review at the business office of the association or some other suitable location within the county where the condominium hotel is situated or, if it is situated in more than one county, within one of those counties:

(a) The financial statement of the association;

(b) The budgets of the association required to be prepared pursuant to section 114 of this act; and

(c) The study of the reserves of the association required to be conducted pursuant to section 117 of this act.

2. The executive board shall provide a copy of any of the records required to be maintained pursuant to subsection 1 to a unit's owner or the Ombudsman within 14 days after receiving a written request therefor. The executive board may charge a fee to cover the actual costs of preparing a copy, but not to exceed 25 cents per page.

Sec. 133. 1. The association shall keep financial records sufficiently detailed to enable the association to comply with all of the requirements of this chapter.

2. All financial and other records of the association must be:

(a) Maintained and made available for review at the business office of the association or some other suitable location within the county where the condominium hotel is situated or, if it is situated in more than one county, within one of those counties; and

(b) Made reasonably available for any unit's owner and his authorized agents to inspect, examine, photocopy and audit.

Sec. 134. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a member of an executive board, an officer of an association or a community manager shall not solicit or accept any form of compensation, gratuity or other remuneration that:

(a) Would improperly influence or would appear to a reasonable person to improperly influence the decisions made by those persons; or

(b) Would result or would appear to a reasonable person to result in a conflict of interest for those persons.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1, a member of an executive board, an officer of an association or a community manager shall not accept, directly or indirectly, any gifts, incentives, gratuities, rewards or other items of value from:

(a) An attorney, law firm or vendor, or any person working directly or indirectly for the attorney, law firm or vendor, which total more than the amount established by the Commission by regulation, not to exceed $100 per year per such attorney, law firm or vendor; or

(b) A declarant, an affiliate of a declarant or any person responsible for the construction of the applicable condominium hotel or association which total more than the amount established by the Commission by regulation, not to exceed $100 per year per such declarant, affiliate or person.

3. An attorney, law firm or vendor, or any person working directly or indirectly for the attorney, law firm or vendor, shall not provide, directly or indirectly, any gifts, incentives, gratuities, rewards or other items of value to a member of the executive board or an officer of the association, the community manager or any person working for the community manager which total more

1 than the amount established by the Commission by regulation, not to exceed $100
2 per year per such member, officer, community manager or person.

3 4. A declarant, an affiliate of a declarant or any person responsible for the 4 construction of a condominium hotel or association, shall not provide, directly or 5 indirectly, any gifts, incentives, gratuities, rewards or other items of value to a 6 member of the executive board or an officer of the association, the community
7 manager or any person working for the community manager which total more
8 than the amount established by the Commission by regulation, not to exceed $100
9 per year per such member, officer, community manager or person.

10 5. In addition to the limitations set forth in subsection 1, a community 11 manager shall not solicit or accept any form of compensation, fee or other 12 remuneration that is based, in whole or in part, on:

13 (a) The number or amount of fines imposed against or collected from units' 14 owners or tenants or guests of units' owners pursuant to this chapter for 15 violations of the governing documents of the association; or 16 (b) Any percentage or proportion of those fines.

17 6. The provisions of this section do not prohibit a community manager from 18 being paid compensation, a fee or other remuneration under the terms of a 19 contract between the community manager and an association if:

20 (a) The scope of the respective rights, duties and obligations of the parties
21 under the contract comply with the standards of practice for community
22 managers adopted by the Commission pursuant to NRS 116A.400;

23 (b) The compensation, fee or other remuneration is being paid to the 24 community manager for providing management of the association of the 25 condominium hotel; and

26 (c) The compensation, fee or other remuneration is not structured in a way 27 that would violate the provisions of subsection 1 or 5.

28 Sec. 135. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a member of an 29 executive board, an officer of an association or a community manager shall not:

30 (a) Enter into a contract or renew a contract with the association to provide 31 goods or services to the association; or

32 (b) Otherwise accept any commission, personal profit or compensation of 33 any kind from the association for providing goods or services to the association.

34 2. The provisions of this section do not prohibit a declarant, an affiliate of a 35 declarant or an officer, employee or agent of a declarant or an affiliate of a 36 declarant from:

37 (a) Receiving any commission, personal profit or compensation from the 38 association, the declarant or an affiliate of the declarant for any goods or services
39 furnished to the association;

40 (b) Entering into contracts with the association, the declarant or affiliate of 41 the declarant; or

42 (c) Serving as a member of the executive board or as an officer of the 43 association.

44 Sec. 136. With respect to a third person dealing with the association in the 45 association's capacity as a trustee, the existence of trust powers and their proper 46 exercise by the association may be assumed without inquiry. A third person is not 47 bound to inquire whether the association has power to act as trustee or is 48 properly exercising trust powers. A third person, without actual knowledge that 49 the association is exceeding or improperly exercising its powers, is fully protected 50 in dealing with the association as if it possessed and properly exercised the 51 powers it purports to exercise. A third person is not bound to assure the proper 52 application of trust assets paid or delivered to the association in its capacity as 53 trustee.

1 Sec. 137. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the executive 2 board of an association shall not and the governing documents of that 3 association must not prohibit a unit's owner from engaging in the display of the 4 flag of the United States within such physical portion of the condominium hotel
5 as that owner has a right to occupy and use exclusively.

6 2. The provisions of this section do not:

7 (a) Apply to the display of the flag of the United States for commercial 8 advertising purposes.

9 (b) Preclude the hotel unit owner or an association from adopting, and do
10 not preclude the governing documents of an association from setting forth, rules 11 that reasonably restrict the placement and manner of the display of the flag of the 12 United States by a unit's owner.

13 (c) Preclude the hotel unit owner or an association from adopting, and do 14 not preclude the declaration of the governing documents of an association from 15 setting forth, rules restricting or prohibiting the placement by any person of other 16 signs, symbols or flags within any portion of the condominium hotel.

17 3. In any action commenced to enforce the provisions of this section, the 18 prevailing party is entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

19 4. As used in this section, "display of the flag of the United States" means a 20 flag of the United States that is:

21 (a) Made of cloth, fabric or paper;

22 (b) Displayed from a pole or staff or in a window; and 23 (c) Displayed in a manner that is consistent with 4 U.S.C. Chapter 1.

24 ↪ The term does not include a depiction or emblem of the flag of the United 25 States that is made of balloons, flora, lights, paint, paving materials, roofing, 26 siding or any other similar building, decorative or landscaping component.

27 Sec. 138. 1. The executive board shall not and the governing documents
28 must not prohibit a unit's owner or an occupant of a unit from exhibiting a 29 political sign within such physical portion of the condominium hotel as that 30 owner or occupant has a right to occupy and use exclusively if the political sign is 31 not larger than 24 inches by 36 inches.

