EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to traffic laws; making various changes concerning the penalties imposed by a court when a defendant fails to properly secure a child in a child restraint system in a vehicle; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires a person who transports a child who is less than 6 years of age and who weighs 60 pounds or less to secure the child in a child restraint system. A court is required to order a defendant who did not comply with that requirement to complete a program of training in the installation and use of child restraint systems, unless the defendant is not a resident of the State of Nevada. The court is further required to impose a fine or require the defendant to perform community service, but may waive a portion of the fine or community service if the program of training certifies to the court that the defendant completed the program of training. This bill deletes the requirement that a court order a defendant to undergo a program of training and requires the court to provide the defendant with a referral list of available programs of training. This bill also increases the amount of the fine or hours of community service a court may impose for failing to properly secure the child in a child restraint system. Further, for a first offense, a defendant may have the fine or hours of community service waived if he successfully completes a program of training recommended by the court and presents proof of completion of the training to the court. For a second offense, a defendant may have the fine or hours of community service reduced by half if he did not have the fine or hours of community service waived for his first offense and he successfully completes a program of training recommended by the court and presents proof of completion of the training to the court.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. (Deleted by amendment.)

2 Sec. 2. NRS 484.474 is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 484.474 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7, any person who is

10 4. A person or agency approved by the Department of Public Safety to
