AN ACT relating to the State Legislature; revising provisions governing the Legislative Commission and the Interim Finance Committee; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law creates the Legislative Commission, consisting of 12 members, 2 and requires the Legislature to determine by joint rule at each regular session the 3 following for the Legislative Commission: (1) the method of determining the 4 regular and alternate members; (2) the method for filling vacancies; (3) the terms of 5 office of the members; and (4) the method of selecting and the term of office for the 6 Chairman. (NRS 218.660) Subsection 5 of Joint Standing Rule No. 11 adopted by 7 the 2009 Legislative Session provides that the membership of a member of the 8 Legislative Commission who does not become a candidate for reelection or who is 9 defeated for reelection terminates on the day next after the election and requires the 10 vacancy to be filled as provided in the Rule. Section 1 of this bill codifies in statute 11 the provisions of the Joint Standing Rule concerning the termination of the 12 membership of a member of the Legislative Commission who does not become a 13 candidate for reelection or who is defeated.

14 Under existing law, the Interim Finance Committee is created in the Legislative 15 Counsel Bureau to perform certain fiscal functions primarily during the legislative 16 interims. The Interim Finance Committee is composed of the members of the 17 Assembly Standing Committee on Ways and Means and the Senate Standing

18 Committee on Finance, known as the money committees, during the current or 19 immediately preceding legislative session. (NRS 218.6825)

20 Under existing law, the chairmanship of the Interim Finance Committee 21 alternates each legislative interim between the immediate past Chairman of the 22 money committee of each House of the Legislature. The term of the Chairman of the 23 Interim Finance Committee extends from the convening of one legislative 24 session until the convening of the next legislative session. (NRS 218.6825) Section
25 2 of this bill provides that the term of the Chairman of the Interim Finance 26 Committee terminates before the convening of the next regular session of the 27 Legislature if a new Chairman of the applicable money committee has been 28 designated, after the intervening general election, for the next regular session of the 29 Legislature.

30 Existing law provides that the membership on the Interim Finance Committee 31 of any member who does not become a candidate for reelection or who is defeated 32 for reelection continues until the convening of the next legislative session. (NRS 33 218.6825) Section 2 of this bill terminates the membership of such a member on 34 the day next after the general election, which is the same day on which his term of 35 office as a Legislator ends. (Nev. Const. Art. 4, §§ 3, 4) Section 2 provides for the 36 appointment of an alternate to fill the vacancy until the members of the applicable 37 money committee have been designated for the ensuing regular session of the 38 Legislature or until another alternate has been appointed. Section 2 also provides 39 that the persons designated to serve on the money committees for the ensuing 40 regular session become members of the Interim Finance Committee at the time 41 those persons are so designated.
