AN ACT relating to common-interest communities; enacting provisions governing registration of tenants of units' owners with associations or their agents; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

This bill enacts requirements governing the registration of a tenant or lease or rental agreement in a common-interest community and the provision of information to an association or its agent when a unit's owner leases or rents his or her unit. Under this bill, if the governing documents require a unit's owner who leases or rents his or her unit or the tenant of that unit's owner to register with the association or its agent or otherwise provide information concerning the tenant or the agreement to the association or its agent, the association or its agent: (1) must conduct such activities in accordance with the governing documents; (2) may not require the unit's owner or tenant to provide more information concerning the tenant than it requires from a unit's owner who occupies his or her unit, except that it may require the unit's owner to provide a copy of the lease; and (3) may not charge a fee to the unit's owner for the registration or submission of information.

1       2. Unless, at the time a unit's owner purchased his or her unit, 2 the declaration required the unit's owner to secure or obtain any 3 approval from the association in order to rent or lease his or her unit, 4 an association may not require the unit's owner to secure or obtain
5 any approval from the association in order to rent or lease his or her 6 unit.

7       3. If a declaration contains a provision establishing a maximum 8 number or percentage of units in the common-interest community

10 not be amended to decrease that maximum number or percentage of 11 units in the common-interest community which may be rented or

13      4. *If the governing documents of an association require a 14 unit's owner who leases or rents his or her unit, or the tenant of a 15 unit's owner, to register with the association or its agent or

32 applicable federal, state or local laws or regulations.

33      [5.] 6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or the 38 been rented or leased, the unit's owner may seek a waiver of the 39 prohibition from the executive board based upon a showing of
