AN ACT relating to the State Legislature; revising provisions governing the Interim Finance Committee; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, the Interim Finance Committee is created in the Legislative Counsel Bureau to perform certain fiscal functions primarily during the legislative interims. The Interim Finance Committee is composed of the members of the Assembly Standing Committee on Ways and Means and the Senate Standing Committee on Finance, known as the money committees, during the current or immediately preceding legislative session. (NRS 218.6825)

Under existing law, the chairmanship of the Interim Finance Committee alternates each legislative interim between the immediate past Chairman of the money committee of each House of the Legislature. The term of the Chairman of the Interim Finance Committee extends from the convening of one legislative session until the convening of the next legislative session. (NRS 218.6825) This bill provides that the term of the Chairman of the Interim Finance Committee terminates before the convening of the next regular session of the Legislature if a new Chairman of the applicable money committee has been designated, after the intervening general election, for the next regular session of the Legislature.

Existing law provides that the membership on the Interim Finance Committee of any member who does not become a candidate for reelection or who is defeated for reelection continues until the convening of the next legislative session. (NRS 218.6825) This bill terminates the membership of such a member on the day next

20 after the general election, which is the same day on which his term of office as a
21 Legislator ends. (Nev. Const. Art. 4, §§ 3, 4) This bill provides for the appointment
22 of an alternate to fill the vacancy until the members of the applicable money
23 committee have been designated for the ensuing regular session of the Legislature
24 or until another alternate has been appointed. This bill also provides that the 25 persons designated to serve on the money committees for the ensuing regular 26 session become members of the Interim Finance Committee at the time those 27 persons are so designated.
