EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [~~omitted material~~] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to industrial insurance; authorizing the surviving spouse of a deceased employee to continue to receive death benefits under industrial insurance after the surviving spouse remarries; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Section 2 of this bill revises provisions relating to the death benefit that is paid 2 to the surviving spouse of an employee under industrial insurance to eliminate the 3 requirement that death benefit payments cease upon the remarriage of the surviving
4 spouse. (NRS 616C.505)

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 616C.070 is hereby amended to read as 2 follows:
3 616C.070 1. A person is conclusively presumed to be totally 4 dependent upon an injured or deceased employee if:
5 (a) The person is a natural, posthumous or adopted child,
6 whether legitimate or illegitimate, under the age of 18 years; or 7 (b) The person is a natural, posthumous or adopted child, there
8 is no surviving parent and the person is:
9 (1) Over the age of 18 years and physically or mentally
10 incapacitated from wage earning; or

* S B 3 6 3 *

1 (2) Over the age of 18 years but under the age of 22 years
2 and enrolled as a full-time student in an accredited vocational or 3 educational institution.

4 2. Stepparents may be regarded in chapters 616A to 616D,
5 inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS as parents if the fact of 6 dependency is shown, and a stepchild or stepchildren may be 7 regarded in chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of 8 NRS as a natural child or children if the existence and fact of 9 dependency are shown.

10 3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection ~~14~~ 13 of NRS
11 616C.505, questions as to who constitute dependents and the extent 12 of their dependency must be determined as of the date of the 13 accident or injury to the employee, and their right to any benefit 14 becomes fixed at that time, irrespective of any subsequent change in 15 conditions, and the benefits are directly recoverable by and payable 16 to the dependent or dependents entitled thereto or to their legal 17 guardians or trustees.

18 4. The presumptions of this section do not apply in favor of 19 aliens who are nonresidents of the United States at the time of the 20 accident, injury to, or death of the employee.

21 Sec. 2. NRS 616C.505 is hereby amended to read as follows:

22 616C.505 If an injury by accident arising out of and in the 23 course of employment causes the death of an employee in the 24 employ of an employer, within the provisions of chapters 616A to 25 616D, inclusive, of NRS, the compensation is known as a death
26 benefit and is payable as follows:

27 1. In addition to any other compensation payable pursuant to 28 chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, burial expenses are 29 payable in an amount not to exceed $5,000. When the remains of the 30 deceased employee and the person accompanying the remains are to 31 be transported to a mortuary or mortuaries, the charge of 32 transportation must be borne by the insurer.

33 2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 , ~~and NRS~~
34 ~~616C.507,~~ to the surviving spouse of the deceased employee, 66
35 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage is payable until his death .
36 ~~for remarriage, with 2 years' compensation payable in one lump~~
37 ~~sum upon remarriage.]~~

38 3. If there is a surviving spouse and any surviving children of 39 the deceased employee who are not the children of the surviving
40 spouse, the compensation otherwise payable pursuant to subsection 41 2 must be paid as follows until the entitlement of all children of the 42 deceased employee to receive compensation pursuant to this 43 subsection ceases:

* S B 3 6 3 *

1 (a) To the surviving spouse, 50 percent of the death benefit is
2 payable until his death ; ~~for remarriage, with 2 years' compensation 3 payable in one lump sum upon remarriage;~~ and

4 (b) To each child of the deceased employee, regardless of 5 whether the child is the child of the surviving spouse, his 6 proportionate share of 50 percent of the death benefit and, except as 7 otherwise provided in subsection ~~12,~~ 11, if the child has a
8 guardian, the compensation he is entitled to receive may be paid to 9 the guardian.

10 4. In the event of the subsequent death of the surviving spouse:

11 (a) Each surviving child of the deceased employee, in addition
12 to any amount the child may be entitled to pursuant to subsection 3, 13 must share equally the compensation theretofore paid to the 14 surviving spouse but not in excess thereof, and it is payable until the 15 youngest child reaches the age of 18 years.

16 (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection ~~12,~~ 11, if the 17 children have a guardian, the compensation they are entitled to 18 receive may be paid to the guardian.

19 5. ~~[Upon the remarriage of a surviving spouse with children:~~

20 ~~(a) The surviving spouse must be paid 2 years' compensation in 21 one lump sum and further benefits must cease; and~~

22 ~~(b) Each child must be paid 15 percent of the average monthly 23 wage, up to a maximum family benefit of 66 2/3 percent of the 24 average monthly wage.~~

25 ~~→ The provisions of this subsection do not apply to the remarriage 26 of a surviving spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter if the 27 provisions of NRS 616C.507 apply to the surviving spouse.~~

28 6.] If there are any surviving children of the deceased
29 employee under the age of 18 years, but no surviving spouse, then 30 each such child is entitled to his proportionate share of 66 2/3
31 percent of the average monthly wage for his support.

32 ~~7.]~~ 6. Except as otherwise provided in subsection ~~8,~~ 7, if 33 there is no surviving spouse or child under the age of 18 years, there 34 must be paid:

35 (a) To a parent, if wholly dependent for support upon the 36 deceased employee at the time of the injury causing his death,
37 33 1/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

38 (b) To both parents, if wholly dependent for support upon the 39 deceased employee at the time of the injury causing his death,
40 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

41 (c) To each brother or sister until he or she reaches the age of 18
42 years, if wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee 43 at the time of the injury causing his death, his proportionate share of 44 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

* S B 3 6 3 *

1 [8.] 7. The aggregate compensation payable pursuant to 2 subsection [7] 6 must not exceed 66 2/3 percent of the average
3 monthly wage.