32 2. The provisions of this section establish the minimum rights of a unit's 33 owner or an occupant of a unit to exhibit a political sign. The provisions of this 34 section do not preempt any provisions of the governing documents that provide 35 greater rights and do not require the governing documents or the executive board 36 to impose any restrictions on the exhibition of political signs other than those 37 established by other provisions of law.

38 3. As used in this section, "political sign" means a sign that expresses 39 support for or opposition to a candidate, political party or ballot question.

40 Sec. 139. 1. Except as otherwise provided in the declaration, an 41 association may not require a unit's owner to secure or obtain any approval from 42 the association in order to rent or lease his unit.

43 2. The provisions of this section do not prohibit an association from 44 enforcing any provisions which govern the renting or leasing of units and which 45 are contained in this chapter or in any other applicable federal, state or local 46 laws or regulations.

47 Sec. 140. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, sections 140 to 48 152, inclusive, of this act apply to all condominium hotels.

49 2. Neither a public offering statement nor a certificate of resale need be 50 prepared or delivered in the case of a:

51 (a) Gratuitous disposition of a unit;

52 (b) Disposition pursuant to court order;

53 (c) Disposition by a government or governmental agency;

1 (d) Disposition by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure;

2 (e) Disposition to a dealer;

3 (f) Disposition that may be cancelled at any time and for any reason by the 4 purchaser without penalty; or

5 (g) Disposition of a unit not used for residential use.

6 Sec. 141. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a declarant,
7 before offering any interest in a unit to the public, shall prepare a public offering 8 statement conforming to the requirements of sections 142, 143 and 144 of this 9 act.

10 2. A declarant may transfer responsibility for the preparation of all or a 11 part of the public offering statement to a successor declarant, the hotel unit 12 owner or to a dealer who intends to offer units in the condominium hotel. In the 13 event of any such transfer, the transferor shall provide the transferee with any 14 information necessary to enable the transferee to fulfill the requirements of 15 subsection 1.

16 3. Any declarant or dealer who offers a unit to a purchaser shall deliver a 17 public offering statement in the manner prescribed in section 146 of this act. The 18 declarant or his transferee is liable for any false or misleading statement set forth 19 therein or for any omission of a material fact therefrom with respect to that 20 portion of the public offering statement which he prepared. If a declarant or 21 dealer did not prepare any part of a public offering statement that he delivers, he 22 is not liable for any false or misleading statement set forth therein or for any 23 omission of a material fact therefrom unless he had actual knowledge of the 24 statement or omission or, in the exercise of reasonable care, should have known 25 of the statement or omission.

26 4. If a unit is part of a condominium hotel and is part of any other real 27 estate in connection with the sale of which the delivery of a public offering 28 statement is required under the laws of this State, a single public offering 29 statement conforming to the requirements of this chapter, as those requirements
30 relate to the real estate in which the unit is located, and to any other requirements
31 imposed under the laws of this State, may be prepared and delivered in lieu of 32 providing two or more public offering statements. If the requirements of this 33 chapter conflict with those of another law of this State, the requirements of this 34 chapter prevail.

35 Sec. 142. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a public 36 offering statement must set forth or fully and accurately disclose each of the 37 following:

38 (a) The name and principal address of the declarant and of the 39 condominium hotel.

40 (b) A general description of the condominium hotel, including to the extent 41 possible, the types, number and declarant's schedule of commencement and 42 completion of construction of buildings, and amenities that the declarant 43 anticipates including in the condominium hotel.

44 (c) The estimated number of units in the condominium hotel.

45 (d) Copies of the declaration, bylaws, and any rules or regulations of the 46 association, but a plat or plan is not required.

47 (e) A current year-to-date financial statement, including the most recent 48 audited or reviewed financial statement, and the projected budget for the 49 association, either within or as an exhibit to the public offering statement, for 1 50 year after the date of the first conveyance to a purchaser, and thereafter the 51 current budget of the association. The budget must include, without limitation:

52 (1) A statement of the amount included in the budget as reserves for 53 repairs, replacement and restoration pursuant to this chapter; and

(2) The projected monthly assessment for common expenses for each type of unit, including the amount established as reserves pursuant to this chapter.

(f) The projected budget for the shared expenses, either within or as an exhibit to the public offering statement. The budget must include, without limitation:

(1) A statement of the amount included in the budget as reserves for repairs, replacement and restoration pursuant to this chapter;

(2) The projected monthly shared expenses for each type of unit, including the amount established as reserves pursuant to this chapter; and

(3) A description of any other payments, fees and charges that may be charged by the hotel unit owner in order to offset the increased burden placed on the shared components due to use of residential units as transient rentals.

(g) After the date of the first conveyance of a residential unit to a purchaser, a current year-to-date statement of the shared expenses charged to the units.

(h) A description of any services or subsidies being provided by the declarant or an affiliate of the declarant not reflected in the budget.

(i) Any initial or special fee due from the purchaser at closing, together with a description of the purpose and method of calculating the fee.

(j) The terms and significant limitations of any warranties provided by the declarant, including statutory warranties and limitations on the enforcement thereof or on damages.

(k) A statement that unless the purchaser or his agent has personally inspected the unit, the purchaser may cancel, by written notice, his contract for purchase until midnight of the fifth calendar day following the date of execution of the contract, and the contract must contain a provision to that effect.

(l) A statement of any unsatisfied judgments or pending suits against the association, and the status of any pending suits material to the condominium hotel of which a declarant has actual knowledge.

(m) Any current or expected fees or charges to be paid by residential unit owners for the use of the shared components or the common elements and other facilities related to the condominium hotel.

(n) The information statements required by this chapter.

2. A declarant is not required to revise a public offering statement more than once each calendar quarter, if the following warning is given prominence in the statement: "THIS PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT IS CURRENT AS OF (insert a specified date). RECENT DEVELOPMENTS REGARDING (here refer to particular provisions of sections 142 and 143 of this act) MAY NOT BE REFLECTED IN THIS STATEMENT."

