AN ACT relating to traffic laws; prohibiting a person from manually typing or entering text into a cellular telephone or other handheld wireless communications device and from sending or reading data using any such device while operating a motor vehicle in certain circumstances; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under the existing traffic laws of this State, it is a crime to engage in various activities while operating a motor vehicle or to operate a motor vehicle in a reckless or unsafe manner. (Chapters 484A-484E of NRS) Section 2 of this bill makes it a crime for a person to manually type or enter text into a cellular telephone or other handheld wireless communications device, or to send or read data using any such device while operating a motor vehicle. Section 2 provides an exception when the cellular telephone or other device is used by law enforcement officers and other emergency personnel who are acting within the course and scope of their employment. Additional exceptions apply if the person is using the cellular telephone or other device to report or request assistance relating to a medical emergency, a safety hazard or criminal activity, or if the person is responding to a situation requiring immediate action and stopping the vehicle would be inadvisable, impractical or dangerous. A first or second violation of the provisions of section 2 within the immediately preceding 7 years is a misdemeanor, and a third or subsequent violation within the immediately preceding 7 years is a gross

16 misdemeanor. If a violation is the proximate cause of the death of, or substantial 17 bodily harm to, another person, the violation is punishable as a category B felony 18 and, pursuant to section 1 of this bill, will result in the revocation of the driver's
19 license of the person for 3 years. Section 3 of this bill makes the enhanced penalty
20 for certain traffic violations that occur in a temporary traffic control zone applicable 21 to violations of these new crimes.

4 cellular telephone, a personal digital assistant, a pager and a text 5 messaging device.

6 (b) “Nonvoice communication” includes, without limitation, a 7 communication by text message, electronic message and instant
8 message.

9 Sec. 3. NRS 484B.130 is hereby amended to read as follows:

10 484B.130 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2
11 and 6, a person who is convicted of a violation of a speed limit, or of 12 NRS 484B.150, 484B.163, 484B.200 to 484B.217, inclusive,

28 term or an amount equal to and in addition to the term of 29 imprisonment or amount of the fine, or both, that the court imposes 30 for the primary offense. Any term of imprisonment imposed
31 pursuant to this subsection runs consecutively with the sentence
32 prescribed by the court for the crime. This subsection does not 33 create a separate offense, but provides an additional penalty for the 34 primary offense, whose imposition is contingent upon the finding of 35 the prescribed fact.

37 must not exceed a total of $1,000, 6 months of imprisonment or 120
38 hours of community service.

39 3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, a

5 zone; and

6 (c) A sign to mark the end of the temporary traffic control zone.

7 4. A person who otherwise would be subject to an additional 8 penalty pursuant to this section is not relieved of any criminal 9 liability because signs are not erected as required by subsection 3 if 10 the violation results in injury to any person performing highway
11 construction or maintenance or other work in the temporary traffic
12 control zone or in damage to property in an amount equal to $1,000
13 or more.

14 5. The requirements of subsection 3 do not apply to an area
15 designated as a temporary traffic control zone:

16 (a) Pursuant to an emergency which results from a natural or 17 other disaster and which threatens the health, safety or welfare of 18 the public; or

19 (b) On a public highway where the posted speed limit is 25
20 miles per hour or less and that provides access to or is appurtenant 21 to a residential area.

22 6. A person who would otherwise be subject to an additional 23 penalty pursuant to this section is not subject to an additional 24 penalty if the violation occurred in a temporary traffic control zone 25 for which signs are not erected pursuant to subsection 5, unless the 26 violation results in injury to any person performing highway
27 construction or maintenance or other work in the temporary traffic
28 control zone or in damage to property in an amount equal to $1,000
29 or more.

37 cellular phone, satellite phone, portable phone or any other similar 38 electronic device that is handheld and designed or used to 39 communicate with a person.
