

Senate Bill No. 207—Committee on Commerce and Labor

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to public accommodations; revising provisions relating to unlawful discrimination based on sexual orientation in places of public accommodation; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, Nevada has declared as its public policy the right of all people to have access to places of public accommodation without discrimination based on race, religious creed, color, age, sex, disability, sexual orientation, national origin or ancestry. (NRS 233.010) Existing law makes it unlawful for places of public accommodation to discriminate against a person based on race, color, religion, national origin or disability. (NRS 651.070) Section 2 of this bill provides the same protection from discrimination based on sexual orientation in places of public accommodation.

Existing law authorizes the Nevada Equal Rights Commission to investigate cases of discrimination in places of public accommodation and authorizes a person who believes he has been discriminated against based on race, color, religion, national origin or disability to file a complaint with the Commission. (NRS 233.150, 651.110) Section 3 of this bill authorizes a person who believes he has been discriminated against based on sexual orientation to file a complaint with the Commission.
