AN ACT relating to local governmental administration; directing the Legislative Commission to conduct an interim study of the powers delegated to local governments; requiring the Legislative Commission to appoint an Interim Technical Advisory Committee for Intergovernmental Relations; providing for the administration and specifying the duties of the Interim Technical Advisory Committee; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1      Section 8 of this bill directs the Legislative Commission to conduct an interim
2      study concerning the powers delegated to local governments, including the 3      feasibility of increasing the powers of local governments related to taxation.

4      Section 9 of this bill requires the Legislative Commission to appoint an Interim
5      Technical Advisory Committee for Intergovernmental Relations, composed of six
6      representatives of local governments and three representatives of state agencies.
7      The purpose of the committee is to foster communication and cooperation among 8      the State Government and local governments. The Committee is charged with 9      serving as a forum for discussion among governments, engaging in activities and 10     conducting studies on issues relating to state and local governments, and reporting
11     to the interim committee appointed pursuant to section 8 of this bill.

WHEREAS, In 1868, Judge John F. Dillon of the Iowa Supreme Court established in Merriam v. Moody's Executors, 25 Iowa 163 (1868), a common law rule of statutory interpretation known as Dillon's Rule, which limits the powers of local governments; and

5 WHEREAS, Under Dillon's Rule, a local government possesses
6 and can exercise only those powers which are: (1) granted in express
7 words; (2) necessarily or fairly implied in or incident to the powers
8 expressly granted; or (3) essential to the accomplishment of the 9 declared objects and purposes of the local government and which 10 are not simply convenient, but indispensable; and

WHEREAS, The Nevada Supreme Court has cited Dillon's Rule in several opinions; and

WHEREAS, Allowing greater autonomy for local governments in this State may promote more efficient use of limited governmental resources; now, therefore,

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 2. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 3. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 4. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 5. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 6. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 7. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 8. 1. The Legislative Commission shall appoint an interim committee to conduct a study of the powers of local governments in this State. The study must include, without limitation:

(a) An examination of:

(I) The structure, formation, function and powers of local governments in this State;

(2) The potential fiscal impact in this State resulting from abolishing Dillon's Rule;

(3) The feasibility of increasing the powers of local governments in this State; and

(4) The experiences of states that have rejected Dillon's Rule; and

(b) The consideration of any recommendations submitted to the interim committee pursuant to section 9 of this act.

2. The interim committee must be composed of six Legislators, one of whom must be appointed as Chairman of the committee, as follows:

* S B ? 6 4 B ? *

1       (a) The Chairman of the Senate Standing Committee on
2 Government Affairs;

3       (b) The Chairman of the Assembly Standing Committee on
4 Government Affairs;

5       (c) One member appointed by the Majority Leader of the 6 Senate;

7       (d) One member appointed by the Minority Leader of the 8 Senate;

9       (e) One member appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly; and

10      (f) One member appointed by the Minority Leader of the 11 Assembly.

12      3. To assist with the study, the Chairman of the interim
13 committee may appoint a technical advisory committee consisting 14 of representatives of local governments in this State, who serve
15 without salary, but are entitled to receive the per diem allowance
16 and travel expenses provided for state officers and employees
17 generally.

18      4. Any recommended legislation proposed by the interim
19 committee must be approved by a majority of members of the 20 Senate and a majority of the members of the Assembly appointed to 21 the Committee.

22      5. On or before February 1, 2011, the Legislative Commission
23 shall submit a report of the results of the study conducted pursuant 24 to this section and any recommendation for legislation to the 25 Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau for transmission to the 26 76th Session of the Nevada Legislature.

27      Sec. 9. 1. The Legislative Commission shall, as soon as 28 practicable after July 1, 2009, appoint an Interim Technical 29 Advisory Committee for Intergovernmental Relations, consisting of:

30       (a) Six representative of local governments in this State; and

31       (b) Three representatives of agencies of this State.

32      2. The purpose of the Interim Technical Advisory Committee
33 is to foster effective communication, cooperation and partnerships
34 among the State Government and local governments to improve the 35 provision of governmental services to the people of this State.

36      3. The Interim Technical Advisory Committee shall elect from 37 among its membership and by majority vote a Chairman and Vice 38 Chairman.

39      4. The Interim Technical Advisory Committee shall meet at 40 least once every 3 months and at such additional times as may be 41 deemed necessary by the Chairman. A majority of the members of 42 the Committee constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business,
43 and a majority of those members present at any meeting is sufficient
44 for any official action taken by the committee.

* S B 2 6 4 R 2 *

1       5. Each member of the Interim Technical Advisory Committee
2 who is an officer or employee of the State or a local government
3 must be relieved from his duties without loss of his regular 4 compensation so that he may prepare for and attend meetings of the 5 Committee and perform any work necessary to accomplish the work
6 of the Committee in the most timely manner practicable. A state
7 agency or local government shall not require an officer or employee
8 who is a member of the Committee to make up the time he is absent
9 from work to fulfill his obligations as a member, nor shall it require 10 the member to take annual vacation or compensatory time for the 11 absence. Such a member shall serve on the Committee without 12 additional compensation, except that while he is engaged in the 13 business of the Committee, he is entitled to receive the per diem
14 allowance and travel expenses provided for state officers and 15 employees generally, which must be paid by the state agency or 16 local government which employs him.

17     6. The Nevada Association of Counties and the Nevada League
18 of Cities and Municipalities shall provide the Interim Technical 19 Advisory Committee with administrative support.

20     7. The Interim Technical Advisory Committee shall:

21       (a) Serve as a forum for the discussion and resolution of 22 intergovernmental problems among the State Government and local
23 governments;

24       (b) Engage in activities and conduct studies relating to, without 25 limitation:

26           (1) The structure of local governments;

27           (2) The functions and powers, including, without limitation,
28 fiscal powers, of local governments;

29           (3) Relationships among the State Government and local
30 governments;

31           (4) The allocation of state and local resources; and

32           (5) Any appropriate legislation to be recommended to the 33 interim committee appointed pursuant to section 8 of this act; and

34       (c) On or before June 1, 2010, submit to the interim committee
35 appointed pursuant to section 8 of this act:

36           (1) A recommendation regarding the need for a permanent 37 Nevada Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations; and

38           (2) Any other recommendations for appropriate legislation
39 resulting from any reviews or studies conducted by the Interim
40 Technical Advisory Committee.

41      8. As used in this section:

42       (a) "Agency" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 233B.031.

43       (b) "Local government" has the meaning ascribed to it in 44 NRS 354.474.
