

Assembly Bill No. 15—Committee on
Legislative Operations and Elections

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to governmental administration; repealing requirements for the compilation and publication of certain biennial reports and statistical abstracts; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the Director of the Department of Administration to compile and publish a biennial report that includes the Governor's most recent state of the State message, an organizational chart of State Government, separate sections describing each state department and selected state agencies, and a description of recent trends in the population, economy and environment of this State. (NRS 345.070) Existing law also requires the Director to compile and publish a biennial statistical abstract containing significant statistical information relating to state and local government, data relating to this State furnished by the Federal Government, and information relating to business and the economy in this State. (NRS 345.090) This bill repeals the requirements for the compilation and publication of the biennial report and statistical abstract.
