391.313 1. Whenever an administrator charged with supervision of a licensed employee believes it is necessary to admonish the employee for a reason that he believes may lead to demotion ~~or~~ or dismissal or may cause the employee not to be reemployed under the provisions of NRS 391.312, he shall:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection ~~2~~ 3, bring the matter to the attention of the employee involved, in writing, stating the reasons for the admonition and that it may lead to his demotion, dismissal or a refusal to reemploy him, and make a reasonable effort to assist the employee to correct whatever appears to be the cause for his potential demotion, dismissal or a potential recommendation not to reemploy him; and

(b) Except as otherwise provided in NRS 391.314, allow reasonable time for improvement, which must not exceed 3 months for the first admonition.

➤ The admonition must include a description of the deficiencies of the teacher and the action that is necessary to correct those deficiencies.

2. An admonition issued to a licensed employee who, within the time granted for improvement, has met the standards set for him by the administrator who issued the admonition must be removed from the records of the employee together with all notations and indications of its having been issued. The admonition must be removed from the records of the employee not later than 3 years after it is issued.

~~2~~ 3. An administrator need not admonish an employee pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 1 if his employment will be terminated pursuant to NRS 391.3197. If by ~~February 15~~ March 1 of the first or second year of his probationary period a probationary employee does not receive a written notice pursuant to subsection 4 of NRS 391.3125 of a potential decision not to reemploy him, he must receive an admonition before any such decision is made.

~~3~~ 4. A licensed employee is subject to immediate dismissal or a refusal to reemploy according to the procedures provided in NRS 391.311 to 391.3197, inclusive, without the admonition required by this section, on grounds contained in paragraphs (b), (f), (g), (h) and (p) of subsection 1 of NRS 391.312.

Sec. 7. NRS 391.3197 is hereby amended to read as follows:

391.3197 1. A probationary employee is employed on a contract basis for two 1-year periods and has no right to employment after either of the two probationary contract years.

2. The board shall notify each probationary employee in writing on or before May 1 of the first and second school years of his probationary period, as appropriate, whether he is to be reemployed for the second year of the probationary period or for the next school year as a postprobationary employee. The employee must advise the board in writing on or before May 10 of the first or second year of his probationary period, as appropriate, of his acceptance of reemployment. If a probationary employee is assigned to a school that operates all year, the board shall notify him in writing, in both the first and second years of his probationary period, no later than 45 days before his last day of work for the year under his contract whether he is to be reemployed for the second year of the probationary period or for the next school year as a postprobationary employee. He must advise the board in writing within 10 days after the date of notification of his acceptance or rejection of

1 reemployment for another year. Failure to advise the board of his acceptance of 2 reemployment constitutes rejection of the contract.

3 3. A probationary employee who completes his 2-year probationary period 4 and receives a notice of reemployment from the school district in the second year of 5 his probationary period is entitled to be a postprobationary employee in the ensuing 6 year of employment.

7 4. ~~[A]~~ If a probationary employee ~~[who receives an unsatisfactory evaluation]~~
8 receives notice pursuant to subsection 4 of NRS 391.3125 not later than March 1
9 of a potential decision not to reemploy him, the employee may request a 10 supplemental evaluation by another administrator in the school district selected by 11 him and the superintendent. If a school district has five or fewer administrators, the 12 supplemental evaluator may be an administrator from another school district in 13 ~~the~~ this State. If a probationary employee has received during the first school year 14 of his probationary period three evaluations which state that the employee's overall 15 performance has been satisfactory, the superintendent of schools of the school
16 district or his designee shall waive the second year of the employee's probationary 17 period by expressly providing in writing on the final evaluation of the employee for 18 the first probationary year that the second year of his probationary period is waived.
19 Such an employee is entitled to be a postprobationary employee in the ensuing year 20 of employment.

21 5. If a probationary employee is notified that he will not be reemployed for 22 the second year of his probationary period or the ensuing school year, his 23 employment ends on the last day of the current school year. The notice that he will 24 not be reemployed must include a statement of the reasons for that decision.

25 6. A new employee or a postprobationary teacher who is employed as an 26 administrator shall be deemed to be a probationary employee for the purposes of 27 this section and must serve a 2-year probationary period as an administrator in 28 accordance with the provisions of this section. If the administrator does not receive 29 an unsatisfactory evaluation during the first year of probation, the superintendent or 30 his designee shall waive the second year of the administrator's probationary period.
31 Such an administrator is entitled to be a postprobationary employee in the ensuing 32 year of employment. If:

33 (a) A postprobationary teacher who is an administrator is not reemployed as an 34 administrator after either year of his probationary period; and

36 school district in which the person is employed,

37 ➤ the board of trustees of the school district shall, on or before May 1, offer the 38 person a contract as a teacher for the ensuing school year. The person may accept 39 the contract in writing on or before May 10. If the person fails to accept the contract 40 as a teacher, the person shall be deemed to have rejected the offer of a contract as a 41 teacher.

42 7. An administrator who has completed his probationary period pursuant to 43 subsection 6 and is thereafter promoted to the position of principal must serve an 44 additional probationary period of 1 year in the position of principal. If the 45 administrator serving the additional probationary period is not reemployed as a 46 principal after the expiration of the additional probationary period, the board of 47 trustees of the school district in which the person is employed shall, on or before 48 May 1, offer the person a contract for the ensuing school year for the administrative 49 position in which the person attained postprobationary status. The person may 50 accept the contract in writing on or before May 10. If the person fails to accept such 51 a contract, the person shall be deemed to have rejected the offer of employment.
