

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to protective orders; authorizing a victim of a sexual assault to seek a protective order against the person who allegedly committed the sexual assault; establishing procedures for obtaining such orders; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes a victim of stalking, harassment or aggravated stalking to seek a temporary or extended protective order against the person who allegedly committed the crime against the victim. (NRS 200.591) Existing law also: (1) provides for the deferment of fees related to such orders; (2) fixes the duration of such orders; (3) provides for such orders to be transmitted to and enforced by law enforcement; and (4) requires the court to provide a victim with a copy of the court order if a condition of the defendant's sentence restricts the ability of the defendant to have contact with the victim. (NRS 200.592-200.601)

Section 3 of this bill similarly authorizes a victim of sexual assault to seek a temporary or extended order of protection against the person who allegedly committed the sexual assault against him. Sections 4-7 of this bill provide the same requirements for fees, duration, transmission, enforcement and information provided for such orders of protection for a victim of sexual assault as are provided in existing law for similar orders of protection for a victim of stalking, harassment or aggravated stalking.

Section 1 of this bill includes a violation of a temporary or extended order of protection against a person who allegedly committed a sexual assault to the list of violations which may result in an additional penalty. (NRS 193.166)

Section 9 of this bill expands the jurisdiction of justice courts to include actions for the issuance of a temporary or extended order of protection against a person who allegedly committed a sexual assault. (NRS 4.370)

Section 11 of this bill exempts actions involving orders of protection for a victim of sexual assault from the requirement that the Supreme Court adopt rules and procedures for jury trials in justices' courts that are designed to limit the length of such trials. (NRS 67.060)
