FILE NUMBER.....

ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION—Memorializing native Nevadan and public servant David H. Fulstone II.

WHEREAS, David H. “Davey” Fulstone II, whose Lyon County family roots can be traced back to the 1800s, was born in Yerington on December 23, 1950, to David and Angelina Fulstone and lived in Yerington for his entire life; and

WHEREAS, This native Nevadan spent over 40 years farming with his father and was a staunch activist for agricultural issues and matters related to the Walker River as he kept abreast of current issues and tried to preserve the local heritage and way of life; and

WHEREAS, On September 10, 1977, David married his beloved wife Diane Reynolds, whose lifelong support, including accompanying him to Israel to study water conservation techniques and different methods of farming, was invaluable in every aspect of his life; and

WHEREAS, Because of his devotion to issues that were important to Mason Valley, this mentor and leader was actively involved in public service, serving on the Lyon County Board of Commissioners for 8 years, on the National Commission on Agricultural Finance as an appointee of President Reagan, on the Board of Directors of the Walker River Irrigation District and as President of the Nevada Farm Bureau for 10 years, during which he traveled to five European countries and to Japan on trade missions; and

WHEREAS, His community service also included membership in and two terms as President of the Rotary Club of Yerington, by which he was recognized as a Paul Harris Fellow, service on the Board of the Mason Valley Fire Protection District, membership in the Walker Basin Project Stakeholders Group and the establishment of a popular, local radio talk show; and

WHEREAS, In an effort to improve people's lives in our State and throughout the world, this dedicated Nevadan served on the Desert Research Institute Research Foundation Board; and

WHEREAS, One of the greatest attestations to a life well-lived is the praise of those who know a person best, and Davey's friends, neighbors and those with whom he worked offer the highest praise for him and express the hole his absence leaves in their hearts and in all of Lyon County because of his unique place in the community; and

WHEREAS, David Fulstone is survived by his wife Diane, his two sons Joshua and Jeffrey, his father David, his sister DeeAnn and innumerable friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the members of the 75th Nevada Legislature wish to express their sincerest condolences to the family and friends of Davey Fulstone; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the best way to honor this dedicated public servant is for each individual Nevadan to follow his example of service to the community and the State and continually strive to advance the causes in which he believes; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to Davey's loving wife Diane and his sons Joshua and Jeffrey.