Sec. 143. If the declaration provides that a condominium hotel is subject to any developmental rights, the public offering statement must disclose, in addition to the information required by section 142 of this act:

1. The maximum number of units that may be created;

2. A statement of how many or what percentage of the units that may be created will be restricted exclusively to residential use, or a statement that no representations are made regarding restrictions of use;

3. A statement of the extent to which any buildings or other improvements that may be erected pursuant to any developmental right in any part of the condominium hotel will be compatible with existing buildings and improvements in the condominium hotel in terms of architectural style, quality of construction, and size, or a statement that no assurances are made in those regards;

4. General descriptions of all other improvements that may be made and limited common elements that may be created within any part of the condominium hotel pursuant to any developmental right reserved by the declarant, or a statement that no assurances are made in that regard;

5. A statement of any limitations as to the locations of any building or other improvement that may be constructed or made within any part of the condominium hotel pursuant to any developmental right reserved by the declarant, or a statement that no assurances are made in that regard;

6. A statement that any limited common elements created pursuant to any developmental right reserved by the declarant will be of the same general types and sizes as the limited common elements within other parts of the condominium hotel, or a statement of the types and sizes planned, or a statement that no assurances are made in that regard;

7. A statement that the proportion of limited common elements to units created pursuant to any developmental right reserved by the declarant will be approximately equal to the proportion existing within other parts of the condominium hotel, or a statement of any other assurances in that regard, or a statement that no assurances are made in that regard;

8. A statement that all restrictions in the declaration affecting use, occupancy and alienation of units will apply to any units created pursuant to any developmental right reserved by the declarant, or a statement of any differentiations that may be made as to those units, or a statement that no assurances are made in that regard; and

9. A statement of the extent to which any assurances made pursuant to this section apply or do not apply if any developmental right is not exercised by the declarant.

Sec. 144. The public offering statement of a condominium hotel involving a converted building must contain, in addition to the information required pursuant to section 143 of this act:

1. A statement by the declarant, based on a report prepared by an independent registered architect or licensed professional engineer, describing the present condition of all structural components and mechanical and electrical installations material to the use and enjoyment of the building.

2. A list of any outstanding notices of uncured violations of applicable building codes or other municipal regulations, in addition to the estimated cost of curing such violations.

3. The budget to maintain the reserves required pursuant to subsection 2 of section 114 of this act and subsection 1 of section 115 of this act, which must include, without limitation:

(a) The current estimated replacement cost, estimated remaining life and estimated useful life of each major component of the shared components and major components of the common elements, if any.

(b) As of the end of the fiscal year for which the budget was prepared, the current estimate of the amount of cash reserves that are necessary to repair, replace and restore the major components of the shared components and major components of the common elements, if any, and the current amount of accumulated cash reserves that are set aside for such repairs, replacements and restorations.

(c) A statement as to whether the declarant has determined or anticipates that the levy of one or more special shared expense charges or special assessments, as applicable, will be required within the next 10 years to repair, replace and restore any major component of the shared components and major components of the common elements, if any, or to provide adequate reserves for that purpose.

(d) A general statement describing the procedures used for the estimation and accumulation of cash reserves described in paragraph (b), including, without limitation, the qualifications of the person responsible for the preparation of the study of reserves required pursuant to sections 117 and 118 of this act.

(e) The funding plan that is designed to allocate the costs for the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the shared components and major components of the common elements, if any, over a period of years.

Sec. 145. If an interest in a condominium hotel is currently registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission of the United States or with the State of Nevada pursuant to chapter 119, 119A or 119B of NRS, a declarant satisfies all requirements of this chapter relating to the preparation of a public offering statement if he delivers to the purchaser a copy of the public offering statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission or the appropriate Nevada regulatory authority. An interest in a condominium hotel is not a security under the provisions of chapter 90 of NRS.

Sec. 146. 1. A person required to deliver a public offering statement pursuant to subsection 3 of section 141 of this act shall provide a purchaser with a copy of the current public offering statement not later than the date on which an offer to purchase becomes binding on the purchaser. Unless the purchaser has personally inspected the unit, the purchaser may cancel, by written notice, the contract of purchase until midnight of the fifth calendar day following the date of execution of the contract, and the contract for purchase must contain a provision to that effect.

2. If a purchaser elects to cancel a contract pursuant to subsection 1, he may do so by hand delivering notice thereof to the offeror or by mailing notice thereof by prepaid United States mail to the offeror or to his agent for service of process. Cancellation is without penalty, and all payments made by the purchaser before cancellation must be refunded promptly.

3. If a person required to deliver a public offering statement pursuant to subsection 3 of section 141 of this act fails to provide a purchaser to whom a unit is conveyed with a current public offering statement, the purchaser is entitled to actual damages, rescission or other relief, but if the purchaser has accepted a conveyance of the unit, he is not entitled to rescission.

Sec. 147. 1. Except in the case of a sale in which delivery of a public offering statement is required, a unit's owner or his authorized agent shall furnish to a purchaser a resale package containing all of the following:

(a) A copy of the declaration, other than any plats and plans, the bylaws, the rules or regulations of the association and the information statement required by section 148 of this act;

(b) A statement setting forth the amount of the monthly assessment for common expenses and any unpaid assessment of any kind currently due from the selling unit's owner;

(c) A copy of the current operating budget of the association and current year-to-date financial statement for the association, which must include a summary of the reserves of the association required by this chapter;

(d) A current year-to-date statement of the shared expenses charged to the units and the projected budget for the shared expenses, either within or as an exhibit to the public offering statement. The budget must include, without limitation:

(1) A statement of the amount included in the budget as reserves for repairs, replacement and restoration pursuant to this chapter;

(2) The projected monthly shared expenses for each type of unit, including the amount established as reserves pursuant to this chapter;

1 (e) A description of any other payments, fees and charges that may be 2 charged by the hotel unit owner in order to offset the increased burden placed on 3 the shared components as a result of use of residential units as transient rentals;
4 and

5 (f) A statement of any unsatisfied judgments or pending legal actions against 6 the association and the status of any pending legal actions relating to the 7 condominium hotel of which the unit's owner has actual knowledge.

8 2. The purchaser may, by written notice, cancel the contract of purchase 9 until midnight of the fifth calendar day following the date of receipt of the resale
10 package described in subsection 1, and the contract for purchase must contain a 11 provision to that effect. If the purchaser elects to cancel a contract pursuant to 12 this subsection, he must hand deliver the notice of cancellation to the residential 13 unit owner or his authorized agent or mail the notice of cancellation by prepaid
14 United States mail to the residential unit owner or his authorized agent.
15 Cancellation is without penalty, and all payments made by the purchaser before
16 cancellation must be refunded promptly. If the purchaser has accepted a 17 conveyance of the residential unit, the purchaser is not entitled to:

18 (a) Cancel the contract pursuant to this subsection; or

19 (b) Damages, rescission or other relief based solely on the ground that the 20 residential unit owner or his authorized agent failed to furnish the resale
21 package, or any portion thereof, as required by this section.

22 3. Within 10 days after receipt of a written request by a residential unit 23 owner or his authorized agent, the hotel unit owner shall furnish all of the 24 following to the residential unit owner or his authorized agent for inclusion in 25 the resale package:

26 (a) Copies of the documents required pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (c) of 27 subsection 1; and

28 (b) A certificate containing the information necessary to enable the 29 residential unit owner to comply with paragraphs (b) and (d) of subsection 1.

