AN ACT relating to state financial administration; creating the Account for Real Estate Administration in the State General Fund; requiring money that is collected from the imposition of certain fees and charges to be deposited into the Account; requiring money in the Account to be used to defray certain costs and expenses of the Real Estate Division of the Department of Business and Industry; authorizing the Division to maintain a reserve in the Account under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires certain fees, penalties and charges that are collected by the Real Estate Commission, the Commission of Appraisers of Real Estate, the Real Estate Administrator and the Real Estate Division of the Department of Business and Industry to be deposited into the State General Fund. (NRS 119.118, 645.140, 645C.240, 645D.140) Existing law also provides that certain money received by the Commission for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, a hearing panel or the Division pursuant to certain laws concerning the regulation of community managers and certain personnel must be deposited in the Account for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels. (NRS 116A.220) Section 1 of this bill creates the Account for Real Estate Administration in the State General Fund and requires the Administrator to administer the Account. Sections 1-3, 7 and 9 of this bill require the Real Estate Commission, the Commission of Appraisers of Real Estate, the Administrator, the Commission for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, a hearing panel and the Division to deposit money that is collected from the imposition of certain fees and charges into the Account and sections 1-3 require money that is collected from the imposition of a fine or penalty be deposited into the State General Fund. Sections 1-3, 7 and 9 also require the money in the Account to be used to defray certain costs and expenses of the Division until the amount deposited into the Account in a fiscal year reaches the amount authorized for expenditure by the Division to carry out its duties. After the amount the Division is authorized to expend in a fiscal year has been deposited, all money received by the Division must be deposited into the State General Fund except that the Division may maintain a reserve of not more than $500,000 which does not revert to the State General Fund and which the Division may use as authorized by the Legislature or the Interim Finance Committee.
