

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to peace officers; designating certain employees of the Department of Corrections as category II peace officers; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes the Director of the Department of Corrections to designate employees of the Department as peace officers. (NRS 289.220) Existing law also classifies peace officers as being within category I, category II or category III; peace officers in each category are designated as having certain powers and must meet certain training and educational requirements. (NRS 289.460, 289.470, 289.480) Under existing law, a category III peace officer is a peace officer whose authority is limited to correctional services, including the superintendents and correctional officers of the Department. (NRS 289.480) This bill provides that the Inspector General of the Department and criminal investigators of the Department are category II peace officers.