30 4. If the hotel unit owner furnishes the documents and certificate pursuant 31 to subsection 3:

32 (a) The residential unit owner or his authorized agent shall include the 33 documents and certificate in the resale package provided to the purchaser, and 34 neither the residential unit owner nor his authorized agent is liable to the 35 purchaser for any erroneous information provided by the hotel unit owner and 36 included in the documents and certificate.

37 (b) The hotel unit owner may charge the residential unit owner a reasonable 38 fee to cover the cost of preparing the certificate furnished pursuant to subsection 39 3. Such a fee must be based on the actual cost the association incurs to fulfill the 40 requirements of this section in preparing the certificate. The Commission shall 41 adopt regulations establishing the maximum amount of the fee that an 42 association may charge for preparing the certificate.

43 (c) The hotel unit owner may charge the residential unit owner a reasonable 44 fee, not to exceed 25 cents per page, to cover the cost of copying the other 45 documents furnished pursuant to subsection 3.

46 (d) Except for the fees allowed pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c), the hotel 47 unit owner may not charge the residential unit owner any other fees for 48 preparing or furnishing the documents and certificate pursuant to subsection 3.

49 5. Neither a purchaser nor the purchaser's interest in a residential unit is 50 liable for any unpaid assessment or fee greater than the amount set forth in the 51 documents and certificate prepared by the hotel unit owner. If the hotel unit 52 owner fails to furnish the documents and certificate within the 10 days allowed by 53 this section, the seller is not liable for the delinquent assessment.

6. Upon the request of a residential unit owner or his authorized agent, or upon the request of a purchaser to whom the hotel unit owner has provided a resale package pursuant to this section or his authorized agent, the association shall make the entire study of the reserves of the association or the shared components reasonably available for the residential unit owner, purchaser or authorized agent to inspect, examine, photocopy and audit. The study must be made available at the business office of the association or the hotel unit owner or some other suitable location within the county where the condominium hotel is situated or, if it is situated in more than one county, within one of those counties.

Sec. 148. The information statement required by sections 142 and 147 of this act must be in substantially the following form:

BEFORE YOU PURCHASE PROPERTY IN A
DID YOU KNOW ...

1. YOU GENERALLY HAVE 5 DAYS TO CANCEL THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT?

When you enter into a purchase agreement to buy a home or unit in a condominium hotel, in most cases you should receive either a public offering statement, if you are the original purchaser of the home or unit, or a resale package, if you are not the original purchaser. The law generally provides for a 5-day period in which you have the right to cancel the purchase agreement. The 5-day period begins on different starting dates, depending on whether you receive a public offering statement or a resale package. Upon receiving a public offering statement or a resale package, you should make sure you are informed of the deadline for exercising your right to cancel. In order to exercise your right to cancel, the law generally requires that you hand deliver the notice of cancellation to the seller within the 5-day period, or mail the notice of cancellation to the seller by prepaid United States mail within the 5-day period. For more information regarding your right to cancel, see section 146 of this act, if you received a public offering statement, or section 147 of this act if you received a resale package.

2. YOU ARE AGREEING TO RESTRICTIONS ON HOW YOU CAN USE YOUR PROPERTY?

These restrictions are contained in a document known as the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions. The CC&Rs become a part of the title to your property. They bind you and every future owner of the property whether or not you have read them or had them explained to you. The CC&Rs, together with other "governing documents" (such as association bylaws and rules and regulations), are intended to preserve the character and value of properties in the condominium hotel, but may also restrict what you can do to improve or change your property and limit how you use and enjoy your property. By purchasing a property encumbered by CC&Rs, you are agreeing to limitations that could affect your lifestyle and freedom of choice. You should review the CC&Rs, and other governing documents before purchasing to make sure that these limitations and controls are acceptable to you.

3. YOU WILL HAVE TO PAY OWNERS' ASSESSMENTS AND CHARGES FOR AS LONG AS YOU OWN YOUR PROPERTY?

As an owner in a condominium hotel, you are responsible for paying your share of expenses relating to the common elements and shared components. The obligation to pay these expenses binds you and every future owner of the property. Owners' fees are usually assessed for these expenses monthly. You have to pay dues whether or not you agree with the way the association or the hotel

1 unit owner is managing the property or spending the assessments or charges. The 2 hotel unit owner executive board of the association may have the power to 3 change and increase the amount of the assessment or charges and to levy special
4 assessments or special charges against your property to meet extraordinary
5 expenses.

6 4. IF YOU FAIL TO PAY OWNERS' ASSESSMENTS OR CHARGES, 7 YOU COULD LOSE YOUR HOME?

8 If you do not pay these assessments or charges when due, the hotel unit owner or 9 the association usually has the power to collect them by selling your property in a
10 nonjudicial foreclosure sale. If fees become delinquent, you may also be required 11 to pay penalties and the association's or hotel unit owner's costs, as applicable, 12 and attorney's fees to become current. If you dispute the obligation or its amount,
13 your only remedy to avoid the loss of your home may be to file a lawsuit and ask a 14 court to intervene in the dispute.

15 5. YOU MAY BECOME A MEMBER OF A HOMEOWNERS' 16 ASSOCIATION THAT HAS THE POWER TO AFFECT HOW YOU USE AND 17 ENJOY YOUR PROPERTY?

18 Many condominium hotels have a homeowners' association. In a new 19 development, the association will usually be controlled by the developer until a 20 certain number of units have been sold. After the period of developer control, the 21 association may be controlled by property owners like yourself who are elected by 22 homeowners to sit on an executive board and other boards and committees
23 formed by the association. The association, and its executive board, are 24 responsible for assessing homeowners for the cost of operating the association
25 and the common elements of the condominium hotel. Because homeowners
26 sitting on the executive board and other boards and committees of the association
27 may not have the experience or professional background required to understand 28 and carry out the responsibilities of the association properly, the association may 29 hire professional condominium association managers to carry out these 30 responsibilities.

31 Homeowners' associations operate on democratic principles. Some decisions 32 require all homeowners to vote, some decisions are made by the executive board 33 or other boards or committees established by the association or governing 34 documents. Although the actions of the association and its executive board are 35 governed by state laws, the CC&Rs and other documents that govern the 36 condominium hotel, decisions made by these persons will affect your use and 37 enjoyment of your property, your lifestyle and freedom of choice, and your cost of 38 living in the condominium hotel. You may not agree with decisions made by the 39 association or its governing bodies even though the decisions are ones which the 40 association is authorized to make. Decisions may be made by a few persons on 41 the executive board or governing bodies that do not necessarily reflect the view of 42 the majority of residential unit in the condominium hotel. If you do not agree 43 with decisions made by the association, its executive board or other governing 44 bodies, your remedy is typically to attempt to use the democratic processes of the 45 association to seek the election of members of the executive board or other 46 governing bodies that are more responsive to your needs. If you have a dispute 47 with the association, its executive board or other governing bodies, you may be 48 able to resolve the dispute through the complaint, investigation and intervention
49 process administered by the Office of the Ombudsman for Owners in Common-
50 Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, the Nevada Real Estate Division
51 and the Commission for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium
52 Hotels. However, to resolve some disputes, you may have to mediate or arbitrate 53 the dispute and, if mediation or arbitration is unsuccessful, you may have to file a lawsuit and ask a court to resolve the dispute. In addition to your personal cost in mediation or arbitration, or to prosecute a lawsuit, you may be responsible for paying your share of the association's cost in defending against your claim.

