EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to child custody; providing for the expiration by operation of law of certain orders modifying custody and visitation of children for persons who are members of the military; authorizing a court to delegate the visitation rights of a member of the military to a family member of the member of the military under certain circumstances; requiring a court, under certain circumstances, to provide an expedited hearing concerning custody or visitation matters to allow participation in such a hearing by affidavit or electronic means, or to both hold an expedited hearing and allow such participation; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

- 1 Existing law provides that an award of child custody or visitation may only be
- 2 made by considering the best interest of the child. (NRS 125.480, 125C.010)
- 3 Existing law further provides that the court is authorized, with certain exceptions,
- 4 to modify its order at any time. (NRS 125.510) Section 10 of this bill prohibits a
- 5 court from entering a final order modifying the terms of an existing custody or
- 6 visitation order of a parent or legal guardian who is a member of the military and
- 7 who has received mandatory written orders for deployment until 90 days after the
- 8 deployment ends. Section 11 of this bill provides that deployment or the potential

9 for future deployment of a parent or legal guardian must not, by itself, constitute a 10 substantial change sufficient to justify a permanent modification of a custody or 11 visitation order.

12 Section 12 of this bill authorizes a court to modify a custody or visitation order 13 to reasonably accommodate the deployment of a parent or legal guardian and 14 deems any such modification to be a temporary order. Section 13 of this bill
15 provides, with certain exceptions, that such a temporary order expires automatically 16 upon the completion of the deployment and the custody or visitation order that was 17 in place before the order was modified by the temporary order is automatically
18 reinstated.

19 Section 15 of this bill authorizes a court to delegate the visitation rights of the 20 parent or legal guardian who is deployed to a family member of the parent or legal 21 guardian under certain circumstances.

22 Section 14 of this bill requires a court, upon a motion of a parent or legal 23 guardian who is deployed or has received mandatory written orders for deployment
24 and whose ability, or anticipated ability, to appear in person at a regularly 25 scheduled hearing concerning custody or visitation matters is materially affected by 26 his or her military duties, to: (1) hold an expedited hearing; (2) allow the parent or 27 legal guardian to present testimony and evidence by affidavit or electronic means;
28 or (3) both hold an expedited hearing and allow testimony and evidence to be
29 presented by affidavit or electronic means.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 125.510 is hereby amended to read as follows:
2 125.510 1. In determining the custody of a minor child in an
3 action brought pursuant to this chapter, the court may, except as 4 otherwise provided in this section and chapter 130 of NRS ~~§~~ and 5 sections 3 to 20, inclusive, of this act:

6 (a) During the pendency of the action, at the final hearing or at 7 any time thereafter during the minority of any of the children of the 8 marriage, make such an order for the custody, care, education,
9 maintenance and support of the minor children as appears in their 10 best interest; and

11 (b) At any time modify or vacate its order, even if the divorce
12 was obtained by default without an appearance in the action by one
13 of the parties.

14 ➤ The party seeking such an order shall submit to the jurisdiction of 15 the court for the purposes of this subsection. The court may make 16 such an order upon the application of one of the parties or the legal 17 guardian of the minor.

18 2. Any order for joint custody may be modified or terminated
19 by the court upon the petition of one or both parents or on the 20 court's own motion if it is shown that the best interest of the child
21 requires the modification or termination. The court shall state in its 22 decision the reasons for the order of modification or termination if 23 either parent opposes it.

3. Any order for custody of a minor child or children of a marriage entered by a court of another state may, subject to the provisions of sections 3 to 20, inclusive, of this act and to the jurisdictional requirements in chapter 125A of NRS, be modified at any time to an order of joint custody.

4. A party may proceed pursuant to this section without counsel.

5. Any order awarding a party a limited right of custody to a child must define that right with sufficient particularity to ensure that the rights of the parties can be properly enforced and that the best interest of the child is achieved. The order must include all specific times and other terms of the limited right of custody. As used in this subsection, "sufficient particularity" means a statement of the rights in absolute terms and not by the use of the term "reasonable" or other similar term which is susceptible to different interpretations by the parties.

