EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to public employees; allowing the surviving spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter who was killed in the line of duty to continue to receive death benefits under industrial insurance after the surviving spouse remarries; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, if the death of an employee is caused by an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of employment covered by state laws on industrial insurance, the surviving spouse of the deceased employee may receive a compensation known as a death benefit. (NRS 616C.505) The death benefit presently ends upon the surviving spouse's death or remarriage. (NRS 616C.505) This bill allows the surviving spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter who was killed in the line of duty to continue to receive certain compensation under the death benefit even if the surviving spouse remarries.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Chapter 616C of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new 2 section to read as follows:

3 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, if the surviving spouse of a
4 deceased police officer or firefighter who was killed in the line of duty is entitled
5 to be paid compensation pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 616C.505, the surviving
6 spouse:

7 (a) Must be paid that compensation until the death of the surviving spouse,
8 whether or not the surviving spouse remarries; and
9 (b) Must not be paid any compensation pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS
10 616C.505 in one lump sum upon remarriage.

11 2. If the surviving spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter becomes 12 the spouse of another employee who thereafter dies under circumstances that

1 would otherwise entitle the surviving spouse to be paid compensation pursuant to 2 subsection 2 of NRS 616C.505 with respect to the other employee, the surviving
3 spouse:

4 (a) Must not be paid compensation pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS
5 616C.505 with respect to the other employee; and

6 (b) Shall be deemed to have predeceased the other employee for the purposes
7 of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS.

8 3. The provisions of this section:

9 (a) Do not apply to the surviving spouse of a deceased police officer or 10 firefighter if the death of that police officer or firefighter is made compensable 11 only by chapter 617 of NRS; and 12 (b) Do not affect any compensation payable under chapter 617 of NRS.

13 4. As used in this section, "killed in the line of duty" means killed as a 14 direct and proximate result of injuries sustained:

15 (a) If the person is on duty:

16 (I) While en route to or from, or otherwise responding to, an emergency,
17 a call for service, a request for assistance or a situation requiring immediate law 18 enforcement or emergency service attention; or

19 (2) From a hostile act;

20 (b) If the person is off duty, is a police officer and is using the tools of his 21 trade, while en route to or from, or otherwise responding to, an emergency, a call
22 for service, a request for assistance or a situation requiring immediate law 23 enforcement attention; or

24 (c) During training that is approved by his employer and is scheduled or 25 identified as training before the training occurs.

26 Sec. 2. NRS 616C.505 is hereby amended to read as follows:

27 616C.505 If an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of 28 employment causes the death of an employee in the employ of an employer, within 29 the provisions of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, the compensation is 30 known as a death benefit [H] and is payable as follows:

31 1. In addition to any other compensation payable pursuant to chapters 616A
32 to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, burial expenses are payable in an amount not to exceed 33 $5,000. When the remains of the deceased employee and the person accompanying 34 the remains are to be transported to a mortuary or mortuaries, the charge of 35 transportation must be borne by the insurer.

36 2. [T]o Except as otherwise provided in section 1 of this act, to the surviving 37 spouse of the deceased employee, 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage is 38 payable until his death or remarriage, with 2 years' compensation payable in one 39 lump sum upon remarriage.

40 3. In the event of the subsequent death of the surviving spouse:

41 (a) Each surviving child of the deceased employee must share equally the 42 compensation theretofore paid to the surviving spouse but not in excess thereof, and 43 it is payable until the youngest child reaches the age of 18 years.

44 (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 11, if the children have a 45 guardian, the compensation they are entitled to receive may be paid to the guardian.

46 4. Upon the remarriage of a surviving spouse with children:

47 (a) The surviving spouse must be paid 2 years' compensation in one lump sum 48 and further benefits must cease; and

49 (b) Each child must be paid 15 percent of the average monthly wage, up to a 50 maximum family benefit of 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

51 → The provisions of this subsection do not apply to the remarriage of a surviving 52 spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter if the provisions of section 1 of 53 this act apply to the surviving spouse.

