CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to the State Legislature; revising provisions governing the Legislative Commission and the Interim Finance Committee; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law creates the Legislative Commission, consisting of 12 members, and requires the Legislature to determine by joint rule at each regular session the following for the Legislative Commission: (1) the method of determining the regular and alternate members; (2) the method for filling vacancies; (3) the terms of office of the members; and (4) the method of selecting and the term of office for the Chairman. (NRS 218.660) Subsection 5 of Joint Standing Rule No. 11 adopted by the 2009 Legislative Session provides that the membership of a member of the Legislative Commission who does not become a candidate for reelection or who is defeated for reelection terminates on the day next after the election and requires the vacancy to be filled as provided in the Rule. Section 1 of this bill codifies in statute the provisions of the Joint Standing Rule concerning the termination of the membership of a member of the Legislative Commission who does not become a candidate for reelection or who is defeated.

Under existing law, the Interim Finance Committee is created in the Legislative Counsel Bureau to perform certain fiscal functions primarily during the legislative interims. The Interim Finance Committee is composed of the members of the Assembly Standing Committee on Ways and Means and the Senate Standing Committee on Finance, known as the money committees, during the current or immediately preceding legislative session. (NRS 218.6825)

Under existing law, the chairmanship of the Interim Finance Committee alternates each legislative interim between the immediate past Chairman of the money committee of each House of the Legislature. The term of the Chairman of the Interim Finance Committee extends from the convening of one legislative session until the convening of the next legislative session. (NRS 218.6825) Section 2 of this bill provides that the term of the Chairman of the Interim Finance Committee terminates before the convening of the next regular session of the Legislature if a new Chairman of the applicable money committee has been designated, after the intervening general election, for the next regular session of the Legislature.

Existing law provides that the membership on the Interim Finance Committee of any member who does not become a candidate for reelection or who is defeated for reelection continues until the convening of the next legislative session. (NRS 218.6825) Section 2 of this bill terminates the membership of such a member on the day next after the general election, which is the same day on which his term of office as a Legislator ends. (Nev. Const. Art. 4, §§ 3, 4) Section 2 provides for the appointment of an alternate to fill the vacancy until the members of the applicable money committee have been designated for the ensuing regular session of the Legislature or until another alternate has been appointed. Section 2 also provides that the persons designated to serve on the money committees for the ensuing regular session become members of the Interim Finance Committee at the time those persons are so designated.
