AN ACT relating to public employees; allowing the surviving spouse of [a] certain deceased police [officer or firefighter who was killed in the line of duty] officers and firefighters to continue to receive death benefits under industrial insurance after the surviving spouse remarries; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, if the death of an employee is caused by an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of employment covered by state laws on industrial insurance, the surviving spouse of the deceased employee may receive a compensation known as a death benefit. (NRS 616C.505) The death benefit presently ends upon the surviving spouse's death or remarriage. (NRS 616C.505) This bill allows the surviving spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter who [was killed in the line of duty] died while actively employed as a police officer or firefighter to continue to receive certain compensation under the death benefit even if the surviving spouse remarries. This bill also allows the surviving spouse of certain retired police officers or firefighters to receive this benefit.

45 616C.505 If an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of 46 employment causes the death of an employee in the employ of an employer, within 47 the provisions of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, the compensation is 48 known as a death benefit ¶ and is payable as follows:

49 1. In addition to any other compensation payable pursuant to chapters 616A
50 to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, burial expenses are payable in an amount not to exceed 51 $5,000. When the remains of the deceased employee and the person accompanying 52 the remains are to be transported to a mortuary or mortuaries, the charge of 53 transportation must be borne by the insurer.

1 2. ~~For~~ Except as otherwise provided in section 1 of this act, to the surviving 2 spouse of the deceased employee, 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage is 3 payable until his death or remarriage, with 2 years' compensation payable in one 4 lump sum upon remarriage.

5 3. In the event of the subsequent death of the surviving spouse:

6 (a) Each surviving child of the deceased employee must share equally the 7 compensation theretofore paid to the surviving spouse but not in excess thereof, and 8 it is payable until the youngest child reaches the age of 18 years.

9 (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 11, if the children have a 10 guardian, the compensation they are entitled to receive may be paid to the guardian.

11 4. Upon the remarriage of a surviving spouse with children:

12 (a) The surviving spouse must be paid 2 years' compensation in one lump sum 13 and further benefits must cease; and

14 (b) Each child must be paid 15 percent of the average monthly wage, up to a 15 maximum family benefit of 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

16 ↳ The provisions of this subsection do not apply to the remarriage of a surviving 17 spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter if the provisions of section 1 of 18 this act apply to the surviving spouse.

19 5. If there are any surviving children of the deceased employee under the age 20 of 18 years, but no surviving spouse, then each such child is entitled to his 21 proportionate share of 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage for his support.

22 6. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7, if there is no surviving 23 spouse or child under the age of 18 years, there must be paid:

24 (a) To a parent, if wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee at 25 the time of the injury causing his death, 33 1/3 percent of the average monthly
26 wage.

27 (b) To both parents, if wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee at 28 the time of the injury causing his death, 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly
29 wage.

30 (c) To each brother or sister until he or she reaches the age of 18 years, if 31 wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee at the time of the injury
32 causing his death, his proportionate share of 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly 33 wage.

34 7. The aggregate compensation payable pursuant to subsection 6 must not 35 exceed 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

36 8. In all other cases involving a question of total or partial dependency:

37 (a) The extent of the dependency must be determined in accordance with the 38 facts existing at the time of the injury.

39 (b) If the deceased employee leaves dependents only partially dependent upon 40 his earnings for support at the time of the injury causing his death, the monthly 41 compensation to be paid must be equal to the same proportion of the monthly 42 payments for the benefit of persons totally dependent as the amount contributed by 43 the deceased employee to the partial dependents bears to the average monthly wage 44 of the deceased employee at the time of the injury resulting in his death.

45 (c) The duration of compensation to partial dependents must be fixed in 46 accordance with the facts shown, but may not exceed compensation for 100 47 months.

48 9. Compensation payable to a surviving spouse is for the use and benefit of 49 the surviving spouse and the dependent children, and the insurer may, from time to 50 time, apportion such compensation between them in such a way as it deems best for 51 the interest of all dependents.

1 10. In the event of the death of any dependent specified in this section before 2 the expiration of the time during which compensation is payable to him, funeral 3 expenses are payable in an amount not to exceed $5,000.

4 11. If a dependent is entitled to receive a death benefit pursuant to this section 5 and is less than 18 years of age or incompetent, the legal representative of the 6 dependent shall petition for a guardian to be appointed for that dependent pursuant 7 to NRS 159.044. An insurer shall not pay any compensation in excess of $3,000, 8 other than burial expenses, to the dependent until a guardian is appointed and 9 legally qualified. Upon receipt of a certified letter of guardianship, the insurer shall 10 make all payments required by this section to the guardian of the dependent until 11 the dependent is emancipated, the guardianship terminates or the dependent reaches 12 the age of 18 years, whichever occurs first, unless paragraph (a) of subsection 12 is 13 applicable. The fees and costs related to the guardianship must be paid from the 14 estate of the dependent. A guardianship established pursuant to this subsection must 15 be administered in accordance with chapter 159 of NRS, except that after the first 16 annual review required pursuant to NRS 159.176, a court may elect not to review
17 the guardianship annually. The court shall review the guardianship at least once 18 every 3 years. As used in this subsection, "incompetent" has the meaning ascribed
19 to it in NRS 159.019.

20 12. Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (a) and (b), the entitlement of 21 any child to receive his proportionate share of compensation pursuant to this section 22 ceases when he dies, marries or reaches the age of 18 years. A child is entitled to 23 continue to receive compensation pursuant to this section if he is:

24 (a) Over 18 years of age and incapable of supporting himself, until such time 25 as he becomes capable of supporting himself; or

26 (b) Over 18 years of age and enrolled as a full-time student in an accredited 27 vocational or educational institution, until he reaches the age of 22 years.

28 13. As used in this section, "surviving spouse" means a surviving husband or 29 wife who was married to the employee at the time of the employee's death.

30 Sec. 3. The amendatory provisions of sections 1 and 2 of this act do not apply 31 to a surviving spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter if the surviving 32 spouse is remarried before October 1, 2007.