The law requires you to provide a prospective purchaser of your property with a copy of the condominium hotel's governing documents, including the CC&Rs, association bylaws, and rules and regulations, as well as a copy of this document. You are also required to provide a copy of the association's current year-to-date financial statement, including, without limitation, the most recent audited or reviewed financial statement, a copy of the association's operating budget and information regarding the amount of the monthly assessment for common expenses, including the amount set aside as reserves for the repair, replacement and restoration of common elements. You are also required to provide a copy of the current year-to-date statement of the shared expenses charged to your unit by the declarant or hotel unit owner, as applicable. You are also required to inform prospective purchasers of any outstanding judgments or lawsuits pending against the association of which you are aware. For more information regarding these requirements, see sections 140 to 152, inclusive, of this act.

7. YOU HAVE CERTAIN RIGHTS REGARDING OWNERSHIP IN A CONDOMINIUM HOTEL THAT ARE GUARANTEED YOU BY THE STATE?
Pursuant to provisions of this chapter, you have the right:

(a) To be notified of all meetings of the association and its executive board, except in cases of emergency.

(b) To attend and speak at all meetings of the association and its executive board, except in some cases where the executive board is authorized to meet in closed, executive session.

(c) To request a special meeting of the association.

(d) To inspect, examine, photocopy and audit financial and other records of the association.

(e) To be notified of all changes in the condominium hotel's rules and regulations and other actions by the association or board that affect you.

8. QUESTIONS?

Although they may be voluminous, you should take the time to read and understand the documents that will control your ownership of a property in a condominium hotel. You may wish to ask your real estate professional, lawyer or other person with experience to explain anything you do not understand. You may also request assistance from the Office of the Ombudsman for Owners in Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, Nevada Real Estate Division, at (telephone number).

Sec. 149. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2 and 3, a deposit made in connection with the purchase or reservation of a unit from a person required to deliver a public offering statement pursuant to subsection 3 of section 141 of this act must be placed in escrow and held either in this State or in the state where the unit is located in an account designated solely for that purpose by a licensed title insurance company, an independent bonded escrow company, or an institution whose accounts are insured by a governmental agency or instrumentality until:

(a) Delivered to the declarant at closing;

(b) Delivered to the declarant because of the purchaser's default under a contract to purchase the unit;

(c) Released to the declarant for an additional item, improvement, optional item or alteration, but the amount so released:

(1) Must not exceed the lesser of the amount due the declarant from the purchaser at the time of the release or the amount expended by the declarant for the purpose; and

(2) Must be credited upon the purchase price; or

(d) Refunded to the purchaser.

2. A deposit or advance payment made for an additional item, improvement, optional item or alteration may be deposited in escrow or delivered directly to the declarant, as the parties may contract.

3. In lieu of placing a deposit in escrow pursuant to subsection 1, the declarant may furnish a bond executed by him as principal and by a corporation qualified under the laws of this State as surety, payable to the State of Nevada, and conditioned upon the performance of the declarant's duties concerning the purchase or reservation of a unit. Each bond must be in a principal sum equal to the amount of the deposit. The bond must be held until:

(a) Delivered to the declarant at closing;

(b) Delivered to the declarant because of the purchaser's default under a contract to purchase the unit; or

(c) Released to the declarant for an additional item, improvement, optional item or alteration, but the amount so released must not exceed the amount due the declarant from the purchaser at the time of the release or the amount expended by the declarant for that purpose, whichever is less.

Sec. 150. 1. In the case of a sale of a unit where delivery of a public offering statement is required pursuant to subsection 3 of section 141 of this act, a seller:

(a) Before conveying a unit, shall record or furnish to the purchaser releases of all liens, except liens on real estate that a declarant has the right to withdraw from the condominium hotel, that the purchaser does not expressly agree to take subject to or assume and that encumber that unit and its interest in the common elements; or

(b) Shall provide a surety bond against the lien as provided for liens on real estate in NRS 108.2413 to 108.2425, inclusive.

2. Before conveying real estate to the association, the declarant shall have that real estate released from:

(a) All liens the foreclosure of which would deprive unit owners of any right of access to or easement of support of their units; and

(b) All other liens on that real estate unless the public offering statement describes certain real estate that may be conveyed subject to liens in specified amounts.

Sec. 151. Implied warranties of quality:

1. May be excluded or modified by agreement of the parties; and

2. Are excluded by expression of disclaimer, such as "as is," "with all faults," or other language that in common understanding calls the purchaser's attention to the exclusion of warranties.

Sec. 152. In the case of a sale of a unit in which delivery of a public offering statement is required, a contract of sale may be executed, but no interest in that unit may be conveyed, until the declaration is recorded and the unit is substantially completed, in accordance with local ordinances.

42 Sec. 163. The Commission may:

43 1. By regulation, establish standards for subsidizing proceedings for 44 mediation and arbitration conducted pursuant to NRS 38.300 to 38.360, 45 inclusive, to ensure that such proceedings are not lengthy and are affordable and 47 2. By regulation, establish standards for subsidizing educational programs

49 associations;

50 3. Accept any gifts, grants or donations; and

51 4. Enter into agreements with other entities that are required or authorized
52 to carry out similar duties in this State or in other jurisdictions and cooperate
53 with such entities to develop uniform procedures for carrying out the provisions

1 of this chapter and for accumulating information needed to carry out those 2 provisions.

3 Sec. 164. 1. The Commission may appoint one or more hearing panels.
4 Each hearing panel must consist of one or more independent hearing officers.

14 date that the final order is issued by the hearing panel, any party aggrieved by the 15 final order files a written notice of appeal with the Commission.

16 (b) Must be reviewed and approved by the Commission if, not later than 40 17 days after the date that the final order is issued by the hearing panel, the 18 Division, upon the direction of the Chairman of the Commission, provides written 19 notice to all parties of the intention of the Commission to review the final order.

20 Sec. 165. The Commission or a hearing panel may conduct a hearing by 21 means of an audio or video teleconference to one or more locations if the audio 22 or video technology used at the hearing provides the persons present at each 23 location with the ability to hear and communicate with the persons present at 24 each other location.

