AN ACT relating to crimes; establishing the crime of stolen valor; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

The federal Stolen Valor Act of 2005 prohibits a person from falsely representing himself or herself, verbally or in writing, to have been awarded certain military decorations or awards. A person who violates this provision may be fined, imprisoned for not more than 6 months or both fined and imprisoned. (18 U.S.C. § 704(b)) The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit recently held that the Stolen Valor Act is facially invalid pursuant to the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and is therefore unconstitutional. The Ninth Circuit Court found that the Act as currently drafted restricts free speech rights, but the Court suggested that the statute could be modified into a constitutional anti-fraud statute. (United States v. Alvarez, 617 F.3d 1198, 1212, 1217 (9th Cir. 2010)) The Court noted that to prove that a person is liable for fraud, it must be shown that the person knowingly made a false representation of fact to intentionally mislead another person and successfully misled the other person through such false representation. (United States v. Alvarez, 617 F.3d 1198, 1211 (9th Cir. 2010) (citing Ill. ex rel. Madigan v. Telemarketing Assocs., Inc., 538 U.S. 600, 620 (2003)))

Existing Nevada law prohibits a person from willfully wearing the badge, button, insignie or rosette of any military order or of any secret order or society, or from using any such item to obtain aid, assistance or any other benefit or advantage, if the person is not entitled to wear or use any such items. (NRS 205.410) This bill repeals existing Nevada law and provides that a person commits the crime of stolen valor if the person knowingly, with the intent to mislead or defraud and with the intent to obtain some benefit or something of monetary value, misleads or defrauds another person by ~~making any~~ committing various acts concerning the false representation of (his or her) himself or herself with relation to military service and obtains something of value. If the amount of the loss caused by the violation: (1) is less than $2,500, the person who committed the violation is guilty of a gross misdemeanor; and (2) is $2,500 or more, the person who committed the violation is guilty of a category E felony.
