AN ACT relating to offenders; revising provisions relating to the residential confinement of certain offenders; authorizing the Director of the Department of Corrections to award greater amounts of credit against the sentence of offenders under certain circumstances; revising provisions relating to programs for the reentry of offenders and parolees into the community; providing for certain credits to be applied to a period of probation; revising provisions governing residential confinement for offenders who violate parole or probation; revising the additional penalty that must be imposed for the commission of certain crimes under certain circumstances; making various other changes pertaining to offenders; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 2 of this bill eliminates certain requirements that an offender must meet to be eligible for residential confinement and revises the prohibition against assigning a prisoner who has been convicted of a sexual offense to residential confinement by prohibiting the Director of the Department of Corrections from assigning a prisoner to a minimum security facility if the prisoner has ever been convicted of a sexual offense that is a felony. In addition, section 2 revises a provision which prohibits an offender from receiving residential confinement if the offender has ever been convicted of a violent crime by prohibiting an offender from receiving residential confinement if the offender has, within the immediately preceding 3 years, been convicted of a violent crime that is a felony. (NRS 209.392) Finally, section 2 provides that an offender who has been convicted of a category A or B felony is not eligible for residential confinement.

Existing law requires the Director to assign certain offenders who are abusers of alcohol or drugs to residential confinement. (NRS 209.429) Section 3 of this bill eliminates certain requirements that such an offender must meet for the Director to assign him to residential confinement.

Section 5 of this bill increases from 10 days to 20 days the deduction from the sentence of an offender who engages in certain good behavior. In addition, section 5 increases by 30 days the deductions from the sentence of an offender who obtains certain educational achievements. Section 5 also provides that certain credits to the sentence of an offender convicted of certain category C, D or E felonies must be deducted from the minimum term imposed by the sentence until the offender becomes eligible for parole and from the maximum term imposed by the sentence. (NRS 209.4465) Section 6 of this bill increases from 10 days to 20 days the deduction from the sentence of a parolee who is current with any fee to defray the cost of his supervision and who is current with any restitution payments. (NRS 209.4475) Section 6.2 of this bill increases from 30 days to 60 days the deduction from the sentence of an offender who successfully completes a program of treatment for the abuse of alcohol or drugs. (NRS 209.448) Section 6.4 of this bill increases from 30 days to 60 days the deduction from the sentence of an offender who successfully completes a program of vocational education and training. (NRS 209.449)

Section 7 of this bill revises the prohibition against assigning a prisoner who has been convicted of a sexual offense to a minimum security facility by prohibiting the Director from assigning a prisoner to such a facility if the prisoner has ever been convicted of a sexual offense that is a felony. In addition, section 7 revises the prohibition against assigning a prisoner who has committed a violent act during the previous year to a minimum security facility by prohibiting the Director from assigning a prisoner to such a facility if the prisoner has, within the preceding year, been convicted of a violent crime that is a felony. (NRS 209.481)

Existing law allows the Director of the Department of Corrections to recommend an offender to a judicial program for reentry of offenders and parolees into the community. (NRS 209.4886) Section 7.5 of this bill provides that an offender is not eligible for a judicial program for reentry if the offender has, within the immediately preceding year, instead of 5 years, been convicted of a violent crime that is a felony. Existing law allows the Director to establish a program for reentry of offenders and parolees into the community. Section 8 of this bill revises a provision which provides that an offender is not eligible for the program if the offender has, within the immediately preceding 5 years, been convicted of a violent crime by providing that an offender is not eligible for the program if the offender has, within the immediately preceding year, been convicted of a violent crime that is a felony. (NRS 209.4888)

Section 8.3 of this bill prohibits the State Board of Parole Commissioners from considering whether a prisoner has appealed the judgment of imprisonment for which the prisoner is being considered for parole when the Board determines whether to grant parole to a prisoner.

Existing law provides that certain prisoners must be released on parole 12 months before the end of the prisoner's maximum term of imprisonment. However, if the State Board of Parole Commissioners finds that there is a reasonable probability that the prisoner will be a danger to public safety while on parole, the Board may deny the parole. (NRS 213.1215) Section 8.55 provides that if the Board denies parole for this reason, the Board must provide the prisoner with a written statement of the reasons for the denial.

Section 8.7 of this bill provides that a person who is sentenced to a period of probation for a felony and who engages in certain good behavior while on probation must be allowed a deduction from his period of probation of 20 days for each month he serves. (NRS 176A.500)

Existing law authorizes the State Board of Parole Commissioners, in lieu of suspending the parole of a parolee who violates a condition of his parole and returning him to confinement in prison, to require the parolee to serve a term of residential confinement. (NRS 213.152) Section 8.6 of this bill authorizes the State Board of Parole Commissioners, in lieu of suspending the parole of a parolee who violates a condition of his parole and returning him to confinement in prison, to place the parolee in a community correctional center, conservation camp, facility of minimum security or other place of confinement other than a prison for a period of not more than 6 months.

