

Assembly Bill No. 168—Assemblywoman Carlton

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to wildlife; requiring the membership of each county advisory board to manage wildlife to include one qualified member who represents the interests of the general public; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law establishes a county advisory board to manage wildlife in each county in the State of Nevada. (NRS 501.260) The boards are required to solicit and evaluate local opinion and advise the Board of Wildlife Commissioners on matters relating to the management of wildlife within their respective counties, including recommendations for setting seasons for fishing, hunting and trapping, bag limits and hours. (NRS 501.297, 501.303) The board of county commissioners of each county is required to appoint the members of the county advisory board to manage wildlife for the county. Each person appointed to a county advisory board is required to: (1) be a hunter, trapper, angler or a person engaged in ranching or farming; and (2) reside in the county in which the board sits. (NRS 501.265, 501.270) This bill requires each board of county commissioners to appoint one person who represents the interests of the general public to occupy one position on the county advisory board to manage wildlife in that county. This bill also requires the board of county commissioners, when filling a vacancy in the membership of a hunter, trapper, angler, rancher or farmer, to consider the recommendations of persons who are engaged in ranching or farming in the county.
