AN ACT relating to crimes against property; revising the provisions governing the crime of grand larceny of a motor vehicle; revising the provisions governing an offense involving a stolen vehicle; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, a person who commits grand larceny of a motor vehicle is guilty of a category C felony, which is punishable by imprisonment for a minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 5 years and a fine of not more than $10,000. (NRS 193.130, 205.228) If the value of the motor vehicle is $2,500 or more, the penalty increases to a category B felony, which is punishable by imprisonment for a minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 10 years and a fine of not more than $10,000. (NRS 205.228) This bill provides that a person who is convicted of grand larceny of a motor vehicle and who has previously been convicted of grand larceny of a motor vehicle or [another crime involving the theft] an attempt to commit grand larceny of a motor vehicle must not be released on probation or granted a suspension of his sentence.

Under existing law, a person who commits an offense involving a stolen vehicle is guilty of a category C felony. (NRS 205.273) If the value of the stolen vehicle is $2,500 or more, the penalty is increased to a category B felony. (NRS 205.273) This bill provides that a person who is convicted of an offense involving a stolen vehicle and who has previously been convicted of an offense involving a stolen vehicle or [another crime involving the theft of a motor] an attempt to commit an offense involving a stolen vehicle must not be released on probation or granted a suspension of his sentence.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 205.228 is hereby amended to read as follows:

2 205.228 1. A person who intentionally steals, takes and carries away, drives
3 away or otherwise removes a motor vehicle owned by another person commits
4 grand larceny of a motor vehicle.

5 2. Except as otherwise provided in ~~subsection 3.] this section~~, a person who
6 commits grand larceny of a motor vehicle is guilty of a category C felony and shall 7 be punished as provided in NRS 193.130. A person who is convicted of grand 8 larceny of a motor vehicle and who has previously been convicted of grand 9 larceny of a motor vehicle or [another crime involving the theft] an attempt to 10 commit grand larceny of a motor vehicle must not be released on probation or 11 granted a suspension of his sentence.

12 3. If the prosecuting attorney proves that the value of the motor vehicle 13 involved in the grand larceny is $2,500 or more, the person who committed the 14 grand larceny of the motor vehicle is guilty of a category B felony and shall be 15 punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a minimum term of not less than 1
16 year and a maximum term of not more than 10 years, and by a fine of not more than 17 $10,000.

18 4. In addition to any other penalty, the court shall order the person who 19 committed the grand larceny of the motor vehicle to pay restitution.

20 Sec. 2. NRS 205.273 is hereby amended to read as follows:

21 205.273 1. A person commits an offense involving a stolen vehicle if the 22 person:

23 (a) With the intent to procure or pass title to a motor vehicle which he knows 24 or has reason to believe has been stolen, receives or transfers possession of the 25 vehicle from or to another person; or

26 (b) Has in his possession a motor vehicle which he knows or has reason to 27 believe has been stolen.

28 2. The provisions of subsection 1 do not apply to an officer of the law if the 29 officer is engaged in the performance of his duty as an officer at the time of the 30 receipt, transfer or possession of the stolen vehicle.

31 3. Except as otherwise provided in ~~subsection 4.] this section~~, a person who 32 violates the provisions of subsection 1 is guilty of a category C felony and shall be 33 punished as provided in NRS 193.130. *A person who is convicted of an offense
34 involving a stolen vehicle and who has previously been convicted of an offense 35 involving a stolen vehicle or [another crime involving the theft of a motor] an 36 attempt to commit an offense involving a stolen vehicle must not be released on 37 probation or granted a suspension of his sentence.*

38 4. If the prosecuting attorney proves that the value of the vehicle involved is 39 $2,500 or more, the person who violated the provisions of subsection 1 is guilty of 40 a category B felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a
41 minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 10
42 years, and by a fine of not more than $10,000.

43 5. In addition to any other penalty, the court shall order the person to pay
44 restitution.

45 6. For the purposes of this section, the value of a vehicle shall be deemed to 46 be the highest value attributable to the vehicle by any reasonable standard.

47 Sec. 3. The amendatory provisions of this act apply to offenses committed
48 before October 1, 2007, for the purpose of determining whether a person is subject

1 to the provisions of subsection 2 of NRS 205.228 or subsection 3 of NRS 205.273,
2 as amended by this act.