If a person who has been placed on probation violates a condition of his probation, existing law authorizes a court, in lieu of causing the sentence imposed to be executed, to direct that the person be placed under the supervision of the Division of Parole and Probation of the Department of Public Safety and to require the person to serve a term of residential confinement. Section 8.8 of this bill authorizes the court, in lieu of causing the sentence imposed to be executed, to direct that the person be placed under the supervision of the Department of Corrections and to require the person to serve a term of confinement in a community correctional center, conservation camp, facility of minimum security or other place of confinement other than a prison for a period of not more than 6 months. (NRS 176A.660)

Section 10 of this bill provides for retroactive application of the amendatory provisions of sections 5 and 8.7 to certain credits earned by offenders pursuant to NRS 209.4465 and 176A.500 in certain circumstances.

Existing law provides that persons who commit certain crimes must be punished by the imposition of a penalty equal to and in addition to the term of imprisonment for the underlying crime. (NRS 193.161-193.1685) Sections 10-19 of this bill provide that the additional penalty for such crimes must be a minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 20 years, except that the additional term of imprisonment must not exceed the sentence imposed for the underlying crime. Moreover, sections 10-19 require a court to consider certain factors and, state on the record that the court considered those factors, when the court determines the length of the additional punishment to be imposed.

Section 20 of this bill amends Assembly Bill No. 508 of this session to require the Advisory Commission on the Administration of Justice to identify and study issues relating to: (1) the application of the Open Meeting Law to the State Board of Pardons Commissioners and the State Board of Parole Commissioners; and (2) the operations of the Department of Corrections.

Sec. 8.3. NRS 213.10885 is hereby amended to read as follows:

213.10885 1. The Board shall adopt by regulation specific standards for each type of convicted person to assist the Board in determining whether to grant or revoke parole. The regulations must include standards for determining whether to grant or revoke the parole of a convicted person:

(a) Who committed a capital offense.

(b) Who was sentenced to serve a term of imprisonment for life.
 (c) Who was convicted of a sexual offense involving the use or threat of use of force or violence.

(d) Who was convicted as a habitual criminal.

(e) Who is a repeat offender.

(f) Who was convicted of any other type of offense.

☞ The standards must be based upon objective criteria for determining the person's probability of success on parole.

2. In establishing the standards, the Board shall consider the information on decisions regarding parole that is compiled and maintained pursuant to NRS 213.10887 and all other factors which are relevant in determining the probability that a convicted person will live and remain at liberty without violating the law if parole is granted or continued. The other factors the Board considers must include, but are not limited to:

(a) The severity of the crime committed;

(b) The criminal history of the person;

(c) Any disciplinary action taken against the person while incarcerated;

(d) Any previous parole violations or failures;

(e) Any potential threat to society or himself; and

(f) The length of his incarceration.

3. In determining whether to grant parole to a prisoner, the Board shall not consider whether the prisoner has appealed the judgment of imprisonment for which the prisoner is being considered for parole.

4. The standards adopted by the Board must provide for a greater punishment for a convicted person who has a history of repetitive criminal conduct or who commits a serious crime, with a violent crime considered the most serious, than for a convicted person who does not have a history of repetitive crimes and did not commit a serious crime.

~~4.4~~ 5. The Board shall make available to the public a sample of the form the Board uses in determining the probability that a convicted person will live and remain at liberty without violating the law if parole is granted or continued.

~~4.5~~ 6. On or before January 1 of each even-numbered year, the Board shall review comprehensively the standards adopted by the Board. The review must include a determination of whether the standards are effective in predicting the probability that a convicted person will live and remain at liberty without violating the law if parole is granted or continued. If a standard is found to be ineffective, the Board shall not use that standard in its decisions regarding parole and shall adopt revised standards as soon as practicable after the review.

~~4.6~~ 7. The Board shall report to each regular session of the Legislature:

(a) The number and percentage of the Board's decisions that conflicted with the standards;

(b) The results and conclusions from the Board's review pursuant to subsection ~~4.5~~ 6; and

(c) Any changes in the Board's standards, policies, procedures, programs or forms that have been or will be made as a result of the review.

If the Board finds, at least 2 months before a prisoner would otherwise be paroled pursuant to subsection 1, that there is a reasonable probability that the prisoner will be a danger to public safety while on parole, the Board may require the prisoner to serve the balance of his sentence and not grant the parole provided for in subsection 1. If, pursuant to this subsection, the Board does not grant the parole provided for in subsection 1, the Board shall provide to the prisoner a written statement of its reasons for denying parole.

4. If the prisoner is the subject of a lawful request from another law enforcement agency that he be held or detained for release to that agency, the prisoner must not be released on parole, but released to that agency.
