AN ACT relating to campaign practices; requiring a notice of an alleged violation of provisions governing campaign practices to include certain information; requiring the Secretary of State to provide a copy of the notice and any accompanying information to the person alleged in the notice to have committed the violation; authorizing the person to respond to such a notice; authorizing the Secretary of State to conduct an investigation based on such a notice in certain circumstances; authorizing the Secretary of State or a designated officer or employee of the Secretary of State to subpoena witnesses and require the production of documents or records by subpoena when conducting an investigation based on such a notice in certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law confers authority upon the Secretary of State to conduct investigations concerning alleged violations of chapter 294A of NRS governing campaign practices. Existing law also authorizes a person who believes that any provision of that chapter has been violated to notify the Secretary of State in writing. The notice must be signed by the person and include any information in support of the alleged violation. (NRS 294A.410) This bill specifies the information that must be included in the notice and requires the Secretary of State to provide a copy of the notice and any accompanying information to the person, if any, alleged in the notice to have committed the violation. If, based on such a notice, the Secretary of State determines that reasonable suspicion exists that a violation has occurred, the Secretary of State is authorized to investigate the allegation. This bill further provides that, if the notice is received within 180 days after the general

13 election, general city election or special election for the office or ballot question to 14 which the notice pertains, the Secretary of State is authorized, when conducting an 15 investigation based on the notice, to subpoena witnesses and require the production 16 by subpoena of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements or 17 other documents or records in the possession of any person: (1) alleged in the 18 notice to have committed the violation; or (2) who the Secretary of State or a 19 designated officer or employee of the Secretary of State has reasonable cause to 20 believe produced or disseminated the materials that are the subject of the notice, if 21 the Secretary of State or a designated officer or employee of the Secretary of State 22 determines that the documents or records are relevant or material to the 23 investigation. Finally, this bill authorizes the Secretary of State or a designated 24 officer or employee of the Secretary of State to apply to a court for an order
25 compelling compliance if a person fails to testify or produce the required 26 documents or records.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1       Section 1. NRS 294A.410 is hereby amended to read as 2 follows:

3       294A.410 1. If it appears that the provisions of this chapter
4 have been violated, the Secretary of State may:

5       (a) Conduct an investigation concerning the alleged violation 6 and cause the appropriate proceedings to be instituted and 7 prosecuted in the First Judicial District Court; or

8       (b) Refer the alleged violation to the Attorney General. The 9 Attorney General shall investigate the alleged violation and institute
10 and prosecute the appropriate proceedings in the First Judicial 11 District Court without delay.

12      2. A person who believes that any provision of this chapter has 13 been violated may notify the Secretary of State, in writing, of the 14 alleged violation. The notice must be signed by the person alleging 15 the violation and include ~~any~~:

16       (a) The full name and address of the person alleging the 17 violation;

18       (b) A clear and concise statement of facts sufficient to 19 establish that the alleged violation occurred;

20       (c) Any evidence substantiating the alleged violation;

21       (d) A certification by the person alleging the violation that the 22 facts alleged in the notice are true to the best knowledge and belief 23 of that person; and

24       (e) Any other information in support of the alleged violation.

25       *3. As soon as practicable after receiving a notice of an 26 alleged violation pursuant to subsection 2, the Secretary of State
27 shall provide a copy of the notice and any accompanying 28 information to the person, if any, alleged in the notice to have 29 committed the violation. Any response submitted to the notice must*

1    *be accompanied by a short statement of the grounds, if any, for 2    objecting to the alleged violation and include any evidence
3    substantiating the objection.*

4    4. If the Secretary of State determines, based on a notice of 5    an alleged violation received pursuant to subsection 2, that 6    reasonable suspicion exists that a violation of this chapter has 7    occurred, the Secretary of State may conduct an investigation of 8    the alleged violation.

9    *5. If a notice of an alleged violation is received pursuant to 10   subsection 2 not later than 180 days after the general election,
11   general city election or special election for the office or ballot
12   question to which the notice pertains, the Secretary of State, when 13   conducting an investigation of the alleged violation pursuant to 14   subsection 4, may subpoena witnesses and require the production
15   by subpoena of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda,
16   agreements or other documents or records that the Secretary of 17   State or a designated officer or employee of the Secretary of State 18   determines are relevant or material to the investigation and are in 19   the possession of:*

20    (a) Any person alleged in the notice to have committed the 21   violation; or

22    (b) If the notice does not include the name of a person alleged 23   to have committed the violation, any person who the Secretary of 24   State or a designated officer or employee of the Secretary of State 25   has reasonable cause to believe produced or disseminated the 26   materials that are the subject of the notice.

27    *6. If a person fails to testify or produce any documents or 28   records in accordance with a subpoena issued pursuant to 29   subsection 5, the Secretary of State or designated officer or 30   employee may apply to the court for an order compelling
31   compliance. A request for an order of compliance may be 32   addressed to:*

33    *(a) The district court in and for the county where service may 34   be obtained on the person refusing to testify or produce the 35   documents or records, if the person is subject to service of process
36   in this State; or*

37    (b) A court of another state having jurisdiction over the person 38   refusing to testify or produce the documents or records, if the 39   person is not subject to service of process in this State.