1 5. If there are any surviving children of the deceased employee under the age
2 of 18 years, but no surviving spouse, then each such child is entitled to his 3 proportionate share of 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage for his support.

4 6. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7, if there is no surviving 5 spouse or child under the age of 18 years, there must be paid:

6 (a) To a parent, if wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee at 7 the time of the injury causing his death, 33 1/3 percent of the average monthly
8 wage.

9 (b) To both parents, if wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee at 10 the time of the injury causing his death, 66 2/3 percent of the average 11 monthly wage.

12 (c) To each brother or sister until he or she reaches the age of 18 years, if 13 wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee at the time of the injury 14 causing his death, his proportionate share of 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly
15 wage.

16 7. The aggregate compensation payable pursuant to subsection 6 must not 17 exceed 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

18 8. In all other cases involving a question of total or partial dependency:

19 (a) The extent of the dependency must be determined in accordance with the 20 facts existing at the time of the injury.

21 (b) If the deceased employee leaves dependents only partially dependent upon 22 his earnings for support at the time of the injury causing his death, the monthly
23 compensation to be paid must be equal to the same proportion of the monthly 24 payments for the benefit of persons totally dependent as the amount contributed by 25 the deceased employee to the partial dependents bears to the average monthly wage 26 of the deceased employee at the time of the injury resulting in his death.

27 (c) The duration of compensation to partial dependents must be fixed in 28 accordance with the facts shown, but may not exceed compensation for 100 29 months.

30 9. Compensation payable to a surviving spouse is for the use and benefit of 31 the surviving spouse and the dependent children, and the insurer may, from time to 32 time, apportion such compensation between them in such a way as it deems best for 33 the interest of all dependents.

34 10. In the event of the death of any dependent specified in this section before
35 the expiration of the time during which compensation is payable to him, funeral 36 expenses are payable in an amount not to exceed $5,000.

37 11. If a dependent is entitled to receive a death benefit pursuant to this section 38 and is less than 18 years of age or incompetent, the legal representative of the 39 dependent shall petition for a guardian to be appointed for that dependent pursuant 40 to NRS 159.044. An insurer shall not pay any compensation in excess of $3,000, 41 other than burial expenses, to the dependent until a guardian is appointed and 42 legally qualified. Upon receipt of a certified letter of guardianship, the insurer shall 43 make all payments required by this section to the guardian of the dependent until 44 the dependent is emancipated, the guardianship terminates or the dependent reaches 45 the age of 18 years, whichever occurs first, unless paragraph (a) of subsection 12 is 46 applicable. The fees and costs related to the guardianship must be paid from the 47 estate of the dependent. A guardianship established pursuant to this subsection must 48 be administered in accordance with chapter 159 of NRS, except that after the first
49 annual review required pursuant to NRS 159.176, a court may elect not to review
50 the guardianship annually. The court shall review the guardianship at least once
51 every 3 years. As used in this subsection, "incompetent" has the meaning ascribed
52 to it in NRS 159.019.

1 12. Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (a) and (b), the entitlement of 2 any child to receive his proportionate share of compensation pursuant to this section
3 ceases when he dies, marries or reaches the age of 18 years. A child is entitled to 4 continue to receive compensation pursuant to this section if he is:

5 (a) Over 18 years of age and incapable of supporting himself, until such time
6 as he becomes capable of supporting himself; or

7 (b) Over 18 years of age and enrolled as a full-time student in an accredited
8 vocational or educational institution, until he reaches the age of 22 years.

9 13. As used in this section, "surviving spouse" means a surviving husband or 10 wife who was married to the employee at the time of the employee's death.

11 Sec. 3. The amendatory provisions of sections 1 and 2 of this act do not apply 12 to a surviving spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter if the surviving 13 spouse is remarried before October 1, 2007.
