EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to civil liability; enacting provisions relating to civil liability for causing the injury or death of certain pets; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Under general legal principles, a pet is considered the personal property of its owner. If a person negligently, recklessly, willfully or intentionally injures or kills the pet of another person, the owner of the pet may recover the same damages that the owner could recover for damage to or destruction of the owner’s personal property. Section 1 of this bill replaces this general legal principle with a statutory provision which provides that a person who intentionally, willfully, recklessly or negligently injures or kills the dog or cat of another person is liable for certain economic damages and that the award of such damages must not exceed $5,000. Under section 1, punitive damages and noneconomic damages may not be awarded.

Section 2 of this bill provides that the owner of the dog or cat must bring an action within 2 years after the cause of action accrues.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 41 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, if a natural person intentionally, willfully, recklessly or negligently injures or kills the pet of another natural person, the person is liable for the following:

(a) The cost of veterinary care incurred by the owner because of the injury or death of the pet.

(b) If the pet is injured, any reduction in the market value of the pet caused by the injury.

(c) If the pet is killed, the market value of the pet and reasonable burial expenses.

1 (d) Reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by the owner in bringing
2 an action pursuant to this section.

3 2. Punitive damages and noneconomic damages may not be awarded in an
4 action brought under this section.

5 3. In an action brought under this section, the award of damages must not
6 exceed $5,000 for each pet.

7 4. The provisions of this section do not authorize an award of damages
8 pursuant to subsection 1 if:

9 (a) A nonprofit organization, society for the prevention of cruelty to animals
10 established pursuant to NRS 574.010 or governmental entity, or an employee or 11 agent thereof, injures or kills a pet while acting in furtherance of public health or 12 animal welfare.

13 (b) The action is based on the killing of a dog that had been or was killing or 14 causing damage to livestock.

15 (c) The person reasonably believed that:

16 (1) The pet presented a risk to his safety or to the safety of another 17 person; and

18 (2) The action was necessary to protect himself or another person.

19 5. As used in this section:

20 (a) "Livestock" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 569.0085.

21 (b) "Owner" means a natural person who owns, possesses, harbors, keeps or 22 has control or custody of a pet.

23 (c) "Pet" means any domesticated dog or cat normally maintained in or near 24 the household of its owner.

25 Sec. 2. NRS 11.190 is hereby amended to read as follows:

26 11.190 Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125B.050 and 217.007, actions
27 other than those for the recovery of real property, unless further limited by specific 28 statute, may only be commenced as follows:

29 1. Within 6 years:

30 (a) An action upon a judgment or decree of any court of the United States, or 31 of any state or territory within the United States, or the renewal thereof.

32 (b) An action upon a contract, obligation or liability founded upon an 33 instrument in writing, except those mentioned in the preceding sections of this

1 (c) An action for taking, detaining or injuring personal property, including
2 actions for specific recovery thereof, but in all cases where the subject of the action
3 is a domestic animal usually included in the term "livestock," which has a recorded
4 mark or brand upon it at the time of its loss, and which strays or is stolen from the 5 true owner without his fault, the statute does not begin to run against an action for 6 the recovery of the animal until the owner has actual knowledge of such facts as 7 would put a reasonable person upon inquiry as to the possession thereof by the 8 defendant.

9 (d) Except as otherwise provided in NRS 112.230 and 166.170, an action for 10 relief on the ground of fraud or mistake, but the cause of action in such a case shall

12 constituting the fraud or mistake.

13 (e) An action pursuant to NRS 40.750 for damages sustained by a financial 14 institution because of its reliance on certain fraudulent conduct of a borrower, but

18 (a) An action against a sheriff, coroner or constable upon liability incurred by 19 acting in his official capacity and in virtue of his office, or by the omission of an
20 official duty, including the nonpayment of money collected upon an execution.

29 for injuries to a person or for the death of a person caused by the wrongful act or 30 neglect of another. The provisions of this paragraph relating to an action to recover
31 damages for injuries to a person apply only to causes of action which accrue after 32 March 20, 1951.

37 collector, or to recover the price or value of goods, wares, merchandise or other 38 personal property so seized, or for damages for the seizure, detention or sale of, or