25 Sec. 166. As used in sections 167 to 177, inclusive, of this act, unless the 26 context otherwise requires, "violation" means a violation of any provision of this 27 chapter, any regulation adopted pursuant thereto or any order of the Commission 28 or a hearing panel.

29 Sec. 167. 1. In carrying out the provisions of sections 167 to 177, 30 inclusive, of this act, the Division and the Ombudsman have jurisdiction to 31 investigate and the Commission and each hearing panel has jurisdiction to take

37 (d) Any unit's owner.

38 (e) Any tenant of a unit's owner if the tenant has entered into an agreement 39 with the unit's owner to abide by the governing documents of the association and 40 the provisions of this chapter and any regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

41 2. The jurisdiction set forth in subsection 1 applies to any officer, employee
42 or agent of an association or any member of an executive board who commits a 43 violation and who:

44 (a) Currently holds his office, employment, agency or position or who held 45 his office, employment, agency or position at the commencement of proceedings 46 against him.

47 (b) Resigns his office, employment, agency or position:

48 (1) After the commencement of proceedings against him; or

49 (2) Within 1 year after the violation is discovered or reasonably should 50 have been discovered.

51 Sec. 168. 1. The rights, remedies and penalties provided by sections 166 52 to 177, inclusive, of this act are cumulative and do not abrogate and are in

1 addition to any other rights, remedies and penalties that may exist at law or in 2 equity.

3 2. If the Commission, a hearing panel or another agency or officer elects to 4 take a particular action or pursue a particular remedy or penalty authorized by 5 sections 166 to 177, inclusive, of this act, or another specific statute, that election
6 is not exclusive and does not preclude the Commission, the hearing panel or 7 another agency or officer from taking any other actions or pursuing any other 8 remedies or penalties authorized by sections 166 to 167, inclusive, of this act, or 9 another specific statute.

10 3. In carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the Commission or a 11 hearing panel shall not intervene in any internal activities of an association 12 except to the extent necessary to prevent or remedy a violation.

13 Sec. 169. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a written 14 affidavit filed with the Division pursuant to this chapter, all documents and other 15 information filed with the written affidavit and all documents and other 16 information compiled as a result of an investigation conducted to determine 17 whether to file a formal complaint with the Commission are confidential.

18 2. A formal complaint filed with the Commission and all documents and 19 other information considered by the Commission or a hearing panel when 20 determining whether to impose discipline or take other administrative action 21 pursuant to sections 166 to 177, inclusive, of this act are public records.

22 Sec. 170. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person who is 23 aggrieved by an alleged violation may, not later than 1 year after the person 24 discovers or reasonably should have discovered the alleged violation, file with the 25 Division a written affidavit that sets forth the facts constituting the alleged 26 violation. The affidavit may allege any actual damages suffered by the aggrieved 27 person as a result of the alleged violation.

28 2. An aggrieved person may not file such an affidavit unless the aggrieved
29 person has provided the respondent by certified mail, return receipt requested, 30 with written notice of the alleged violation set forth in the affidavit. The notice 31 must:

32 (a) Be mailed to the respondent's last known address.

33 (b) Specify, in reasonable detail, the alleged violation, any actual damages 34 suffered by the aggrieved person as a result of the alleged violation, and any 35 corrective action proposed by the aggrieved person.

36 3. A written affidavit filed with the Division pursuant to this section must 37 be:

38 (a) On a form prescribed by the Division.

39 (b) Be accompanied by evidence that:

41 receiving the written notice to correct the alleged violation; and 42 (2) Reasonable efforts to resolve the alleged violation have failed.

43 4. The Commission or a hearing panel may impose an administrative fine 44 of not more than $1,000 against any person who knowingly files a false or 45 fraudulent affidavit with the Division.

46 Sec. 171. 1. Upon receipt of an affidavit that complies with the provisions
47 of section 170 of this act, the Division shall refer the affidavit to the Ombudsman.

48 2. The Ombudsman shall give such guidance to the parties as the 49 Ombudsman deems necessary to assist the parties to resolve the alleged violation.

50 3. If the parties are unable to resolve the alleged violation with the 51 assistance of the Ombudsman, the Ombudsman shall provide to the Division a 52 report concerning the alleged violation and any information collected by the

Ombudsman during his efforts to assist the parties to resolve the alleged violation.

4. Upon receipt of the report from the Ombudsman, the Division shall conduct an investigation to determine whether good cause exists to proceed with a hearing on the alleged violation.

5. If, after investigating the alleged violation, the Division determines that the allegations in the affidavit are not frivolous, false or fraudulent and that good cause exists to proceed with a hearing on the alleged violation, the Administrator shall file a formal complaint with the Commission and schedule a hearing on the complaint before the Commission or a hearing panel.

Sec. 172. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, if the Administrator files a formal complaint with the Commission, the Commission or a hearing panel shall hold a hearing on the complaint not later than 90 days after the date that the complaint is filed.

2. The Commission or the hearing panel may continue the hearing upon its own motion or upon the written request of a party to the complaint, for good cause shown, including, without limitation, the existence of proceedings for mediation or arbitration or a civil action involving the facts that constitute the basis of the complaint.

3. The Division shall give the respondent written notice of the date, time and place of the hearing on the complaint at least 30 days before the date of the hearing. The notice must be:

(a) Delivered personally to the respondent or mailed to the respondent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to his last known address.

(b) Accompanied by:

(1) A copy of the complaint; and

(2) Copies of all communications, reports, affidavits and depositions in the possession of the Division that are relevant to the complaint.

4. At any hearing on the complaint, the Division may not present evidence that was obtained after the notice was given to the respondent pursuant to this section, unless the Division proves to the satisfaction of the Commission or the hearing panel that:

(a) The evidence was not available, after diligent investigation by the Division, before such notice was given to the respondent; and

(b) The evidence was given or communicated to the respondent immediately after it was obtained by the Division.

5. The respondent must file an answer not later than 30 days after the date that notice of the complaint is delivered or mailed by the Division. The answer must:

(a) Contain an admission or a denial of the allegations contained in the complaint and any defenses upon which the respondent will rely; and

(b) Be delivered personally to the Division or mailed to the Division by certified mail, return receipt requested.

6. If the respondent does not file an answer within the time required by subsection 5, the Division may, after giving the respondent written notice of the default, request the Commission or the hearing panel to enter a finding of default against the respondent. The notice of the default must be delivered personally to the respondent or mailed to the respondent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to his last known address.

Sec. 173. Any party to the complaint may be represented by an attorney at any hearing on the complaint.

1 Sec. 174. 1. After conducting its hearings on the complaint, the 2 Commission or the hearing panel shall render a final decision on the merits of 3 the complaint not later than 20 days after the date of the final hearing.

