AN ACT relating to civil liability; limiting the liability of certain nonprofit organizations and their agents, employees and volunteers under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, nonprofit organizations are subject to liability in civil actions for injuries or damages caused by the negligent or wrongful acts of the organization or its agents or employees acting within the scope of their agency or employment. (NRS 41.480)

Section 1 of this bill provides for a limit of $100,000 on the amount of damages that may be awarded in certain civil actions against a nonprofit organization which is created for religious, charitable or educational purposes or against its agents, employees or volunteers acting within the scope of their agency, employment or volunteer service. The limitation on the amount of damages applies to civil actions sounding in tort if the tort occurred in the course of any activity carried on to accomplish directly the religious, charitable or educational purposes of the nonprofit organization. However, the limitation on the amount of damages does not apply to torts occurring in the course of an activity primarily commercial in character, even if the activity was carried on to obtain revenue to be used for the religious, charitable or educational purposes of the nonprofit organization.

In addition, section 1 does not apply to nonprofit organizations which are created for: (1) political, partisan or campaign purposes; (2) purposes relating to public advocacy of legal, social or political issues; or (3) financial, industrial, agricultural, commercial, trade or business purposes.

Finally, this bill does not change existing law which provides immunity from liability for volunteers of charitable organizations under certain circumstances. (NRS 41.485)
