AN ACT relating to crimes; revising provisions governing the crime of trespassing; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, unless a greater penalty is provided by NRS 200.603, which governs the crime of peering, peeping or spying through an opening of the dwelling of another person, a person who commits the crime of trespassing is guilty of a misdemeanor. (NRS 207.200) A person who is convicted of a misdemeanor generally must be punished by: (1) imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 6 months; (2) a fine of not more than $1,000; or (3) both imprisonment and a fine. Alternatively, instead of all or a portion of such punishment, a person may be sentenced to perform community service. (NRS 193.150)

This bill requires that unless a greater penalty is provided by NRS 200.603, a person who is convicted of trespassing on the premises of a licensed gaming establishment for the third or subsequent time within 5 years must be punished by: (1) a fine of $1,000; or (2) a fine of $1,000 and imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 6 months. A person may also be sentenced to perform community service instead of all or a portion of such punishment.
