AN ACT relating to homeland security; revising the composition of voting members of the Nevada Commission on Homeland Security; authorizing the Chairman of the Commission to appoint nonmembers to certain committees; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1      Section 1 of this bill adds an employee of the largest incorporated city in each county
2      whose population is 400,000 or more to the list of voting members who must be appointed
3      by the Governor to the Nevada Commission on Homeland Security. Section 1 also changes
4      the status of the officer designated by the United States Department of Homeland Security
5      and the agent in charge of the office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in this State to 6      serve on the Nevada Commission on Homeland Security from [+] voting [member] members
7      to [+] nonvoting [member] members. (NRS 239C.120)

8      Section 2 of this bill clarifies that the Chairman of the Nevada Commission on Homeland 9      Security is authorized to appoint any person he deems appropriate to serve on a committee to 10     assist the Commission so long as one member of the Commission is appointed to the 11     committee. In addition, section 2 provides that a member of such a committee who is not a 12     member of the Commission is not entitled to compensation, but may receive a per diem
13     allowance and travel expenses. If the member is a public employee, he must also be given 14     leave with pay without reducing any of his accrued leave. (NRS 239C.170)