4 2. The Commission or the hearing panel shall notify all parties to the 5 complaint of its decision in writing by certified mail, return receipt requested, not 6 later than 60 days after the date of the final hearing. The written decision must 7 include findings of fact and conclusions of law.

8 Sec. 175. 1. If the Commission or the hearing panel, after notice and 9 hearing, finds that the respondent has committed a violation, the Commission or 10 the hearing panel may take any or all of the following actions:

11 (a) Issue an order directing the respondent to cease and desist from 12 continuing to engage in the unlawful conduct that resulted in the violation.

13 (b) Issue an order directing the respondent to take affirmative action to 14 correct any conditions resulting from the violation.

15 (c) Impose an administrative fine of not more than $1,000 for each violation.

16 2. If the respondent is a member of an executive board or an officer of an 17 association, the Commission or the hearing panel may order the respondent
18 removed from his office or position if the Commission or the hearing panel, after 19 notice and hearing, finds that:

20 (a) The respondent has knowingly and willfully committed a violation; and 21 (b) The removal is in the best interest of the association.

22 3. If the respondent violates any order issued by the Commission or the 23 hearing panel pursuant to this section, the Commission or the hearing panel, 24 after notice and hearing, may impose an administrative fine of not more than 25 $1,000 for each violation.

26 4. If the Commission or the hearing panel takes any disciplinary action 27 pursuant to this section, the Commission or the hearing panel may order the 28 respondent to pay the costs of the proceedings incurred by the Division, 29 including, without limitation, the cost of the investigation and reasonable 30 attorney's fees.

31 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, unless the 32 respondent has knowingly and willfully committed a violation, if the respondent
33 is a member of an executive board or an officer of an association:

34 (a) The association is liable for all fines and costs imposed against the 35 respondent pursuant to this section; and

36 (b) The respondent may not be held personally liable for those fines and 37 costs.

38 Sec. 176. 1. If the Commission or a hearing panel, after notice and 39 hearing, finds that the executive board or any person acting on behalf of the 40 association has committed a violation, the Commission or the hearing panel may 41 order an audit of the association.

42 2. The Commission, or the Division with the approval of the Commission, 43 may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver
44 for an association if, after notice and a hearing, the Commission or a hearing

49 misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance; or

50 (c) The assets of the association are in danger of waste or loss through 51 attachment, foreclosure, litigation or otherwise.

52 3. In any application for the appointment of a receiver pursuant to this 53 section, notice of a temporary appointment of a receiver may be given to the

1 association alone, by process as in the case of an application for a temporary
2 restraining order or injunction. The hearing thereon may be had after 5 days'
3 notice unless the court directs a longer or different notice and different parties.

4 4. The court may, if good cause exists, appoint one or more receivers
5 pursuant to this section to carry out the business of the association. The members 6 of the executive board who have not been guilty of negligence or active breach of 7 duty must be preferred in making the appointment.

8 5. The powers of any receiver appointed pursuant to this section may be 9 continued as long as the court deems necessary and proper. At any time, for 10 sufficient cause, the court may order the receivership terminated.

11 6. Any receiver appointed pursuant to this section has, among the usual 12 powers, all the functions, powers, tenure and duties to be exercised under the 13 direction of the court as are conferred on receivers and as provided in NRS
14 78.635, 78.640 and 78.645, whether or not the association is insolvent. Such

16 (a) Take charge of the estate and effects of the association;

17 (b) Appoint an agent or agents;

18 (c) Collect any debts and property due and belonging to the association and

22 (d) Perform any other act in accordance with the governing documents of 23 the association and this chapter that may be necessary for the association to carry 24 out its obligations; and

25 (e) By injunction, restrain the association from exercising any of its powers 26 or doing business in any way except by and through a receiver appointed by the 27 court.

28 Sec. 177. 1. If the Commission or the Division has reasonable cause to 29 believe, based on evidence satisfactory to it, that any person violated or is about to 30 violate any provision of this chapter, any regulation adopted pursuant thereto or 31 any order, decision, demand or requirement of the Commission or Division or a 32 hearing panel, the Commission or the Division may bring an action in the district
33 court for the county in which the person resides or, if the person does not reside
34 in this State, in any court of competent jurisdiction within or outside this State, to 35 restrain or enjoin that person from engaging in or continuing to commit the 36 violations or from doing any act in furtherance of the violations.

37 2. The action must be brought in the name of the State of Nevada. If the 38 action is brought in a court of this State, an order or judgment may be entered, 39 when proper, issuing a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction or 40 final injunction. A temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction must 41 not be issued without at least 5 days' notice to the opposite party.

42 3. The court may issue the temporary restraining order, preliminary 43 injunction or final injunction without:

44 (a) Proof of actual damages sustained by any person.

45 (b) The filing of any bond.

9 116.31155 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, an association 10 shall:

11 (a) If the association is required to pay the fee imposed by NRS 78.150, 12 82.193, 86.263, 87.541 or 88.591, pay to the Administrator a fee established by 13 regulation of the Administrator for every unit in the association used for residential 14 use.

15 (b) If the association is organized as a trust or partnership, or as any other
16 authorized business entity, pay to the Administrator a fee established by regulation
17 of the Administrator for each unit in the association.

18 2. If an association is subject to the governing documents of a master 19 association, the master association shall pay the fees required pursuant to this 20 section for each unit in the association that is subject to the governing documents of 21 the master association, unless the governing documents of the master association
22 provide otherwise. The provisions of this subsection do not relieve any association 23 that is subject to the governing documents of a master association from its ultimate 24 responsibility to pay the fees required pursuant to this section to the Administrator 25 if they are not paid by the master association.

26 3. The fees required to be paid pursuant to this section must be:

27 (a) Paid at such times as are established by the Division.

28 (b) Deposited with the State Treasurer for credit to the Account for Common-

34 4. The Division shall impose an administrative penalty against an association 35 or master association that violates the provisions of this section by failing to pay the 36 fees owed by the association or master association within the times established by 37 the Division. The administrative penalty that is imposed for each violation must 38 equal 10 percent of the amount of the fees owed by the association or master
39 association or $500, whichever amount is less. The amount of the unpaid fees owed
40 by the association or master association bears interest at the rate set forth in NRS 41 99.040 from the date the fees are due until the date the fees are paid in full.

42 5. A unit’s owner may not be required to pay any portion of the fees or any 43 administrative penalties or interest required to be paid pursuant to this section to 44 both an association and a master association.

48 have already been paid by the master association.

49 7. A master association may not be required to pay any portion of the fees or

Sec. 183. NRS 116.41095 is hereby amended to read as follows:

BEFORE YOU PURCHASE PROPERTY IN A COMMON-INTEREST COMMUNITY
DID YOU KNOW . . .

