Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1 of this bill requires a law enforcement agency, upon the arrest and booking of a person, to: (1) verify the immigration status of the person with federal immigration authorities; and (2) if the person is verified as being an unauthorized alien, detain the person or transfer the person into federal custody, at the discretion of the federal immigration authorities, unless the person provides identification that would not have been issued to him or her absent proof of legal presence in the United States.

Existing law provides that an applicant for the issuance or renewal of a state business license must submit an application to the Secretary of State. (NRS 76.100, 76.130) Sections 2 and 3 of this bill require that if an applicant for the issuance or renewal of a state business license employs five or more employees, the application for issuance or renewal, as applicable, must be accompanied by a copy of each Internal Revenue Service Form 1099 that the business was required to file in the preceding calendar year.

Federal law authorizes the Attorney General of the United States to enter into written agreements with states under which certain officers or employees of the state or a political subdivision of the state who are determined by the Attorney General of the United States to be qualified to perform a function of an immigration officer regarding the investigation, apprehension or detention of aliens in the United States may carry out such a function, at the expense of the state or political subdivision, and to the extent such function is consistent with state and local law. (8 U.S.C. § 1357(g)) Section 4 of this bill requires the Attorney General of this State to negotiate and implement such an agreement.

Existing federal law establishes the federal "E-Verify system" as an electronic program through which employers verify the employment eligibility of their employees. (8 U.S.C. § 1324a) Section 5 of this bill requires each public employer to register and participate in the E-Verify system to verify the employment eligibility of current and prospective employees.

Under existing law, a contractor or subcontractor on a public work must comply with certain requirements, such as making employment decisions without discrimination based on race, color, creed, national origin, sex, sexual orientation or age. (NRS 338.125) Section 6 of this bill requires a contractor or subcontractor on a public work to register and participate in the E-Verify system to verify the employment eligibility of all workers on the public work.

Section 8 of this bill provides that any person, firm or corporation which knowingly misclassifies an unauthorized alien as a legal alien is subject to a fine of $50 per misclassified worker, up to a maximum of $50,000, to be recovered in a suit brought by the Attorney General.
