

Senate Bill No. 100—Committee on Judiciary

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to driving under the influence; revising the provisions governing the period of revocation of a driver's license upon conviction of certain offenses involving driving under the influence; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, the driver's license of a person convicted of driving under the influence is revoked for a certain period depending upon whether the violation is punishable as a first, second or third or subsequent violation that occurs within a period of 7 years. (NRS 483.460) This bill provides that the period of revocation of the driver's license of such a person must be based upon the total number of previous violations within a period of 7 years, regardless of how the violation is treated for sentencing purposes.