6. All orders authorized by this section must be made in accordance with the provisions of chapter 125A of NRS and sections 3 to 20, inclusive, of this act and must contain the following language:

PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

7. In addition to the language required pursuant to subsection 6, all orders authorized by this section must specify that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country.

8. If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

(a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country

1 of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the
2 terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

3 (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the 4 parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an
5 imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child
6 outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an 7 amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the 8 cost of locating the child and returning the child to his or her
9 habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or 10 concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a 11 parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not 12 create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of 13 wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

14 9. Except where a contract providing otherwise has been
15 executed pursuant to NRS 123.080, the obligation for care,
16 education, maintenance and support of any minor child created by 17 any order entered pursuant to this section ceases:

18 (a) Upon the death of the person to whom the order was 19 directed; or

20 (b) When the child reaches 18 years of age if the child is no
21 longer enrolled in high school, otherwise, when the child reaches 19
22 years of age.

23 10. As used in this section, a parent has "significant 24 commitments in a foreign country" if the parent:

25 (a) Is a citizen of a foreign country;

26 (b) Possesses a passport in his or her name from a foreign 27 country;

28 (c) Became a citizen of the United States after marrying the 29 other parent of the child; or

30 (d) Frequently travels to a foreign country.

34 custody or visitation order.

35 Sec. 12. 1. The court may temporarily modify a custody or 36 visitation order to reasonably accommodate the deployment of a 37 parent. Any such modification by the court of a custody or 38 visitation order shall be deemed a temporary order.

42 reasonable custody or visitation during periods of approved
43 military leave if the existing custody or visitation order granted
44 that parent custody or visitation before deployment;

(b) Include any restrictions concerning custody or visitation set forth in the existing custody or visitation order;

(d) Require the other parent to provide the court and the parent who received orders for deployment with written notice of any change of his or her address or telephone number as soon as practicable but not later than 30 days after such change.

3. In issuing a temporary order pursuant to subsection 1, the court shall consider issuing any such appropriate temporary order as will ensure the ability of the parent who received orders for deployment to maintain frequent and continuing contact with the child by means that are reasonably available.

Sec. 13. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a temporary order issued pursuant to section 12 of this act expires by operation of law upon the completion of the parent's deployment and the previous custody or visitation order is reinstated.

2. The court may, upon a motion alleging immediate danger of irreparable harm to the child, hold an expedited hearing concerning custody or visitation upon the completion of the parent's deployment.

Sec. 14. 1. If the military duties of a parent who received orders for deployment have a material effect on the ability, or anticipated ability, of the parent to appear in person at a regularly scheduled hearing concerning any custody or visitation matters, the court shall, upon a motion of that parent and for good cause shown:

1 shall consider the factors set forth in paragraphs (a) to (i),
2 inclusive, of subsection 6 of NRS 125C.050.

3 3. Any visitation rights delegated to a family member
4 pursuant to subsection 1 terminate upon:

5 (a) The expiration of a temporary order pursuant to section 13
6 of this act; or

7 (b) A showing that the delegated visitation is no longer in the 8 best interest of the child.

13 Sec. 16. If a custody or visitation order has not been issued
14 and a parent's deployment is imminent, the court shall, upon a

18 inclusive, of this act.

19 Sec. 17. 1. If military necessity precludes court
20 adjudication before deployment, the parent who received orders

23 agreeable resolution with regard to custody and visitation matters.

24 2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the parent
25 who received orders for deployment shall, within 10 days after 26 receiving the orders, provide a copy of the orders to the other

28 of the orders, a copy of the orders must be provided immediately to 29 the other parent.

30 Sec. 18. 1. If a court in this State has issued a custody or 31 visitation order, the absence of a child from this State during the

34 State retains exclusive, continuing jurisdiction as provided in 35 NRS 125A.315.

36 2. The deployment of a parent may not be used as a basis to 37 assert the issue of inconvenient forum pursuant to NRS 125A.365.
