AN ACT relating to education; revising provisions governing homeschooled children; requiring the board of trustees of each school district to post certain information concerning examinations on its Internet website and ensure that homeschooled children have notice of the website; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, compulsory attendance in public school is required of children between the ages of 7 and 17 years. (NRS 392.040) Compulsory attendance is excused if satisfactory written evidence is presented to the board of trustees of the school district in which the child resides that the child is receiving at home or in some other school equivalent instruction of the kind and amount approved by the State Board of Education. (NRS 392.070) Sections ~~3 and~~ 5 and 7 of this bill excuse compulsory attendance if a child is enrolled in a private school or if a notice of intent to homeschool the child is filed with the superintendent of schools of the school district in which the child resides. Sections ~~1 and 5~~ 2 and 7 of this bill authorize the board of trustees of a school district or the governing body of a charter school, as applicable, to require a birth certificate or other documentation to prove the identity of the homeschooled child who wishes to participate in certain activities and classes offered by the public schools in this State and requires such proof under certain circumstances.

Section ~~4~~ 5 of this bill sets forth requirements concerning a notice of intent to homeschool and establishes certain rights for a child that is being homeschooled and the parents of that child. Section 5.5 of this bill sets forth requirements concerning notice of intent of a homeschooled child to participate in programs and activities, which must be filed before a homeschooled child may participate in certain classes, activities and programs in a public school or through a school district, or through the Nevada Interscholastic Activities Association.

Under existing law, the State Board of Education is required to prescribe the courses of study required for promotion to high school. (NRS 392.033) Section ~~4~~ 6 of this bill prescribes the information that must be provided by a homeschooled child who wishes to enroll in a public high school to demonstrate competency in those courses of study or successful completion of those courses.

Section ~~2-5~~ 4 of this bill requires the board of trustees of each school district to maintain on its Internet website pertinent information concerning the examinations available to children in the school district. Section ~~4~~ 5 of this bill requires each school district to ensure that homeschooled children who reside in the school district have adequate notice of the availability of the website.
