ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION—Ratifying a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States providing that equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under Article V of the United States Constitution, Congress has the power to propose an amendment to the federal Constitution and to determine the mode of ratification. (U.S. Const. art. V) In 1972, Congress passed the Equal Rights Amendment and sent it to the states for ratification, imposing a 7-year time limit for ratification, but later extended this time limit to June 30, 1982. The Equal Rights Amendment was ratified by 35 states before the deadline. Under Coleman v. Miller, 307 U.S. 433, at 450, 456 (1939), the United States Supreme Court held that, as a political question, Congress may determine whether an amendment is valid because ratifications of the amendment are made in a reasonable period of time, even after the deadline. This resolution ratifies the Equal Rights Amendment, which provides for equality of rights under the law regardless of sex.

1 WHEREAS, Both houses of the 92nd Congress of the United
2 States of America, by a constitutional majority of two-thirds thereof, 3 adopted the following resolution proposing to amend the 4 Constitution of the United States of America:

5 RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF
6 REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
7 IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED (TWO-THIRDS OF EACH 8 HOUSE CONCURRING THEREIN), That the following article is 9 proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, 10 which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the 11 Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the 12 several States within seven years from the date of its submission by 13 the Congress:

14 ARTICLE

15 Section 1. Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied 16 or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex.

17 Section 2. The Congress shall have the power to enforce, by 18 appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

19 Section 3. This amendment shall take effect two years after the 20 date of ratification; and

21 WHEREAS, The 95th Congress of the United States purported to 22 amend the resolution of the 92nd Congress to extend the time for 23 ratification to June 30, 1982, thereby indicating its continued 24 support of the amendment; and

25 WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States has adopted the 26 27th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which 27 was proposed in 1789 by our First Congress, only recently ratified 28 by three-fourths of the States and, on May 18, 1992, certified as the 29 27th Amendment; and

30 WHEREAS, The restricting time limit for the Equal Rights 31 Amendment ratification is in the resolving clause and is not part of 32 the amendment which was proposed by Congress and which has 33 already been ratified by 35 states; and

34 WHEREAS, Having passed a time extension for the Equal Rights
35 Amendment on October 20, 1978, Congress has demonstrated that a 36 time limit in a resolving clause can be disregarded if it is not part of 37 the proposed amendment; and

38 WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court in *Coleman v.
39 Miller*, 307 U.S. 433 (1939), recognized that Congress is in a unique 40 position to judge the tenor of the nation, to be aware of the political, 41 social and economic factors affecting the nation and to be aware of 42 the importance to the nation of the proposed amendment; and

43 WHEREAS, If an amendment to the Constitution of the United 44 States has been proposed by two-thirds of both houses of Congress 45 and ratified by three-fourths of the state legislatures, it is for

* A J R 3 *

1 Congress, under the principles of Coleman v. Miller, to determine 2 the validity of the state ratifications occurring after a time limit in 3 the resolving clause, but not in the amendment itself; and

4 WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of Nevada finds that the 5 proposed amendment is meaningful and needed as part of the 6 Constitution of the United States and that the present political, social 7 and economic conditions demonstrate that constitutional equality for 8 women and men continues to be a timely issue in the United States;
9 now, therefore, be it

10 RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF 11 NEVADA, JOINTLY, That the proposed amendment to the 12 Constitution of the United States of America is hereby ratified by 13 the Legislature of the State of Nevada; and be it further

14 RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and 15 transmit a copy of this resolution to the Secretary of State for his 16 certification and transmittal to the Archivist of the United States
17 pursuant to 1 U.S.C. §§ 106b and 112; and be it further

18 RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and 19 transmit a copy of this resolution to the Vice President of the United 20 States as the presiding officer of the United States Senate, the 21 Speaker of the House of Representatives and each member of the 22 Nevada Congressional Delegation; and be it further

23 RESOLVED, That this resolution becomes effective upon 24 passage.
