CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to animals; prohibiting a person from owning, possessing, keeping, training, promoting or purchasing an animal with the intent to use it to fight another animal or from selling an animal knowing that it is intended to be used to fight another animal; revising the provisions regarding witnesses to such fights; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law prohibits a person from instigating, promoting or in any way engaging in the furtherance of any fight between animals in an exhibition or for amusement or gain which is premeditated by a person who owns or has custody of the animals. (NRS 574.070) This bill prohibits a person from owning, possessing, keeping, training, promoting or purchasing an animal with the intent to use it to fight another animal or from selling an animal knowing that it is intended to be used to fight another animal. If a person commits such a violation, he is guilty of a gross misdemeanor for a first offense, a category E felony for a second offense and a category D felony for a third or subsequent offense.

Under existing law, a person is prohibited from witnessing any fight between animals in an exhibition or for amusement or gain. This bill requires a person to knowingly witness such a fight in order to be guilty of a violation.
