AN ACT relating to crimes; ~~[clarifying the definition of]~~ defining the term “minor” for the purposes of ~~certain criminal statutes;~~ the crime of kidnapping in the first degree; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

On July 20, 2009, the Fourth Judicial District Court, in and for the County of Elko, held that the provisions of NRS 200.710 concerning the unlawful use of a minor in producing pornography or as a subject of sexual portrayal in a performance are unconstitutionally vague because it is unclear whether the term “minor” means a person under 16 years of age or a person under 18 years of age. (State of Nevada v. Aaron Taylor Hughes, Nev. Fourth Jud. Dist. Ct. Case No. CR IP 08 2848 (July 20, 2009))
This bill defines “minor,” as used in title 15 of NRS (Crimes and Punishments), to mean a person who is under 18 years of age, except as otherwise defined by specific statute.]

Existing law establishes degrees of kidnapping and provides that kidnapping in the first degree includes certain actions performed with the intent to keep a minor away from his or her parents, guardians or any person who has lawful custody of the minor, or with the intent to hold the minor to unlawful service, or perpetrate any unlawful act upon the minor. (NRS 200.310) This bill defines the term “minor” as used in those provisions of existing law as a person who is under 18 years of age.
