AN ACT relating to local governmental planning; extending the validity of certain building permits and development agreements for a maximum of 15 years beyond the original expiration date if the land is leased for renewable energy generation projects; providing that certain changes to regulations or laws which are made after the issuance of the permit or the time the agreement is entered into, and which apply environmental restrictions to the land, apply to the permit; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

- 1 Existing law prohibits construction without a building permit issued by the 2 building official with authority over the land where any proposed construction
3 would take place. (NRS 278.610) Existing law also authorizes the governing body 4 of a city or county to enter into an agreement with a person concerning the 5 development of land. (NRS 278.0201) This bill extends the validity of any such 6 permit or agreement beyond its original expiration date if: (1) the permit holder or 7 landowner cannot finance the proposed project; and (2) the land is leased for certain 8 renewable energy projects. The extension is available for permits and agreements 9 for residential and commercial development for a maximum of 15 years after the 10 original expiration date of the permit or agreement. This bill also provides that if a 11 building permit or development agreement is extended, no condition may be placed 12 on the permit or agreement that was not imposed on the original permit or 13 agreement. Additionally, this bill provides that new regulations or laws that apply

14 environmental protections to the land in question would also apply, but other 15 zoning changes enacted after the issuance of the permit would not.