4 [9.] 8. In all other cases involving a question of total or partial 5 dependency:

6 (a) The extent of the dependency must be determined in 7 accordance with the facts existing at the time of the injury.

8 (b) If the deceased employee leaves dependents only partially 9 dependent upon his earnings for support at the time of the injury
10 causing his death, the monthly compensation to be paid must be 11 equal to the same proportion of the monthly payments for the 12 benefit of persons totally dependent as the amount contributed by 13 the deceased employee to the partial dependents bears to the average
14 monthly wage of the deceased employee at the time of the injury
15 resulting in his death.

16 (c) The duration of compensation to partial dependents must be 17 fixed in accordance with the facts shown, but may not exceed 18 compensation for 100 months.

19 [10.] 9. Compensation payable to a surviving spouse is for the 20 use and benefit of the surviving spouse and the dependent children, 21 and the insurer may, from time to time, apportion such 22 compensation between them in such a way as it deems best for the 23 interest of all dependents.

24 [11.] 10. In the event of the death of any dependent specified 25 in this section before the expiration of the time during which 26 compensation is payable to him, funeral expenses are payable in an 27 amount not to exceed $5,000.

28 [12.] 11. If a dependent is entitled to receive a death benefit 29 pursuant to this section and is less than 18 years of age or 30 incompetent, the legal representative of the dependent shall petition
31 for a guardian to be appointed for that dependent pursuant to NRS
32 159.044. An insurer shall not pay any compensation in excess of 33 $3,000, other than burial expenses, to the dependent until a guardian
34 is appointed and legally qualified. Upon receipt of a certified letter 35 of guardianship, the insurer shall make all payments required by this 36 section to the guardian of the dependent until the dependent is 37 emancipated, the guardianship terminates or the dependent reaches 38 the age of 18 years, whichever occurs first, unless paragraph (a) of 39 subsection [13.] 12 is applicable. The fees and costs related to the 40 guardianship must be paid from the estate of the dependent. A 41 guardianship established pursuant to this subsection must be 42 administered in accordance with chapter 159 of NRS, except that 43 after the first annual review required pursuant to NRS 159.176, a 44 court may elect not to review the guardianship annually. The court 45 shall review the guardianship at least once every 3 years. As used in

* S B 3 6 3 *

1 this subsection, "incompetent" has the meaning ascribed to it in 2 NRS 159.019.

3 [H3.] 12. Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (a) and 4 (b), the entitlement of any child to receive his proportionate share of 5 compensation pursuant to this section ceases when he dies, marries
6 or reaches the age of 18 years. A child is entitled to continue to 7 receive compensation pursuant to this section if he is:

8 (a) Over 18 years of age and incapable of supporting himself,
9 until such time as he becomes capable of supporting himself; or

10 (b) Over 18 years of age and enrolled as a full-time student in an 11 accredited vocational or educational institution, until he reaches the 12 age of 22 years.

13 [H4.] 13. As used in this section, "surviving spouse" means a 14 surviving husband or wife who was married to the employee at the 15 time of the employee's death.

16 Sec. 3. NRS 616C.507 is hereby repealed.

17 Sec. 4. The amendatory provisions of section 2 of this act do
18 not apply to a surviving spouse if the surviving spouse is remarried
19 before October 1, 2009.

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTION

616C.507 Duration of compensation for surviving spouse of police officer or firefighter.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, if the surviving spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter who died while actively employed as a police officer or firefighter is entitled to be paid compensation pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 616C.505 or NRS 617.453, 617.455, 617.457, 617.485 or 617.487, the surviving spouse:

(a) Must be paid that compensation until the death of the surviving spouse, whether or not the surviving spouse remarries; and

(b) Must not be paid any compensation pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 616C.505 or NRS 617.453, 617.455, 617.457, 617.485 or 617.487 in one lump sum upon remarriage.

2. A surviving spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter who was retired from employment as a police officer or firefighter at the time of death is entitled to receive compensation to the same extent and in the same manner as a surviving spouse specified in subsection 1 if:

* S B 3 6 3 *

(a) The police officer or firefighter retired because of the injury or occupational disease for which compensation is paid to the surviving spouse pursuant to this section; and

(b) The death of the police officer or firefighter was the direct and proximate result of the injury or occupational disease.

3. If the surviving spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter specified in subsection 1 or 2 becomes the spouse of another employee or retiree who thereafter dies under circumstances that would otherwise entitle the surviving spouse to be paid compensation pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 616C.505 or NRS 617.453, 617.455, 617.457, 617.485 or 617.487 with respect to the other employee, the surviving spouse:

(a) Must not be paid compensation pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 616C.505 or NRS 617.453, 617.455, 617.457, 617.485 or 617.487 with respect to the other employee; and

(b) Shall be deemed to have predeceased the other employee for the purposes of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, and 617 of NRS.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 1 and 2, the provisions of this section do not affect any compensation payable under chapter 617 of NRS.
