EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to public accommodations; revising provisions relating to unlawful discrimination based on sex and gender identity or expression in places of public accommodation; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Nevada has declared as its public policy the right of all people to have access to places of public accommodation without discrimination based on race, religious creed, color, age, sex, disability, sexual orientation, national origin or ancestry, and section 4 of this bill extends that public policy to discrimination based on gender identity or expression. Existing law provides that all persons have the right to full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and accommodations of any place of public accommodation without discrimination or segregation based on race, color, religion, national origin, disability or sexual orientation. (NRS 651.070) Section 2 of this bill provides the same protection from discrimination or segregation based on sex or gender identity or expression in places of public accommodation. A person who withholds, denies or deprives any other person of this right, intimidates, threatens or coerces any other person for the purpose of interfering with this right or punishes any other person for exercising this right is guilty of a misdemeanor. (NRS 651.080)

Existing law authorizes the Nevada Equal Rights Commission to investigate practices of discrimination in places of public accommodation and authorizes a person who believes he or she has been discriminated against based on race, color,

18 religion, national origin, disability or sexual orientation to file a complaint with the 19 Commission. (NRS 233.150, 651.110) Section 6 of this bill authorizes the 20 Commission additionally to investigate practices of discrimination based on gender
21 identity or expression. Section 3 of this bill authorizes a person who believes he or 22 she has been discriminated against based on sex or gender identity or expression to 23 file a complaint with the Commission.
