

Assembly Bill No. 257—Assemblymen Kihuen, Horne, Anderson; Claborn, Conklin, Denis, Dondero Loop, McClain, Mortenson, Munford, Oceguera, Ohrenschall and Segerblom

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to crimes; prohibiting the taking of an excessive number of certain free publications under certain circumstances; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law defines the crime of theft and provides that theft is punishable as a misdemeanor if the value of the property involved in the theft is less than $250. (NRS 205.0832, 205.0835) Existing law also defines the crime of petit larceny and provides that petit larceny is punishable as a misdemeanor if the value of the personal goods or property involved in the petit larceny is less than $250. (NRS 205.240)

Section 1 of this bill, which is modeled after California Penal Code § 490.7, generally prohibits a person from taking more than 10 copies of a free or complimentary periodical if the person has the specific intent to: (1) profit by recycling the periodical; (2) sell or barter the periodical; (3) deprive others of the opportunity to read the periodical; or (4) harm a business competitor. Section 1 provides that a person who commits a first offense is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of up to $250, and for a second or subsequent offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by up to 10 days in jail or a fine of up to $500, or both. The court may also order a person convicted of a first or second offense to perform community service in lieu of all or a part of the punishment.

Sections 1-3 of the bill also clarify that a violation of section 1 does not constitute the crime of theft or petit larceny.

WHEREAS, Free publications provide an important source of information to the public and a valuable alternative to the news and ideas expressed in other local media, thereby contributing to the marketplace of ideas; and

WHEREAS, The Nevada Legislature should attempt to ensure that the marketplace of ideas is preserved and that contributors to that marketplace, such as free publications, are protected from improper and injurious interference with their mission; and

WHEREAS, The unauthorized taking of an excessive number of copies of free publications impoverishes the marketplace of ideas and injures the rights of a free publication's readers, writers, publishers and advertisers; now, therefore,
