Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing traffic laws of this State, it is a crime to engage in various activities while operating a motor vehicle or to operate a motor vehicle in a reckless or unsafe manner. (Chapters 484A-484E of NRS) Section 1 of this bill makes it a crime for a person to manually type or enter text into a cellular telephone or other similar device, or to send or read data using any such device, while operating a motor vehicle. Section 1 further prohibits a person from using such a device for voice communications unless the device is used with an accessory which allows the person to communicate without using his or her hands, with certain limited exceptions. Section 1 provides an exception to the prohibitions when the cellular telephone or other device is used by law enforcement officers and other emergency personnel who are acting within the course and scope of their employment. Additional exceptions apply if : (1) the person is using the cellular telephone or other device to report or request assistance relating to a medical emergency, a safety hazard or criminal activity. ~~1. or if~~ ; (2) the person is responding to a situation requiring immediate action and stopping the vehicle would be inadvisable, impractical or dangerous. ~~1.1~~ ; or (3) the person is a licensed amateur radio operator providing communications services in connection with a disaster or emergency, participating in a drill, test, or other exercise in preparation for a disaster or emergency or otherwise communicating public information. A violation of the provisions added by section 1 is a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine of $250 for a first offense within the immediately preceding 7 years, $500 for a second offense within the immediately preceding 7 years and $1,000 for a third or subsequent offense within the immediately preceding 7 years. Section 1 further provides that a first offense will not be treated as a moving traffic violation. Additionally, if a person is convicted of a third or subsequent offense, in addition to the fine, the driver's license of the person will be suspended for 6 months. Section 2 of this bill makes

24 the enhanced penalty for certain traffic violations that occur in a temporary traffic control
25 zone applicable to violations of these new crimes.
