CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to personal identifying information; prohibiting a business from printing certain information concerning a credit card or debit card on any copy of a receipt retained by the business; prohibiting a person from providing machines that do not allow a business to comply with the prohibition against printing certain information; providing civil and criminal penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing state and federal laws prohibit a person who accepts credit cards or debit cards for the transaction of business from printing the expiration date of the card or more than the last five digits of the account number of the card on any receipt provided to the cardholder. (NRS 597.945; 15 U.S.C. § 1681c(g)) Section 2 of this bill prohibits a business from printing more than the last five digits of the account number of the card on any copy of the receipt that is retained by the business that accepted the card. Additionally, section 2 prescribes a civil penalty of $500 for a business that violates these provisions and an additional penalty of $1,000 per week for a business that does not correct the violation. The aggregate amount of civil penalties imposed on a business for violations of these provisions which occur on the same premises must not exceed $4,500. Finally, section 2 authorizes the Attorney General or a district attorney to: (1) recover the civil penalties in a civil action; and (2) bring an action to enjoin any violation of the provisions of section 2. A business that violates any order or injunction issued to enjoin a violation of the provisions of section 2 is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Section 3 of this bill exempts from the applicability of section 2, from July 1, 2009, to December 31, 2009, a business that does not have the ability to control or adjust the manner in which a receipt is electronically printed.

Section 1 of this bill prohibits a manufacturer or a supplier from providing, selling or leasing a cash register or other machine or device that does not allow a business to comply with the provisions of section 2. Section 1 also authorizes the Attorney General or a district attorney to bring an action to enjoin any violation of the provisions of section 1. A person who violates any order or injunction issued to enjoin a violation of the provisions of section 1 is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.
