Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides that certain credits to the sentence of an offender convicted of certain category C, D or E felonies must be deducted from the minimum term imposed by the sentence until the offender becomes eligible for parole and from the maximum term imposed by the sentence. (NRS 209.4465) This bill provides that an offender convicted of certain category B felonies also qualifies to have certain credits deducted from the minimum term imposed by the sentence until the offender becomes eligible for parole and from the maximum term imposed by the sentence. However, an offender who has been convicted of being a habitual criminal, a habitual felon or a habitually fraudulent felon does not qualify for such credits.