1. YOU GENERALLY HAVE 5 DAYS TO CANCEL THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT?

When you enter into a purchase agreement to buy a home or unit in a common-interest community, in most cases you should receive either a public offering statement, if you are the original purchaser of the home or unit, or a resale package, if you are not the original purchaser. The law generally provides for a 5-day period in which you have the right to cancel the purchase agreement. The 5-day period begins on different starting dates, depending on whether you receive a public offering statement or a resale package. Upon receiving a public offering statement or a resale package, you should make sure you are informed of the deadline for exercising your right to cancel. In order to exercise your right to cancel, the law generally requires that you hand deliver the notice of cancellation to the seller within the 5-day period, or mail the notice of cancellation to the seller by prepaid United States mail within the 5-day period. For more information regarding your right to cancel, see Nevada Revised Statutes 116.4108, if you received a public offering statement, or Nevada Revised Statutes 116.4109, if you received a resale package.

2. YOU ARE AGREEING TO RESTRICTIONS ON HOW YOU CAN USE YOUR PROPERTY?

These restrictions are contained in a document known as the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions. The CC&Rs become a part of the title to your property. They bind you and every future owner of the property whether or not you have read them or had them explained to you. The CC&Rs, together with other "governing documents" (such as association bylaws and rules and regulations), are intended to preserve the character and value of properties in the community, but may also restrict what you can do to improve or change your property and limit how you use and enjoy your property. By purchasing a property encumbered by CC&Rs, you are agreeing to limitations that could affect your lifestyle and freedom of choice. You should review the CC&Rs, and other governing documents before purchasing to make sure that these limitations and controls are acceptable to you.

3. YOU WILL HAVE TO PAY OWNERS' ASSESSMENTS FOR AS LONG AS YOU OWN YOUR PROPERTY?

As an owner in a common-interest community, you are responsible for paying your share of expenses relating to the common elements, such as landscaping, shared amenities and the operation of any homeowners' association. The obligation to pay these assessments binds you and every future owner of the property. Owners' fees are usually assessed by the homeowners' association and due monthly. You have to pay dues whether or not you agree with the way the association is managing the property or spending the assessments. The executive board of the association may have the power to change and increase the amount of the assessment and to levy special assessments against your property to meet extraordinary expenses. In some communities, major components of the common elements of the community such as roofs and private roads must be maintained and replaced by the association. If the association is not well managed or fails to provide adequate funding for reserves to repair, replace and restore common elements, you may be required to pay large, special assessments to accomplish these tasks.

4. IF YOU FAIL TO PAY OWNERS' ASSESSMENTS, YOU COULD LOSE YOUR HOME?

If you do not pay these assessments when due, the association usually has the power to collect them by selling your property in a nonjudicial foreclosure sale. If fees become delinquent, you may also be required to pay penalties and the association's costs and attorney's fees to become current. If you dispute the obligation or its amount, your only remedy to avoid the loss of your home may be to file a lawsuit and ask a court to intervene in the dispute.

5. YOU MAY BECOME A MEMBER OF A HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION THAT HAS THE POWER TO AFFECT HOW YOU USE AND ENJOY YOUR PROPERTY?

Many common-interest communities have a homeowners' association. In a new development, the association will usually be controlled by the developer until a certain number of units have been sold. After the period of developer control, the association may be controlled by property owners like yourself who are elected by homeowners to sit on an executive board and other boards and committees formed by the association. The association, and its executive board, are responsible for assessing homeowners for the cost of operating the association and the common or shared elements of the community and for the day to day operation and management of the community. Because homeowners sitting on the executive board and other boards and committees of the association may not have the experience or professional background required to understand and carry out the responsibilities of the association properly, the association may hire professional community managers to carry out these responsibilities.

Homeowners' associations operate on democratic principles. Some decisions require all homeowners to vote, some decisions are made by the executive board or other boards or committees established by the association or governing documents. Although the actions of the association and its executive board are governed by state laws, the CC&Rs and other documents that govern the common-interest community, decisions made by these persons will affect your use and enjoyment of your property, your lifestyle and freedom of choice, and your cost of living in the community. You may not agree with decisions made by the association or its governing bodies even though the decisions are ones which the association is authorized to make. Decisions may be made by a few persons on the executive board or governing bodies that do not necessarily reflect the view of the majority of homeowners in the community. If you do not agree with decisions made by the association, its executive board or other governing bodies, your remedy is typically to attempt to use the democratic processes of the association to seek the election of members of the executive board or other governing bodies that are more responsive to your needs. If you have a dispute with the association, its executive board or other governing bodies, you may be able to resolve the dispute through the complaint, investigation and intervention process administered by the Office of the Ombudsman for Owners in Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, the Nevada Real Estate Division and the Commission for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels. However, to resolve some disputes, you may have to mediate or arbitrate the dispute and, if mediation or arbitration is unsuccessful, you may have to file a lawsuit and ask a court to resolve the dispute. In addition to your personal cost in mediation or arbitration, or to prosecute a lawsuit, you may be responsible for paying your share of the association's cost in defending against your claim.

The law requires you to provide a prospective purchaser of your property with a copy of the community's governing documents, including the CC&Rs, association bylaws, and rules and regulations, as well as a copy of this document. You are also required to provide a copy of the association's current year-to-date financial statement, including, without limitation, the most recent audited or reviewed financial statement, a copy of the association's operating budget and information regarding the amount of the monthly assessment for common expenses, including the amount set aside as reserves for the repair, replacement and restoration of common elements. You are also required to inform prospective purchasers of any outstanding judgments or lawsuits pending against the association of which you are aware. For more information regarding these requirements, see Nevada Revised Statutes 116.4109.

7. YOU HAVE CERTAIN RIGHTS REGARDING OWNERSHIP IN A COMMON-INTEREST COMMUNITY THAT ARE GUARANTEED YOU BY THE STATE?

Pursuant to provisions of chapter 116 of Nevada Revised Statutes, you have the right:

(a) To be notified of all meetings of the association and its executive board, except in cases of emergency.

(b) To attend and speak at all meetings of the association and its executive board, except in some cases where the executive board is authorized to meet in closed, executive session.

(c) To request a special meeting of the association upon petition of at least 10 percent of the homeowners.

(d) To inspect, examine, photocopy and audit financial and other records of the association.

(e) To be notified of all changes in the community's rules and regulations and other actions by the association or board that affect you.

8. QUESTIONS?

Although they may be voluminous, you should take the time to read and understand the documents that will control your ownership of a property in a common-interest community. You may wish to ask your real estate professional, lawyer or other person with experience to explain anything you do not understand. You may also request assistance from the Office of the Ombudsman for Owners in Common-Interest Communities H and Condominium Hotels Nevada Real Estate Division, at (telephone number).
