EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to elections; enacting the Agreement Among the States to Elect the President by National Popular Vote;
and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law provides that the nominees for presidential elector of the 2 candidates for President and Vice President who receive the highest number of 3 votes in this State at the general election thereby become the official presidential
4 electors for this State. (NRS 298.025) After being selected, the official
5 presidential electors convene to vote for President and Vice President. The official
6 presidential electors are bound to vote for the nominees for President and Vice 7 President of the party that prevailed or the independent candidates who won the 8 most votes in this State at the general election. (NRS 298.050) This bill provides 9 that the nominees for presidential elector of the candidates for President and Vice 10 President who received the highest number of popular votes in the nation would 11 become the official presidential electors for Nevada. The provisions of this bill will 12 become effective on the date that states with enough electoral votes to constitute a 13 majority of the electoral votes have adopted this Agreement (270 electoral votes of 14 538).

15 This bill contains the text of the Agreement Among the States to Elect the 16 President by National Popular Vote without any changes necessary to conform to 17 Nevada law, because each state wishing to participate in the compact is required to 18 enact the same 888 words, in addition to the enacting clause contained in the 19 Agreement.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 298 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

The Agreement Among the States to Elect the President by National Popular Vote is hereby enacted into law and entered into with all jurisdictions legally joining the Compact, in substantially the form set forth in this section:

Article I—Membership

Any State of the United States and the District of Columbia may become a member of this agreement by enacting this agreement.

Article II—Right of the People in Member States to Vote for President and Vice President

Each member state shall conduct a statewide popular election for President and Vice President of the United States.

Article III—Manner of Appointing Presidential Electors in Member States

Prior to the time set by law for the meeting and voting by the presidential electors, the chief election official of each member state shall determine the number of votes for each presidential slate in each State of the United States and in the District of Columbia in which votes have been cast in a statewide popular election and shall add such votes together to produce a “national popular vote total” for each presidential slate.

The chief election official of each member state shall designate the presidential slate with the largest national popular vote total as the “national popular vote winner.”

The presidential elector certifying official of each member state shall certify the appointment in that official’s own state of the elector slate nominated in that state in association with the national popular vote winner.

At least six days before the day fixed by law for the meeting and voting by the presidential electors, each member state shall make a final determination of the number of popular votes cast in the
